PART2 DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

3. DIRECTORS' GENERAL AUTHORITY
- 3.1 Subject to the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company.
4. SHAREHOLDERS' RESERVE POWER
- 4.1 The shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.
- 4.2 No alteration of the articles and no such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the alteration was made or passing of the resolution.

5. DIRECTORS MAY DELEGATE

5.1 Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles:

5.1.1 to such person or committee;

5.1.2 by such means (including by power of attorney);

5.1.3 to such an extent;

5.1.4 in relation to such matters or territories; and

5.1.5 on such terms and conditions, as they think fit.

5.2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.

5.3 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

6. COMMITTEES

6.1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.

6.2 The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

7. DIRECTORS TO TAKE DECISIONS COLLECTIVELY

7.1 The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with article 8.

7.2 If:

7.2.1 the company only has one director; and

7.2.2 no provision of the articles requires it to have more than one director, the general rule does not apply, and the director may take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the articles relating to directors' decision making.

8. UNANIMOUS DECISIONS

8.1 A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter. For this purpose, it is not necessary for the appointer of an alternate director to indicate that he shares a common view with the other directors if the alternate director, which he has appointed, indicates that he shares a common view with the other directors.

8.2 Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible director or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing. For this purpose, it is not necessary for the appointer of an alternate director to sign the written resolution or otherwise indicate his agreement in writing if the alternate director, which he has appointed, signs the written resolution or otherwise indicates his agreement in writing.

8.3 References in this article to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter and whose vote would have been counted had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting.

8.4 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

9. CALLING A DIRECTORS' MEETING

9.1 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice.

9.2 Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate:

9.2.1 its proposed date and time;

- 9.2.2 where it is to take place; and
- 9.2.3 if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.
- 9.3 Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director who is entitled to receive notice, but need not be in writing.
- 9.4 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company not more than 7 days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.
- 10. PARTICIPATION IN DIRECTORS' MEETINGS
 - 10.1 Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when:
 - 10.1.1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles; and
 - 10.1.2 they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.
 - 10.2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.
 - 10.3 If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.
- 11. QUORUM FOR DIRECTORS' MEETINGS
 - 11.1 At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.
 - 11.2 The quorum for directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors, but it must never be less than one, and unless otherwise fixed it is one. This article 11.2 does not impose on the company a requirement that it have more than one director.

11.3 If the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision:

11.3.1 to appoint further directors; or

11.3.2 to call a general meeting so as to enable the shareholders to appoint further directors.

12. CHAIRING OF DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

12.1 The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings.

12.2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman.

12.3 The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time.

12.4 If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

13. CASTING VOTE

13.1 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote.

13.2 But this does not apply if, in accordance with the articles, the chairman or other director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

14. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

14.1 Provided that he has disclosed to the directors the nature and extent of any material interest of his, a director notwithstanding his office:

14.1.1 may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the company or in which the company is otherwise interested;

14.1.2 may be a director or other officer of, or be employed by or hold any position with, or be a party to any transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate in which the company is interested;

14.1.3 may be a director or other officer of, or be employed by or hold any position with, or be a party to any transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any group undertaking in relation to the company, or any body corporate in which any such group undertaking is interested; and 14.1.4 may be a director of and/or have an interest in the share capital of Highdorn Co. Limited, Freshwater Property Management Limited, Centremanor Limited and Metropolitan Properties Company Limited, (including any parent or subsidiary undertaking of the aforementioned companies), or any other company in which members of the Freshwater Family or related trusts are interested.

14.2 No transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any interest, office, employment or position within article 14.1 above and the relevant director:

14.2.1 shall not infringe his duty to avoid a situation in which he has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the company as a result of any such office, employment or position, or any such transaction or arrangement or any interest in any such undertaking or body corporate;

14.2.2 shall not, by reason of his office as a director of the company, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he derives from any such office, employment or position, or any such transaction or arrangement, or from any interest in any such body corporate;

14.2.3 shall not be required to disclose to the company, or use in performing his duties as a director of the company, any confidential information relating to any such office, employment or position if to make such a disclosure or use would result in a breach of a duty or obligation of confidence owed by him in relation to or in connection with such office, employment or position;

14.2.4 may absent himself from discussions, whether in meetings of the directors or otherwise, and exclude himself from information, which will or may relate to such office, employment, position, transaction, arrangement or interest.

