The Specialist Soup Company Limited

Directors' report

The directors present their annual report and financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2001.

Principal activities and business review

The company did not trade during the year or the previous financial year and there has been no income or expenditure.

Directors and directors' interests

The directors who served during the year were:

J E Nichols (resigned 21 January 2002)
A C O'Neill (appointed 18 December 2001)

None of the directors who were directors at the year end had any beneficial interest in the share capital of the company or any contract to which the company was party during the year.

Mr J E Nichols, Mr S P Mackee and Mr A C O'Neill are also directors of Hillsdown Ambient Foods Group Limited, the company's immediate parent company. Any interests in the share capital of group companies are disclosed in the financial statements of that company.

Auditors

The company satisfies the requirements set out in Section 250 of the Companies Act 1985 (as amended), and accordingly having on 15th December 1999 passed a written resolution, the company exempts itself from the provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 (as amended) relating to the audit of accounts.

The Specialist Soup Company Limited

Statement of directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company and group will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They have general responsibility for taking such steps as are reasonably open to them to safeguard the assets of the company and to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.
