3.—The objects for which the Company is established are —

- (1) To enter into an Agreement adopting, with or without modification, the Agreement referred to in Clause 3 of the Articles of Association of the Company.
- (2) To carry on all or any of the businesses of manufacturers of or dealers in linatex, rubber flooring and rubber goods of every description and of any materials or articles made or prepared with or in the manufacture of which rubber, fibre or other like materials are used, and all machinery, implements, utensils, appliances, apparatus, chemicals, substances and things capable of being used in connection therewith or in the manufacture, maintenance or working thereof.
- (3) To carry on the business of and to act as agents, brokers, merchants, importers, exporters, packers, traders, shippers, shipowners, storekeepers and warehousemen, carriers, and to import, export, manufacture, buy, sell, barter, exchange, pledge, make advances upon or otherwise deal in goods, produce, articles and merchandise of all kinds, and to execute all kinds of financial, commercial, trading and other operations, and to transact all kinds of commission and agency business, or any trade or business whatsoever which can be advantageously or conveniently carried on by the Company by way of extension of or in connection with any such business, or is calculated directly or indirectly to develop any branch of the Company's business or to increase the value of any of the Company's assets, property or rights.

- (4) To apply for, acquire by purchase, accept a licence in respect of or by any other means acquire, protect, prolong or renew any patents, patent rights, secret processes, or other rights or monopolies (British, Colonial or foreign) licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition or working of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to use, exercise, develop, grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights or information so acquired, and to expend money in experimenting upon, testing and improving or seeking to improve any patents, inventions, rights or processes which the Company may acquire or propose to acquire, and to make, assist or subsidise experiments, researches or investigations that may appear to be likely to benefit the Company.
- (5) To purchase, lease or otherwise acquire estates on which rubber or any other produce has been planted or which are suitable for the planting thereon of rubber or other produce, whether of a like nature or otherwise, and to carry on the business of planters and agriculturists of whatsoever nature, and to produce, prepare and/or render marketable any such produce and to sell, dispose of, and deal in any such produce in either its prepared or raw state, either by wholesale or retail, and to acquire, clear, manage, farm, cultivate, irrigate, and otherwise work or use any lands, and to deal with any farm, or other products of such lands.
- (6) To acquire, erect, construct, equip, lay down, enlarge, alter, license, lease, maintain, work, manage, carry out or control, or otherwise deal with works, factories, refineries, laboratories, whether for rubber or otherwise, wharves, warehouses, shops, stores, and other buildings, works and conveniences necessary or convenient for the Company's business, and to purchase, contribute to, subsidise, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying out or control of the same.

- (7) To adopt such means of making known the business or products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards and donations.
- (8) To promote or form, or assist in the promotion or formation of any company, with power to assist any company by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses, or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking or subscribing for shares therein, or by lending money thereto upon debentures or otherwise ; and further, to pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of and incident to the promotion, formation, registration, and establishment of this or any other company.
- (9) To purchase or otherwise acquire or undertake all or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company.
- (10) To procure the Company to be registered or recognised in any British Dominion, Colony, Protectorate, Mandated Territory or Dependency or in any foreign state, and to enter into any arrangements with any governments or authorities, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, and to obtain from any such government or authority all rights, concessions, and privileges that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to oppose the grant to any other person or company of similar rights, concessions and privileges.
- (11) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, reciprocal concession or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or any business or transaction which is capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company.

