3. Any invitation to the public to subscribe for any shares or debentures or debenture stock of the Company is hereby prohibited.

4. Save as hereby provided in Clause 6 hereof, no share of the Company shall be transferred otherwise than to a member of the Company without the approval of the Directors, and the Directors may grant or withhold such approval in such cases as they

5. The lien conferred by Clause 7 of Table A shall extend to all shares, whether fully paid or not, and shall attach to all shares registered in the name of any person indebted to or under liability to the Company, whether he shall be the sole registered holder thereof or shall be one of several joint holders.

Save as otherwise provided by or pursuant to the regulations of the Company, two members personally present shall be a quorum for the purposes of all meetings of the Company.

9. If a poll is demanded by a person entitled so to do under Article 8 hereof, it shall be taken in such a manner as the Chairman directs, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Company in General Meeting.

10. The following words in Clause 60 of Table A shall not apply to the Company, viz.: "not less than forty eight hours," and Clause 60 of Table A shall be modified accordingly.

11. The Directors may regulate the meetings of Directors as they think fit, and may determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business, and until otherwise determined one Director shall be a quorum. A resolution in writing signed by every member of the Board of Directors shall have the same effect and validity as a resolution of the Board duly passed at a meeting of the Board duly convened and constituted. In the event of an equality of votes at any General Meeting of the Company or any meeting of Directors, the Chairman shall not have a second or casting vote. Any Director may in writing appoint some other person to be his alternate or substitute Director during such periods as he may think fit and each alternate or substitute Director shall exercise and discharge all the duties of the Director he represents.

12. The following words in Clause 68 of Table A shall not apply, viz.: "or if the Company in General Meeting resolve that his tenure of the office of Managing Director or Manager be determined," and Clause 68 of Table A is modified accordingly.

13. The Directors may from time to time entrust to and confer upon the Managing Director or Managing Directors all or any of the powers of the Directors (not including the power to make calls, forfeit shares, borrow money or issue debentures) that they may think fit. But the exercise of all powers by the Managing Director or Managing Directors shall be subject to all such regulations and restrictions as the Directors may from time to time make and impose, and the said powers may at any time be withdrawn, revoked or varied.

14. The office of a Director ipso facto shall be vacated

- (d) If he be prohibited from being a Director by an order made under any of the provisions of Section 217 or Section 275 of the Companies Act, 1929.

15. No Director shall be disqualified by his office from contracting with the Company, either as vendor, purchaser or otherwise, or from being interested in any contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company, nor shall any such contract made by a Director with the Company, nor any such contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any Director shall be in any way interested be avoided, nor shall any Director so contracting or being interested be liable to account to the Company for any profits realised by him from any such contract made by him with the Company or from any such contract or arrangement in which he shall be so interested by reason of such Director holding that office or the fiduciary relation thereby established, but it is declared that as regards such contract or arrangement in which he shall be so interested the nature of his interest must be disclosed by him in manner required by Section 149 of the Companies Act 1929. A Director may as Director vote in respect of any contract entered into by him with the Company, and in respect of any contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which he is interested, and if he do so vote his vote shall be counted and he may be reckoned for the purpose of constituting a quorum of Directors. A general notice to the Directors of the Company that a Director is a member of any specified firm or company and is to be regarded as interested in any subsequent transactions with such firm or company shall be sufficient disclosure under this clause, and after such general notice it shall not be necessary to give any special notice relating to any particular transaction with such firm or company. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions of this Article, a Director may hold any other office or place of profit in the Company in conjunction with his directorship (other than that of Auditor), and may be appointed thereto upon such terms as to remuneration, tenure of office and otherwise as may be arranged by the Directors, and a Director of the Company may be or become a Director of any company promoted by this Company or in which this Company may be interested as vendor, shareholder or otherwise, and no such Director shall be accountable for any benefits received as director or member of such company.

16. Debentures, debenture stock, bonds or other securities may be made assignable free from any equities between the Company and the person to whom the same may be issued. Any debentures, debenture stock, bonds or other securities may be issued at a discount, premium or otherwise, and with any special privileges as to redemption, surrender, drawings, allotment of shares, attending and voting at General Meetings of the Company, appointment of Directors and otherwise.

17. The Company may from time to time by Ordinary Resolution increase the capital by the creation of new shares of such amount as may be deemed expedient. Such new shares shall be of such amount and shall be issued for such consideration on such terms and conditions and with such preference or priority as regards dividends, or in the distribution of assets or as to voting or otherwise over other shares of any class whether then already issued or not, or with such stipulations deferring them to any other shares with regard to dividends, or in the distribution of assets, as the Company by Ordinary Resolution may direct, and subject to or in default of any such direction the provisions of these Articles shall apply to the new capital in the same manner in all respects as to the initial capital of the Company. The powers conferred by this Article shall be subject to the provisions of Clause 3 of Table A.

18. The Directors of the Company shall be paid out of the funds of the Company as remuneration for their services such sums as the Board shall from time to time fix. The Directors shall also be entitled to be paid their reasonable travelling, hotel and other expenses incurred in the execution of their duties as Directors and servants of the Company.

19. The Directors shall have power from time to time, and at any time, to appoint any other persons to be Directors, but so that the total number of Directors shall not at any time exceed the maximum number fixed as above, and so that no such appointment shall be effective unless two thirds of the Directors in the United Kingdom concur therein.

20. The business of the Company shall be managed by the Directors, who, in addition to the powers and authorities by these presents or otherwise expressly conferred upon them, may exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Company, and are not by Statute or by these presents expressly directed or required to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting, subject nevertheless to the provisions of the Statutes and of these presents and to any regulations from time to time made by the Company in General Meeting: Provided that no regulation made shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made.

21. Any instrument to which it shall be necessary to affix the seal of the Company shall be properly executed if the said seal is affixed in the presence of and signed by any one Director.

22. In a winding up the Liquidators may, with the sanction of an Extraordinary Resolution, distribute all or any of the assets in specie among the members in such proportions and manner as may be determined by such resolution, provided always that if any such distribution is proposed to be made otherwise than in accordance with the existing rights of the members, every member shall have the same right of dissent and other ancillary rights as if such resolution were a Special Resolution passed pursuant to Section 234 of the Companies Act 1929.

23. A member who has no registered address in the United Kingdom, and has not supplied to the Company an address within the United Kingdom for the giving of notices to him, shall not be entitled to receive any notices from the Company.

24. Where any of the regulations of Table A and the Articles of Association are inconsistent, the said Articles shall prevail.
