Dear Sirs

Lloyds UDT Limited
(In Members' Voluntary Liquidation) ("the Company")

On 24 September 2019, Samantha Keen and I were appointed as Joint Liquidators of the Company.

I now write to provide you with our report on the progress of the liquidation for the period from 24 September 2022 to 23 September 2023.

In accordance with the provisions of the Insolvency (England and Wales) Rules 2016 ("the Rules"), we are required to provide certain information about the Company and the Liquidators. This information can be found in Appendix A of this report. A copy of our receipts and payments account for the period from 24 September 2022 to 23 September 2023 is at Appendix B.

Progress during the period of this report

Property charges

As previously reported, the Company is part of the Lloyds Banking Group ("LBG") and prior to liquidation, the Joint Liquidators were advised of several outstanding land registry charges in favour of the Company. Accordingly, the Joint Liquidators have been in the process of obtaining confirmation from LBG that all outstanding charges have been removed and that there are no outstanding matters in respect of the Company prior to conclusion of the liquidation. During the period of this report, LBG have confirmed that all charges have been removed and, therefore, this matter is considered closed.

Assets

As at the date of the liquidation, the Company's only asset was an intercompany receivable in the sum of £1 due from Black Horse Limited. This asset will be distributed to Black Horse Finance Holdings Limited ("the Shareholder") on conclusion of the liquidation.

Liabilities

As previously reported, the Company had no known creditors at the date of liquidation and no claims have been received during the liquidation period.

Outstanding matters

As previously reported, HMRC have advised that they will be unable to approve dissolution of the Company until such time as an ongoing enquiry into group relief claims related to the pre-liquidation period has been concluded.

As at the date of this report, this matter remains unresolved and, therefore, the Joint Liquidators are unable to obtain corporation tax clearance. Once received, the Joint Liquidators can proceed with closure of the liquidation.

Joint Liquidators' remuneration

Our remuneration was fixed on a time-cost basis by a resolution of the members on 24 September 2019 and is paid by another group company.

There is no recourse to the liquidation estate in respect of our fees as a contractual arrangement exists with another group company.

Details of amounts paid, name of the payor and the relationship between the payor and the Company, are available upon request to me at 1 More London Place, London, SE1 2AF.

Joint Liquidators' statement of expenses incurred

During the period of liquidation, we have incurred expenses relating to statutory advertising and statutory bonding which have also been paid by another group company. There is no recourse to the estate in respect of our expenses as a contractual arrangement exists with another group company.

Members' rights to further information about, and challenge, remuneration and expenses

In certain circumstances, members are entitled to request further information about our remuneration or expenses, or to apply to court if members consider the costs to be excessive. Further information is provided in Appendix C.

Other matters

Once the above outstanding matters have been concluded, the Joint Liquidators will issue their final report and account to shareholders to conclude the liquidation.

If you wish to discuss any matters arising from this report, please do not hesitate to contact Katya Vasileva on the direct line telephone number shown above.

Yours faithfully
for the Company

Richard Barker
Joint Liquidator

Richard Barker and Samantha Keen are licensed in the United Kingdom to act as insolvency practitioners by The Insolvency Practitioners Association.

The Joint Liquidators may act as data controllers of personal data as defined by the UK General Data Protection Regulation (as incorporated in the Data Protection Act 2018), depending upon the specific processing activities undertaken. Members' rights to request further information about remuneration or expenses or to challenge a liquidator's remuneration – Rules 18.9 and 18.34 of the Insolvency (England and Wales) Rules 2016 (as amended)

18.9 Creditors' and members' request for further information

18.9.—(1) The following may make a written request to the office-holder for further information about remuneration or expenses (other than pre-administration costs in an administration) set out in a progress report under rule 18.4(1)(b), (c) or (d) or a final report or account under rule 18.14—

(a) a secured creditor;

(b) an unsecured creditor with the concurrence of at least 5% in value of the unsecured creditors (including the creditor in question);

(c) members of the company in a members' voluntary winding up with at least 5% of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at general meetings of the company;

(d) any unsecured creditor with the permission of the court; or

(e) any member of the company in a members' voluntary winding up with the permission of the court.

(2) A request, or an application to the court for permission, by such a person or persons must be made or filed with the court (as applicable) within 21 days of receipt of the report or account by the person, or by the last of them in the case of an application by more than one member or creditor.

(3) The office-holder must, within 14 days of receipt of such a request respond to the person or persons who requested the information by—

(a) providing all of the information requested;

(b) providing some of the information requested; or

(c) declining to provide the information requested.

(4) The office-holder may respond by providing only some of the information requested or decline to provide the information if—

(a) the time or cost of preparation of the information would be excessive; or

(b) disclosure of the information would be prejudicial to the conduct of the proceedings;

(c) disclosure of the information might reasonably be expected to lead to violence against any person; or

(d) the office-holder is subject to an obligation of confidentiality in relation to the information.

(5) An office-holder who does not provide all the information or declines to provide the information must inform the person or persons who requested the information of the reasons for so doing.

(6) A creditor, and a member of the company in a members' voluntary winding up, who need not be the same as the creditor or members who requested the information, may apply to the court within 21 days of—

(a) the office-holder giving reasons for not providing all of the information requested; or

(b)the expiry of the 14 days within which an office-holder must respond to a request.

(7) The court may make such order as it thinks just on an application under paragraph (6).

18.34 Members' claim that remuneration is excessive

18.34.—(1) This rule applies to an application in an administration, a winding-up or a bankruptcy made by a person mentioned in paragraph (2) on the grounds that—

(a)the remuneration charged by the office-holder is in all the circumstances excessive;

(b) the basis fixed for the office-holder's remuneration under rules 18.16, 18.18, 18.19, 18.20 and 18.21 (as applicable) is inappropriate; or

(c) the expenses incurred by the office-holder are in all the circumstances excessive.

(2) The following may make such an application for one or more of the orders set out in rule 18.36 or 18.37 as applicable—

(a) a secured creditor,

(b) an unsecured creditor with either—

(i) the concurrence of at least 10% in value of the unsecured creditors (including that creditor), or

(ii) the permission of the court, or

(c) in a members' voluntary winding up—

(i) members of the company with at least 10% of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at general meetings of the company, or

(ii) a member of the company with the permission of the court.

(3) The application by a creditor or member must be made no later than eight weeks after receipt by the applicant of the progress report under rule 18.3, or final report or account under rule 18.14 which first reports the charging of the remuneration or the incurring of the expenses in question ("the relevant report").
