8 Delivery of instrument

You must deliver the original instrument (if any) creating or evidencing the charge and these prescribed particulars to the Registrar of Companies within 21 days after the date of creation of the charge (section 860). If the property is situated and the charge was created outside the United Kingdom (UK), you must deliver the information to the Registrar within 21 days after the date on which the instrument could have been received in the UK in the normal course of post and assuming you had posted it promptly (section 870).

We will accept a verified copy of the instrument creating the charge where the property charged is situated and the charge was created outside the UK (section 866). The company or the person who has delivered the copy to the Registrar must verify it to be a correct copy and sign it. Where a body corporate gives the verification, an officer of that body must sign it. We will also accept a verified copy where section 867(2) applies (property situated in another part of UK).

1.1 General

(a) All the security created under the Deed

(i) is created in favour of the Security Trustee,

(ii) is created over

(A) present assets of the Chargor, and

(B) in respect of the fixed charge referred to in paragraph 1 2 (Intellectual Property) of this Form MG01 and clause 2 3 (Intellectual Property) of the Deed and the floating charge referred to in paragraph 1 3 (Floating Charge) of this Form MG01 and clause 2 5 (Floating Charge) of the Deed, future assets of the Chargor,

(iii) is security for the payment of all the Expanded Secured Obligations, and

(iv) is made with full title guarantee in accordance with the Law of Property (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1994 and so far as relating to assets located in Scotland or otherwise governed by Scots law, with absolute warrandice

(b) Other than in relation to a Restricted Brand, if the rights of the Chargor under a document cannot be secured without the consent of a party to that document

(i) the Chargor must notify the Security Trustee promptly,

(ii) the Security created under the Deed will secure all amounts which the Chargor may receive, or has received, under that document but exclude the document itself, and

(iii) unless the Security Trustee otherwise requires, the Chargor must use reasonable endeavours to obtain the consent of the relevant party to that document being secured under the Deed

(c) If requested by the Chargor, the Security Trustee shall release from the floating charge created pursuant to Clause 2 5 (Floating Charge) of the Deed any contract, licence or other agreement (a Restricted Contract) to which the Chargor is a party under the terms of which the Chargor has undertaken not to create Security over that Restricted Contract (or any asset which is the subject of that Restricted Contract) where the counterparty to that Restricted Contract commences proceedings against the Chargor to terminate that Restricted Contract (or in the case of leasehold property commences proceedings for the forfeiture of a lease) on the grounds that its
