STRATEGIC REPORT

The directors present their Strategic report for the 11-month period ended 31 December 2020.

Principal activities, review of business

The Company's principal activity is to act as a holding company.

On 4 February 2020, the Company was acquired by Recipharm Holdings Limited, a directly wholly owned subsidiary of Recipharm AB ("Recipharm"). Further details are given on Recipharm's website. As a result of the acquisition, the Company de-listed from the London Stock Exchange and brought forward its reporting period to 31 January 2020 instead of the previous 30 April period-end. Due to this change in statutory reporting date, the accounts for the period ended 31 January 2020 covered a period of 9 months. Furthermore, the accounts to 31 December 2020 cover a period of 11 months, with the accounting year now aligned with the remainder of the Recipharm group.

During the period, the Recipharm group completed a legal entity rationalisation and restructuring project in order to reduce the number of legal entities in the group following the Consort acquisition by Recipharm. As a result of this project a number of investments were impaired resulting in a charge of £140.5m along with a loss on disposal of an investment of £17.7m.In addition, intercompany loans were impaired amounting to a charge of £123.1m. The carrying value of investments and intercompany loans were reduced accordingly. Also, as part of the project, the Company acquired acquired 100% of the share capital of Aesica Queenborough Limited from Aesica Pharmaceuticals Limited and received dividends of £123.1m.

Also, given the acquisition of the Company by Recipharm, and the subsequent delisting of the Company costs amounting to £19.5m were incurred, relating to redundancy and employee related costs, asset impairments and other integration costs and professional fees associated with the acquisition by Recipharm.

Principal risks and uncertainties

The management of the business and the execution of the Company's strategy are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties.

Foreign-exchange risk

The company is exposed to foreign exchange variances on balances payable to and receivable from other group companies. Foreign exchange risk arises when there is volatility in exchange rates which can have a negative impact on the Company's result.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk relates to changes in LIBOR / EURIBOR, which can impact interest charged on inter-company balances

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk relates to the Company's ability to settle its debts as they fall due, however the company has received a letter of support from its parent company, Recipharm AB.

Brexit

On 31 January 2020, the United Kingdom (U.K.) formally departed from the E.U., commonly referred to as "Brexit" and then entered into a transition period where it remained in both the E.U. customs union and single market until 31 December 2020. On 24 December 2020, the UK government secured a trade deal with the EU which began on 1 January 2021 when the U.K. formally left the E.U. customs union and single market. The Company has considered the nature and extent of risks and uncertainties arising from the U.K.'s departure from the E.U. and the impact on the future performance and position of the business. The Company does not consider that this has had a significant impact on itself or its subsidiaries' operations and ability to service their supply chains. The Company and its subsidiaries will continue monitor outcomes, assess the impact on the regulatory environment in which they operate, their customers, supply chain and employees and will implement an appropriate response.

COVID-19

On 11 March 2020, the World Health Organisation ('WHO') declared COVID-19 as a pandemic, affecting multiple countries including the UK. The Company has considered the impact of this event on future operating performance and the uncertainties that this may create both in this Company and in its subsidiaries. There has been no material impact to manufacturing capability of the Company's subsidiaries during the pandemic. Demand for the pharmaceutical products that the Company's subsidiaries manufacture and supplies have not been adversely impacted by the pandemic as they are used to treat on-going conditions of the patients. Due to the nature of the group's activities, we do not expect any significant adverse impact arising from the pandemic.

STRATEGIC REPORT

Directors' duties in relation to s172 Companies Act 2006

The directors consider that they have acted in the way they believe, in good faith, to promote the success of Consort Medical Limited for the benefit of its members as a whole and, in doing so, have regard (amongst other matters) to:

- · the likely consequences of any decisions in the long-term,
- · the interests of the Company's and its subsidiaries' employees,
- the need to foster the Company's and its subsidiaries' business relationships with suppliers, customers and others,
- · the impact of the Company's and its subsidiaries' operations on the community and environment,
- the desirability of the Company and its subsidiaries in maintaining a reputation for high standards of business conduct, and
- the need to act fairly between the shareholders of the Company.

