Directors' report

The directors present their annual report and the financial statements for the 52 week period ended 16 September 2006.

Principal activity

The principal activity is the holding of shares in companies in the food industry and in investment companies.

Business review and future developments

During the period the main activity of the company remained unchanged and the directors anticipate that any future developments would be related to this activity.

Profit, dividends and transfer to reserves

There was no income for the current or the prior period and no transfer to reserves. No dividends were paid or proposed in either period.

Directors and directors' interests

The directors who held office during the period were as follows:

PA Russell
RS Mendelsohn

Notification of an interest in, or right to subscribe for, the shares of this company and shares in or debentures of other group companies by PA Russell is not required because at the end of the period he was also director of a company of which this company is a wholly owned subsidiary undertaking. RS Mendelsohn notified no interests.

No director had at any time during the period any material interest in a contract with the company, other than his service contract.

By order of the board

RS Mendelsohn
Secretary

Statement of directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that year. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements and;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They have general responsibilities for taking such steps as are reasonably open to them to safeguard the assets of the company and to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.
