Directors' Responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those accounts, the directors are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently :
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Follow applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departure disclosed and explained in the accounts;
- Prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the compnay and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Taxation Status

The company is a close company under the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988. In preparing this report the directors have taken advantage of special exemptions applicable to small companies provided by Part II of Schedule 8 to the Companies Act 1985.

The company was, for the year ended 31st. March 2002, entitled to the exemption under sub-section (1) of Section 249A of the Companies Act 1985.

No notice from members requiring an audit, has been deposited under Section 249B(2) of the Companies Act 1985 and the directors acknowledge their responsibility for :-

- (a) ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with Section 221 and
- (b) preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial year, and of its profit or loss for the financial year, in accordance with the requirements of Section 226. and otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company.

The accounts are prepared in accordance with the special provisions in part VII of the Companies Act 1985 relating to small companies.