- (12) Generally to purchase, take on lease, or exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire or obtain options over any real or personal property, and any rights, licences or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, or capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of the Company's property or rights for the time being.
- (13) To make, draw, accept, endorse, execute, issue, purchase, lend money upon, discount, promissory notes, bills of exchange, charter parties, bills of lading, warrants and other negotiable or mercantile instruments.
- (14) To issue securities which the Company has power to issue by way of security and indemnity to any person whom the Company has agreed, or is bound or willing to indemnify, or in satisfaction of any liability, and generally in every respect upon such terms and conditions and for such considerations as the Company may think fit.
- (15) To pay for any property or rights acquired by the Company, and for any services rendered or to be rendered to the Company, either in cash or in shares, with or without preferred or deferred rights in respect of dividend or repayment of capital, or otherwise, or by any securities or obligations which the Company has power to issue, or partly in one mode and partly in another or others.
- (16) To receive money, securities and obligations on deposit at interest or otherwise.
- (17) To give any indemnity or guarantee in relation to any matter arising in the course of the business of the Company, or for the performance of contracts of whatever nature by any person or company, including any indemnity or guarantee with reference to the payment of any debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations, securities, shares or stock of any company, or of any dividends or income in respect thereof.
- (18) To invest the moneys of the Company not otherwise required upon such investments and in such manner as may from time to time be determined, and in particular, to acquire shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, annuities, bonds, obligations and securities of all kinds, by original subscription, tender, purchase, exchange or otherwise, and to subscribe for the same either conditionally or otherwise, and to underwrite or guarantee the subscription thereof, and to exercise and enforce all rights and powers conferred by or incident to the ownership thereof.

- (19) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts and conveniences calculated to benefit any of the officials or employees or ex-officials or ex-employees of the Company or its predecessors in business, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances to such persons or their dependents or connections, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition or for any public, general or useful object, where the same is calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the Company.
- (20) To sell, let, dispose of, or deal with the undertaking or property of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, securities or obligations, or the right to take shares, debentures, securities or obligations of any other company.
- (21) To lend money to such persons, companies, and societies, and to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company, and on such terms and conditions as may seem expedient, and with or without security.
- (22) To raise or borrow or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, mortgages, and other instruments for securing the repayment thereof, with or without a charge upon all or any of the property of the Company or its uncalled or unpaid capital, and upon such terms as to priority or otherwise as the Company shall think fit, and to purchase, redeem and pay off any such securities, and to issue any such securities for such consideration or purpose as may be thought fit.
- (23) To amalgamate with any other company in any part of the world whose objects are similar to or include any object or objects, or whose business or any part thereof is similar to the business or any part of the business of this Company, whether by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of the undertaking and the liabilities of this or any such other company as aforesaid, with or without winding up, or by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of all the shares or stock, debentures or securities of this or such other company as aforesaid, or by partnership or any arrangement of the nature of partnership, or in any other manner.

- (24) To distribute among the members in specie by way of dividend or bonus, or upon a return of capital, any property of the Company or any proceeds [of sale or disposal of any property of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law.
- (25) To hold in the names of others any property which the Company is authorised to acquire, and do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents, sub-contractors, trustees or otherwise.
- (26) To do all such other things as are incidental to or connected with any of the above objects or conducive to the attainment thereof or otherwise likely in any respect to be advantageous to the Company.

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause, except where used in reference to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, and, further, that the objects specified in each paragraph in this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in no wise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from any other paragraph or the name of the Company. Provided that nothing herein contained shall empower the Company to carry on the business of assurance, or to grant annuities within the meaning of the Assurance Companies Act, 1909, as extended by the Industrial Assurance Act, 1923, or to re-insure any risks under any class of assurance business to which those Acts apply.

4.—The liability of the members is limited.

5.—The original share capital of the Company is £2,500 divided into 2,500 shares of £1 each, with power to increase or reduce the capital, to consolidate or sub-divide the shares into shares of larger or smaller amounts, and to issue all or any part of the original or any additional capital as fully-paid or partly-paid shares, and with any special or preferential rights or privileges, or subject to any special terms or conditions, and either with or without any special designation, and also from time to time to alter, modify, commute, abrogate or deal with any such rights, privileges, terms, conditions or designations in accordance with the regulations for the time being of the Company.

WE, the several persons whose names, addresses and descriptions are hereunto subscribed, are desirous of being formed into a Company in pursuance of this Memorandum of Association, and we respectively agree to take the number of shares in the capital of the Company set opposite our respective names.

THE COMPANIES ACT, 1929.

COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES.

Articles of Association

OF

LIMITED.

1.—Subject as hereinafter provided, the regulations contained in Table A (hereinafter called "Table A") in the First Schedule to the Companies Act, 1929, shall apply to this Company.

