The directors present their annual report and the audited financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2009

The company has taken advantage of the exemption granted under s417 of the Companies Act 2006 and has not produced an Enhanced Business Review. The company has prepared accounts in accordance with s415A2 of the Companies Act 2006

Results and dividends

The company has not traded during the year. There was no profit before taxation for the year (2008: nil). A dividend of £330,000,000 (2008: nil) was declared and paid to Reed Elsevier (UK) Limited during the year.

Principal activities and future developments

The company has carried on the activities of a holding company and the directors do not anticipate any changes in these activities in the foreseeable future.

Financial risks

Due to the fact the company has not traded during the year and has no plans to commence trading within the foreseeable future, the company does not consider it necessary to adopt a financial risks policy as such information is not considered material for the assessment of the assets, liabilities, financial position and profit or loss of the company.

Directors

The following served as directors throughout the year:

RE Directors (No. 1) Limited

RE Directors (No. 2) Limited

Directors' indemnity insurance has been taken out by the company on the directors' behalf.

Statement of directors' responsibilities

The directors are responsible for preparing the directors' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis, unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

Disclosure of information to auditors

Each of the persons who is a director at the date of approval of this report confirms that

- so far as the director is aware, there is no relevant audit information of which the company's auditors are unaware, and
- the director has taken all the steps that he/she ought to have taken as a director in order to make himself/herself aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the company's auditors are aware of that information

This confirmation is given and should be interpreted in accordance with the provisions of s418 of the Companies Act 2006

Auditors

Deloitte LLP were appointed as auditors for the company and have expressed their willingness to continue in office as auditors and a resolution to re-appoint them will be proposed at the forthcoming Annual General Meeting

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF FORMPART (RPL) LIMITED

We have audited the financial statements of Formpart (RPL) Limited for the year ended 31 December 2009 which comprise the balance sheet and the related notes 1 to 13. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

This report is made solely to the company's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditors' report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors

As explained more fully in the Statement of Directors' Responsibilities, the directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view. Our responsibility is to audit the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). Those standards require us to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's (APB's) Ethical Standards for Auditors.

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's circumstances and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed, the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the directors, and the overall presentation of the financial statements.

Opinion on financial statements

In our opinion the financial statements

- give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at 31 December 2009 and of its result for the year then ended,
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice, and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Opinion on other matter prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion the information given in the Directors' Report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept, or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns, or
- certain disclosures of directors' remuneration specified by law are not made, or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit, or
- the directors were not entitled to take advantage of the small companies exemption in preparing the directors' report.

11. Group accounts and cash flow statement

The company's immediate parent undertaking is Reed Elsevier (UK) Limited, a company incorporated in Great Britain. The company is not required to prepare group accounts under s400 of the Companies Act 2006 because its parent undertaking is established under the law of a member state of the European Union and the ultimate parent undertaking prepares group accounts. Accordingly these financial statements present information about this company as an individual undertaking and not as a group. Similarly, a cash flow statement is not required under Financial Reporting Standard 1(Revised) (Cash Flow Statements).

12 Ultimate parent company

The company's ultimate parent undertaking and controlling entity is Reed Elsevier Group plc, a company incorporated in Great Britain. The smallest and largest group into which the accounts of the company for the year ended 31 December 2009 are consolidated is Reed Elsevier Group plc. Copies of the consolidated accounts of Reed Elsevier Group plc may be obtained from its registered office at 1-3 Strand, London, WC2N 5JR. Reed Elsevier Group plc is jointly owned by Reed Elsevier PLC (a company incorporated in Great Britain) and Reed Elsevier NV (a company incorporated in the Netherlands).

13. Related party transactions

The company has taken advantage of the exemption granted under paragraph 3(c) of Financial Reporting Standard 8 (Related Party Disclosures) not to disclose transactions with entities that are part of Reed Elsevier Group plc as the consolidated financial statements of Reed Elsevier Group plc, in which the company is included, are publicly available.
