A & B SECURITIES LIMITED

Directors' Report for the year ended 31 December 2023

The directors present their report together with the unaudited financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2023.

Principal Activities

The company did not trade during the current or prior period. The directors do not expect that this will change within the foreseeable future. The company has been a dormant company within the meaning of section 1169 of the Companies Act 2006.

Directors

The directors who held office during the year and up to the date of signing the financial statements were:

R S Rubin
A S Rubin
B A Mosheim

The company has provided an indemnity for the directors and the company secretary, which is a qualifying third-party indemnity provision for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006.

Going Concern

As stated in the 'Principal Activities' section, the company is dormant. As such the directors have therefore determined it not appropriate to prepare the accounts on a going concern basis.

Statement of Directors' Responsibilities

The directors are responsible for preparing the directors' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have prepared the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.

Notes to the financial statements

1 Accounting policies

Company information

A & B Securities Limited is a private company limited by shares and is incorporated in England and Wales. Its registered office is situated at 8 Manchester Square, London, W1U 3PH.

1.1 Accounting convention

Basis of preparation From 1 January 2015, the company has elected to use FRS 102 Transitional relief provision as per paragraph 35.10(m) for dormant companies. This enables a company within the Companies Act definition of a dormant company to elect to retain its accounting policies for reported assets, liabilities and equity at the date of transition to FRS 102 until there is any change to those balances or the company undertakes any new transactions.

The financial statements are prepared in sterling, which is the functional currency of the company. Monetary amounts in these financial statements are rounded to the nearest £.

These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the Companies Act 2006 and applicable accounting standards in the United Kingdom. A summary of the more important accounting policies, which have been applied consistently with the prior year, is given in the following paragraph(s).

1.2 Dormant status

The company was dormant (within the meaning of section 1169 of the Companies Act 2006) throughout the year ended 31 December 2023. The company has not traded during the year or during the preceding financial year. During these periods the company received no income and incurred no expenditure and therefore made neither profit nor loss.

2 Directors and employees

The directors, who were the only employees of the company, did not receive any emoluments in respect of their services to the company during the year (2022: £nil).

3 Debtors: amounts falling due within one year
