Statement of capital (prescribed particulars of rights attached to shares)

Please give the prescribed particulars of rights attached to shares for each class of share shown in the share capital tables in Section 3.

Class of share

Ordinary shares

Prescribed particulars

①

On a show of hands at a general meeting, every holder of ordinary shares present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote shall have one vote. On a poll every holder of ordinary shares present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote shall have one vote for every share held. Voting rights may not be exercised by a member who has been served with a restriction notice after failure to provide the company with information concerning interests in shares to be provided under UK law. In addition, no member shall, unless the directors otherwise determine, be entitled in respect of any share held by him to vote either personally or by proxy at a general meeting or to exercise any other right conferred by membership in relation to general meetings if any call or other sum presently payable by him to the company in respect of that share remains unpaid. Income and capital rights attaching to the ordinary shares shall be as follows: (a) income: the profits which the company may determine to distribute in respect of any financial year or other period for which its accounts are made up shall, subject to any special rights which may for the time being be attached to any shares hereafter created or issued, be distributed among the holders of the ordinary shares according to the amounts paid up on the ordinary shares held by them respectively; (b) capital: on a return of assets on liquidation or otherwise the surplus assets of the company remaining after payment of its liabilities shall, subject to any special rights which may for the time being be attached to any shares hereafter created or issued, belong to and be distributed among the holders of the ordinary shares in proportion to the number of ordinary shares held by them respectively.