14.3 For the purposes of this article:

14.3.1 the "Freshwater Family" shall mean Mr B S E Freshwater and Mr S I Freshwater, and in each case, their spouses, children (including adopted children and descendants of adopted children where applicable), grandchildren, great grandchildren, siblings, uncles, aunties, nephews, nieces and cousins (including adopted siblings, uncles, aunties, nephews, nieces and cousins where applicable);

14.3.2 a director shall be deemed to have disclosed the nature and extent of an interest which consists of him being a director, officer or employee of any group undertaking in relation to the company;

14.3.3 a general notice given to the directors that a director is to be regarded as having an interest of the nature and extent specified in the notice in any transaction or arrangement in which a specified person or class of persons is interested shall be deemed to be a disclosure that the director has an interest in any such transaction of the nature and extent so specified;

14.3.4 an interest of which a director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his;

14.3.5 a director need not disclose an interest if it cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest; and

- 14.3.6 a director need not disclose an interest if, or to the extent that, the other directors are already aware of it (and for this purpose the other directors are treated as aware of anything of which they ought reasonably to be aware).
- 14.4 The directors may (subject to such terms and conditions, if any, as they may think fit to impose from time to time, and subject always to their right to vary or terminate such authorisation) authorise, to the fullest extent permitted by law:
- 14.4.1 any matter which would otherwise result in a director infringing his duty to avoid a situation in which he has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the company and which may reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest (including a conflict of interest and duty or conflict of duties); and
- 14.4.2 a director to accept or continue in any office, employment or position in addition to his office as a director of the company and, without prejudice to the generality of article 14.1.1, may authorise the manner in which a conflict of interest arising out of such office, employment or position may be dealt with, either before or at the time that such a conflict of interest arises,
- provided that the authorisation is effective only if (i) any requirement as to the quorum at the meeting at which the matter is considered is met without counting the director in question or any other interested director; and (ii) the matter was agreed to without their voting or would have been agreed to if their votes had not been counted.
- 14.5 If a matter, office, employment or position has been authorised by the directors in accordance with article 14.1 above, then (subject to such terms and conditions, if any, as the directors may think fit to impose from time to time, and subject always to their right to vary or terminate such authorisation or the permissions set out below) no transaction or arrangement relating to any such matter shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such matter, office, employment or position and the relevant director:

- 14.5.1 shall not infringe his duty to avoid a situation in which he has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the company as a result of any such matter, office, employment or position;
 - 14.5.2 shall not, by reason of his office as a director of the company, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he derives from any such matter, office, employment or position;
 - 14.5.3 shall not be required to disclose to the company, or use in performing his duties as a director of the company, any confidential information relating to such matter, office, employment or position if to make such a disclosure or use would result in a breach of a duty or obligation of confidence owed by him in relation to or in connection with such matter, office, employment or position; and
 - 14.5.4 may absent himself from discussions, whether in meetings of the directors or otherwise, and exclude himself from information, which will or may relate to that matter, office, employment or position.
- 14.6 A director who has duly declared his interest (so far as he is required to do so) – may vote at a meeting of the directors or of a committee of the directors on any resolution concerning a matter in which he is interested, directly or indirectly. If he does, his vote shall be counted; and whether or not he does, his presence at the meeting shall be taken into account in calculating the quorum.
- 14.7 Subject to article 14.8, if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive.

- 14.8 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

15. RECORDS OF DECISIONS TO BE KEPT

- 15.1 The directors must ensure that the company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors.

16. DIRECTORS' DISCRETION TO MAKE FURTHER RULES

- 16.1 Subject to the articles, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

17. METHODS OF APPOINTING DIRECTORS

- 17.1 Any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director:

17.1.1 by ordinary resolution; or

17.1.2 by a decision of the directors.

- 17.2 In any case where, as a result of death, the company has no shareholders and no directors, the personal representatives of the last shareholder to have died have the right, by notice in writing, to appoint a person to be a director.

- 17.3 For the purposes of article 17.2, where 2 or more shareholders die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger shareholder is deemed to have survived an older shareholder.

17.4 A shareholder or shareholders holding a majority in nominal value of the issued shares in the company may appoint any person who is willing to act, and is permitted by law to do so, to be a director, either to fill a vacancy or as an additional director. Any such appointment shall be effected by a notice in writing signed by, or on behalf of, the shareholder or shareholders concerned and delivered to the registered office of the company or delivered at a meeting of the directors or a general meeting of the company.

18. TERMINATION OF DIRECTOR'S APPOINTMENT

18.1 A person ceases to be a director as soon as:

- 18.1.1 that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006 or is prohibited from being a director by law;
- 18.1.2 a bankruptcy order is made against that person;
- 18.1.3 a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;
- 18.1.4 a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months;
- 18.1.5 notification is received by the company from the director that the director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms;
- 18.1.6 that person is absent without permission of the directors from all meetings of the directors held during a continuous period of six months or more and the directors resolve that he should cease to be a director; and
- 18.1.7 a shareholder or shareholders holding a majority in nominal value of the issued shares in the company gives notice to remove that person from his position as a director; such notice to be in writing signed by, or on behalf of, the shareholder or shareholders concerned and delivered to the registered office of the company or delivered at a meeting of the directors or a general meeting of the company.

19. DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION

19.1 Directors may undertake any services for the company that the directors decide.

19.2 Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the directors determine:

19.2.1 for their services to the company as directors; and 19.2.2 for any other service which they undertake for the company.

19.3 Subject to the articles, a director's remuneration may take any form.

19.4 Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors' remuneration accrues from day to day.