2.—The Company shall be a Private Company, and for this purpose the number of members of the Company (exclusive of persons who are in the employment of the Company, and of persons who, having been formerly in the employment of the Company, were while in that employment, and have continued after the determination of that employment, to be members of the Company) shall not at any time exceed fifty, provided that where two or more persons hold one or more share or shares in the Company jointly, they shall for the purposes of this Article be treated as a single member.

3.—The Company shall forthwith enter into an Agreement adopting, with or without modification, an Agreement dated 14th day of February, 1930, and made between The Wilkinson Process Rubber Company, Limited, of the one part and Harrisons & Crosfield Limited, of the other part in the terms of the draft, a copy whereof has for the purposes of identification been endorsed with the signature of Sir Robert Witt, a Solicitor of the Supreme Court, and the Directors shall forthwith carry the same into effect, with or without modification, as they shall think fit. The basis on which the Company is established is that the Company shall enter into the said Agreement, subject to such modifications (if any) as aforesaid, and accordingly no objection shall be made to the said Agreement by the Company or by any member, creditor or liquidator thereof upon the ground that any Director of the Company stands in a fiduciary position towards the Company, and any such Director shall be entitled, notwithstanding any such fiduciary relationship, to the Company to retain and dispose of for his own use all benefits (if any) accruing to him directly or indirectly under or by virtue of the said Agreement. Every member of the Company present and future shall be deemed to have full notice of the contents of the said Agreement and of all Agreements and documents to be entered into under this Article, and to sanction the same and to agree to be bound thereby.

4.—In Clause 2 of Table A the words " Ordinary Resolution " shall be read in the place of the words " Special Resolution " where they occur therein.

5.—Clause 19 of Table A shall be read subject to the following provision: The Directors shall have an absolute right to refuse to register a transfer of any share, whether the proposed transferee be a member of the Company or not, without assigning any reason therefor.

6.—The Company is hereby prohibited from issuing any invitation to the public to subscribe for any shares, debentures or debenture stock of the Company. The Company, or the Board on behalf of the Company, may pay a commission to any person in consideration of his subscribing, or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares in the Company, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional, for any shares in the Company, provided that the rate per cent. of the commission, or the amount thereof, shall be duly disclosed in accordance with the statutes and shall not exceed 10 per cent. of the price at which the shares are issued, and so that, if the commission shall be paid or payable out of capital, the statutory conditions and requirements shall be observed and complied with. Such commission may, if thought fit, be paid in fully-paid shares. The Company may also pay such brokerage as may be lawful.

7.—The lien conferred by Clause 7 of Table A shall extend to all shares, whether fully or partly paid, and the said clause shall be modified accordingly.

8.—Clause 35 of Table A shall not apply. The whole of the unissued shares of the Company for the time being shall be under the control of the Directors, who may allot or otherwise dispose of the same to such persons on such terms and conditions, and either at par or at a premium, and at such times as the Directors may think fit, subject, nevertheless, to the provisions herein contained.

9.—Clause 39 of Table A shall not apply. A General Meeting shall be held once at least in every calendar year at such time (not being more than fifteen months after the holding of the last preceding General Meeting) and place as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting, and if no time and place are prescribed, at such time and place as may be determined by the Board of Directors.

10.—Two members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum for a General Meeting, and a poll may be demanded by any one member present in person or by proxy entitled to vote, whether or not he holds 15 per cent. of the paid-up capital of the Company, and Clauses 45 and 50 of Table A shall be regarded as modified accordingly.

11.—In Clause 60 of Table A the words "twenty-four" shall be substituted for the words "forty-eight."

12.—Clause 64 of Table A shall not apply. The number of Directors shall not be less than two nor more than five. The first Directors of the Company shall be appointed by the subscribers to these presents.

13.—Clause 65 of Table A shall not apply. The remuneration of the Directors shall from time to time be determined by the Company in General Meeting. Such remuneration shall be deemed to accrue de die in diem. The Directors shall also be entitled to be repaid all travelling, hotel and other expenses incurred by them in or with a view to the performance of their duties, or in attending meetings of the Company, or the Board or Committees of the Board.