19.5 Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors are not accountable to the company for any remuneration which they receive as directors or other officers or employees of the company's subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the company is interested.

19.6 The directors may provide benefits, whether by the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuities, or any death, sickness or disability benefits or by insurance or otherwise, for any director or former director who holds or has held any office or employment with the company, predecessor in business of the company or with any undertaking which is or has been a group undertaking in relation to the company and for any member of his family (including a spouse and a former spouse) or any person who is or was dependent on him, and may (before as well as after he ceases to hold such office or employment) contribute to any fund and pay premiums for the purchase or provision of any such benefit.

20. DIRECTORS' EXPENSES

20.1 The company may pay any reasonable expenses which the directors properly incur in connection with their attendance at:

20.1.1 meetings of directors or committees of directors;

- 20.1.2 general meetings; or
 - 20.1.3 separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the company,
- or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the company.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

21. APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

- 21.1 Any director may appoint as an alternate any other director, or any other person approved by resolution of the directors, to:

21.1.1 exercise that director's powers; and

21.1.2 carry out that director's responsibilities, in relation to the taking of decisions by the directors in the absence of the alternate's appointer.

- 21.2 Any appointment or removal of an alternate must be effected by notice in writing to the company signed by the appointer, or in any other manner approved by the directors.

- 21.3 The notice must:

21.3.1 identify the proposed alternate; and

21.3.2 in the case of a notice of appointment, contain a statement signed by the proposed alternate that the proposed alternate is willing to act as the alternate of the director giving the notice.

22. RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

- 22.1 An alternate director has the same rights, in relation to any directors' meeting and all meetings of committees of directors of which his appointer is a member or directors' written resolution, as the alternate's appointer.

- 22.2 Except as the articles specify otherwise, alternate directors:

22.2.1 are deemed for all purposes to be directors;

22.2.2 are liable for their own acts and omissions;

- 22.2.3 are subject to the same restrictions as their appointers; and
- 22.2.4 are not deemed to be agents of or for their appointors.
- 22.3 A person who is an alternate director but not a director:
 - 22.3.1 may be counted as participating for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is participating (but only if that person's appointer is not participating); and
 - 22.3.2 may sign or otherwise indicate his agreement in writing to a written resolution (but only if it is not signed or to be signed or otherwise agreed to in writing by that person's appointer).
- 22.4 No alternate may be counted as more than one director for such purposes.
- 22.5 A director who is also an alternate director has an additional vote on behalf of each appointer who is:
 - 22.5.1 not participating in a directors' meeting; and
 - 22.5.2 would have been entitled to vote if they were participating in it, but shall not count as more than one director for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present.
- 22.6 An alternate director is not entitled to receive any remuneration from the company for serving as an alternate director except such part of the alternate's appointer's remuneration as the appointer may direct by notice in writing made to the company.
- 23. TERMINATION OF ALTERNATE DIRECTORSHIP
 - 23.1 An alternate director's appointment as an alternate terminates:
 - 23.1.1 when the alternate's appointor revokes the appointment by notice to the company in writing specifying when it is to terminate;
 - 23.1.2 on the occurrence in relation to the alternate of any event which, if it occurred in relation to the alternate's appointor, would result in the termination of the appointor's appointment as a director;
 - 23.1.3 on the death of the alternate's appointor;

- 23.1.4 when the alternate's appointor's appointment as a director terminates; or
- 23.1.5 when a shareholder or shareholders holding a majority in nominal value of the issued shares in the company gives notice to remove that person from his position as an alternate director; such notice to be in writing signed by, or on behalf of, the shareholder or shareholders concerned and delivered to the registered office of the company or delivered at a meeting of the directors or a general meeting of the company.

PART3

SHARES AND DISTRIBUTIONS

SHARES

24. SHARE CAPITAL

- 24.1 In these articles, unless the context requires otherwise, references to shares of a particular class shall include shares allotted and/or issued after the date of adoption of these articles and ranking parri passu in all respects (or in all respects except only as to the date from which those shares rank for dividend) with the shares of the relevant class then in issue.
- 24.2 Except as expressly provided otherwise in these articles, the A Shares and the B Shares shall rank pari passu in all respects but shall constitute separate classes of shares with the rights and entitlements attaching to them in accordance with the provisions of articles 36 and 37, respectively.
- 24.3 A dividend may be declared or paid on one class of share in issue in the capital of the company without a like dividend being declared or paid, as the case may be, on another other class of shares.

24.4 If no shares of a class remain in issue following a re-designation, these articles shall be read as if they do not include any reference to that class or to any consents from, or attendance at any meeting or votes to be cast by, the holders of that class of shares.

25. ALL SHARES TO BE FULLY PAID UP

25.1 No share is to be issued for less than the aggregate of its nominal value and any premium to be paid to the company in consideration for its issue.

56.1.1 notice of the proposed amendment is given to the company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chairman of the meeting may determine); and 56.1.2 the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.

56.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if:

56.2.1 the chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed; and 56.2.2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.

56.3 If the chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairman's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.