14.—If any Directors shall be called upon to perform extra or special services of any kind, or to travel or to go or reside beyond his usual place of residence for any business or purposes of the Company, he shall be entitled to receive such sum as the Board may think fit for expenses of living, and also such remuneration as the Board thinks fit, either as a fixed sum or as a percentage of profits or otherwise, and such remuneration may, as the Board shall determine, be either in addition to or in substitution for any other remuneration he may be entitled to receive, and the same shall be charged as part of the ordinary working expenses.

15.—A resolution in writing signed by all the Directors for the time being in the United Kingdom shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Directors.

16.—Clause 66 of Table A shall not apply. A Director shall not be required to hold any qualification.

17.—If any Director shall be resident out of, or be about to leave, or shall have left the United Kingdom, or be unable through illness or other cause to attend any meetings of the Board, he may, by a writing under his hand, appoint any person who is approved by the Board of Directors to be his substitute ; and every such substitute shall, during the absence from the United Kingdom of the Director appointing him, or whilst such Director is unable to attend meetings of the Board, as the case may be, be entitled to attend and vote at meetings of the Directors, and shall have and exercise all the powers, rights, duties and authorities of the Director appointing him. A Director may at any time revoke the appointment of a substitute appointed by him, and, subject to such approval as aforesaid, appoint another person in his place, and if a Director shall die or cease to hold the office of Director, the appointment of his substitute shall thereupon cease and determine. Every person acting as a substitute for a Director shall be an officer of the Company, and shall alone be responsible to the Company for his own acts and defaults, and he shall not be deemed to be the agent of or for the Director appointing him. The remuneration of any such substitute shall be payable out of the remuneration payable to the Director appointing him, and shall consist of such portion of the last-mentioned remuneration as shall be agreed between the substitute and the Director appointing him.

18.—It shall not be necessary to give to any Director who is not within the United Kingdom notice of the meetings of the Directors to be held there, but where such Director is represented by a substitute under the last preceding Article, due notice of such meetings shall be given to such substitute, either personally or by sending the same through the post addressed to him at his last-known place of address in the United Kingdom.

19.—The Directors from time to time, and at any time, may provide through Local Boards, Attorneys or Agencies for the management of the affairs of the Company abroad, and may appoint any persons to be members of such Local Boards or as Attorneys or Agents, and may fix their remuneration. The Company may exercise the powers conferred by Sections 32 and 103 of the Companies Act, 1929, and those powers shall accordingly be exercisable by the Directors.

20.—The Directors from time to time, and at any time, may delegate to any such Local Board, Attorney or Agent any of the powers, authorities and discretions for the time being vested in the Directors, and any such appointment or delegation may be made on such terms and subject to such conditions as the Directors may think fit, and may include a power to sub-delegate, and the Directors may at any time remove any person so appointed, and may annul or vary any such delegation, but no person dealing in good faith and without notice of such annulment or variation shall be affected thereby.

21.—Clause 69 of Table A shall not apply. The Board may, subject to the provisions of Article 6 hereof, at any time borrow or raise for the purposes of the Company, from the Directors, members and other persons, such sums of money and at such rates of interest as the Board may think proper, and may secure the repayment of such moneys by mortgage or charge or by debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, forming a charge upon the whole or any part of the property, assets and undertaking of the Company, both present and future, including its unpaid or uncalled capital for the time being, in such manner and upon such terms and conditions and with such security as the Board shall determine. Any debentures, debenture stock or other securities may be issued at a discount, premium or otherwise, and with any special privileges as to redemption, surrender, allotment of shares, attending and voting at General Meetings of the Company, appointment of Directors or otherwise.

22.—Clause 71 of Table A shall not apply. The seal of the Company shall not be affixed to any instrument except pursuant to a resolution of the Board of Directors, and in the presence of at least one Director and of the Secretary, or in the presence of two Directors, and such persons, as the case may be, shall sign every instrument to which the seal is affixed.

23.—The Board may from time to time determine who shall be entitled to sign on the Company's behalf bills, notes, receipts, acceptances, endorsements, cheques, releases, contracts and documents.

24.—The office of Director shall be vacated in any of the events specified in Sub-clauses (c), (d), (e) and (f) of Clause 72 of Table A, or, if he is required to resign by notice in writing, signed by the holder or holders of not less than three-fourths in nominal value of the issued capital of the Company for the time being, and, except as aforesaid, that clause shall not apply.

25.—Clause 82 of Table A shall not apply. The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Directors shall, until otherwise determined, be two. A Director interested shall be counted in a quorum, notwithstanding his interest.

26.—Notwithstanding anything in these presents or in Table A contained, if at any time there shall be only one Director of the Company in the United Kingdom, the management and control of the Company shall be vested in such Director, and he shall have authority to exercise all the powers, authorities and discretions which are by these presents or by law vested in the Directors generally, including power to affix the seal of the Company, and any entry in the minute book of the Company signed by such Director shall be as valid and effectual as if the same had been passed by a Board Meeting of the Company properly convened and constituted, and a statement in any such minute that the Director so signing is the only Director of the Company in the United Kingdom at the date thereof shall be conclusive.

27.—The Liquidator in a winding up of the Company may divide among the contributories in specie any part of the assets of the Company.

28.—Clause 101 of Table A shall not apply.

29.—A Director of the Company may be or become a Director of any company promoted by this Company, or in which it may be interested as vendor, shareholder or otherwise, and no Director shall be disqualified by his office from contracting with the Company (either as vendor, purchaser or otherwise), nor shall any such contract or arrangement, or any contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company with any company or partnership of or in which any Director shall be a Director, member or otherwise interested, be avoided; nor shall any Director so contracting, or being such Director or member or so interested, be liable to account to the Company for any profit realised by any such contract or arrangement by reason only of such Director holding that office, or of the fiduciary relationship thereby established, or be disqualified from voting on such contract or arrangement, provided that such Director shall duly disclose the nature of his interest in accordance with Section 149 of the Companies Act, 1929. A Director may occupy any other place or office of profit in the Company (other than that of Auditor, and may receive remuneration as such which may be voted by the Directors.

30.—A General Meeting may direct capitalisation of the whole or any part of the profits for the time being of the Company, or the whole or any part of the reserve fund or funds of the Company, by the distribution among the holders of the issued shares of the Company, in accordance with their rights of paid-up shares, debentures, debenture stock or other obligations of the Company, and the provisions following shall apply: (A) the Directors shall give effect to any such resolution, and set free for distribution, and appropriate to and amongst the holders of such shares in the proportions to which they are entitled, such portions of the profits or reserve fund (as the case may be) as may be required for the purpose of making payment in full at par for the shares, debentures, debenture stock or other obligations of the Company so distributed, and shall apply the same accordingly, but no such capitalisation and distribution shall be made unless previously recommended by the Directors ; (B) where any difficulty arises in regard to the distribution or payment, the Directors may settle the same as they think expedient and, in particular, may issue fractional certificates and generally make such arrangements for the acceptance, allotment and sale of such shares or fractional certificates and otherwise as they may think fit ; and (C) when required, a proper contract shall be filed in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 1929, and the Directors may appoint any person to sign such contract on behalf of the holders of the shares of the Company entitled to the benefit of such capitalisation, and such appointment shall be effective.

31.—Clause 104 of Table A shall not apply. A member who has no registered address in the United Kingdom, and who has not supplied to the Company an address within the United Kingdom for the giving of notices to him, shall not be entitled to any notice.

32.—Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, 1929, the Directors, Managing Directors, Managers, Agents, Auditors, Secretary and other officers or servants for the time being of the Company, and the Trustees (if any) for the time being acting in relation to any of the affairs of the Company, and every of them, and every of their personal representatives, shall be indemnified and secured harmless out of the assets and profits of the Company from and against all liabilities incurred by them in relation to the matters referred to in paragraph (c) of the proviso to Section 152 of the Companies Act, 1929.