We describe how the directors consider these factors in their decision-making below:

Employee engagement

The Company has no employees, but its subsidiaries do. The following considerations for group employees are as follows:-

The group is committed to maximising the level of employee involvement in its business at all levels. Appropriate training is given to enable employees to perform their jobs more competently and to develop their skills and competencies to their full potential. The annual performance review process allows employees to discuss career opportunities and development needs and to receive guidance and agreed actions on achieving their goals. In addition, employees are supported, through sponsorship or a contribution to costs, to study for job-related qualifications.

Employees are further involved through Consultation forums, attended by employee representatives and senior management, which typically meet every two months to discuss and resolve any issues raised to the extent possible. Communications include twice yearly business briefing sessions and an annual Town Hall meeting attended by all employees. These communications channels are further enhanced by regular functional meetings with senior management.

One subsidiary also publishes a magazine, The Pulse, twice annually as well as a two-weekly digital version that cover a wide range of topics and issues of interest to the organisation at large.

Engagement with shareholders

The Board engages directly with its shareholders on issues as necessary. The legal entity project, being a key project in the period was discussed and agreed with the Company's shareholders and was considered in the best interests of group.

The board considers and discusses information from across the organisation to help it understand the impact of its operations, and the interests and views of our key stakeholders. It also reviews strategy, financial and operational performance, as well as information covering areas such as key risks, and legal and regulatory compliance. This information is provided to the Board through reports sent in advance of each Board meeting, and through in-person presentations.

As a result of these activities, the Board has an overview of engagement with stakeholders, and other relevant factors, which enables the Directors to comply with their legal duty under section 172 of the Companies Act 2006.

Directors' indemnities and liability insurance

Qualifying third-party indemnity arrangements are in place for the benefit of directors in a form and scope which comply with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006. The indemnity was in force throughout the financial period and up to the date of approval of the financial statements. Insurance cover is in force in respect of personal liabilities which may be incurred by directors and officers in the course of their service with the Recipharm group.

Disclosure of information to auditor

In the case of each director, so far as each is aware, there is no relevant audit information of which the Company's auditor is unaware. Each director has taken all the steps he or she needs to have taken as a director in order to make himself or herself aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the Company's auditor is aware of that information.

Going concern

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis which the directors consider to be appropriate for the following reasons.

The directors have prepared a cash flow forecast for the period to 30 April 2023, being the going concern review period, which indicates that with ongoing financial support from its parent, Recipharm AB, the Company will have sufficient funds to meet its liabilities as they fall due for that period. Recipharm AB has confirmed that it will provide the necessary financial support to the Company for the period to 30 April 2023 to enable the Company to settle its liabilities as they fall due: The directors have made enquiries of Recipharm AB as to its ability to provide the necessary financial support.

Consequently, the directors are confident that the company will have sufficient funds to continue to meet its liabilities as they fall due for at least the period to 30 April 2023, being the going concern review period and therefore have prepared the financial statements on a going concern basis.

Auditor

During the period Ernst & Young LLP was appointed as the Company's auditor. A recommendation to reappoint EY for the coming year will be put to the directors for approval following the signing of these financial statements.

As a result, the following subsidiaries of the Company were struck off in May 2021:

Post Balance Sheet Events (continued)

Following this refinancing, in November 2021, the Company entered into a cross guarantee arrangement together with a number of other subsidiaries of the group. As a result, the Company has pledged its shares in its subsidiary Bespak Europe Limited as collateral.

Sale of shareholding in Aesica Pharmaceuticals GmbH

As part of the continued integration of Consort entities into the Recipharm group, the Company's subsidiary; Aesica Pharmaceuticals Ltd (APL) sold its 10% investment in Aesica Pharmaceuticals GmbH to another Recipharm company; Recipharm Verwaltungs GmbH. The transfer was made at fair value of £25.7m and the proceeds were left outstanding on an intercompany account in the form of a loan note. £19.8m of the proceeds were used to settle APLs Company's intercompany loan balance payable to the ultimate parent Recipharm AB (publ) and the remaining £5.9m proceeds were distributed to Consort Medical Limited. Consort Medical in turn re-distributed the £5.9m loan note to Recipharm AB (publ) as a part repayment of its existing intercompany debt.

Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report below. We are independent of the company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the company's ability to continue as a going concern for the period to 30 April 2023.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the directors with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report. However, because not all futuré events or conditions can be predicted, this statement is not a guarantee as to the company's ability to continue as a going concern.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether there is a material misstatement in the financial statements or a material misstatement of the other information. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of the other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- · certain disclosures of directors' remuneration specified by law are not made; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

Responsibilities of directors

As explained more fully in the directors' responsibilities statement set out on page 10, the directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

Explanation as to what extent the audit was considered capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above, to detect irregularities, including fraud. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement due to fraud is higher than the risk of not detecting one resulting from error, as fraud may involve deliberate concealment by, for example, forgery or intentional misrepresentations, or through collusion. The extent to which our procedures are capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud is detailed below. However, the primary responsibility for the prevention and detection of fraud rests with both those charged with governance of the entity and management. Our approach was as follows:

- We obtained an understanding of the legal and regulatory frameworks that are applicable to the company and determined that the most significant are those that relate to the reporting framework, FRS101, the Companies Act 2006 and the relevant tax laws and regulations in the UK. In addition, the company has to comply with laws and regulations relating to data protection.
- We understood how the company is complying with those frameworks by making enquiries of management to understand how the company maintains and communicates its policies and procedures in those areas. We corroborated our enquiries through review of board minutes, review of correspondence with relevant authorities, as well as consideration of the results of our audit procedures across the company to either corroborate our findings or provide contrary evidence which was followed up.
- We assessed the susceptibility of the company's financial statements to material misstatement, including how fraud might occur by understanding which areas of the business present potential fraud risk areas (through assessing the presence of opportunities, incentives or potential rationalisation to commit such acts of fraud), understanding where these risks could present themselves and subsequently identifying the process level controls in place to prevent, or detect and correct them. Combining this with our review of entity level controls, which have evidenced management's behaviour and the culture embedded within the company, we have gained a detailed understanding of the overall susceptibility to fraud.
- Based on this understanding we designed our audit procedures to identify non-compliance with such laws and regulations. Our procedures included: detailed journal entry testing, with a focus on manual journals for identified fraud risks, corroborating balances where necessary to underlying supporting documentation. We also challenged assumptions and judgements made by management by reviewing third party evidence wherever possible. The results of these procedures did not identify any such instances of irregularities, including fraud.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the Financial Reporting Council's website at https://www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities. This description forms part of our auditor's report.

This report is made solely to the company's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

General information

Consort Medical Limited is incorporated in England and Wales, registered number 00406711. The nature of the Company's operations and its principal activities are set out in the Strategic report on page 2.

The statutory accounts for the period ending 31 December 2020 are denominated to the nearest GBP thousands. In the prior period, the Company's reporting denomination was GBP millions.

Consolidation exemption

As at 31 December 2020, the Company was a wholly-owned subsidiary of Recipharm AB and is included in the consolidated financial statements of Recipharm AB, which are publicly available on Recipharm's website. Consequently, the Company has taken advantage of the exemption from preparing consolidated financial statements under the terms of section 401 of the Companies Act 2006.

Prior period restatements

In the prior year, amounts receivable from subsidiary undertakings incorrectly included a payable balance where there was no right of offset. As a result, both amounts receivable from subsidiary undertakings, and amounts payable to subsidiary undertakings have been increased by £13.8m to accurately present the receivable and payable on a gross basis.

Also, loan balances receivable from subsidiary undertakings of £38.1 million have been reclassified as falling due after more than one year (previously classified as falling due within one year) due to these balances not expecting to be realized within twelve months of the year end. In addition, a loan amount payable to a subsidiary undertaking of £15.9 million has been reclassified as falling due within one year (previously classified as falling due after more than one year) in line with the contractual terms of these balances.

These restatements do not have any impact on the profit for the period ended 31 January 2020 nor on the net assets of the company as at 31 January 2020.

Basis of preparation (continued)

- The requirement of IAS 24 'Related party disclosures' to disclose related party transactions entered transaction is wholly owned by such a member.

- Paragraphs 30 and 31 of IAS 8 'Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors'

Financial reporting period

On 4 February 2020, the Company was acquired by Recipharm Holdings Limited, a directly wholly owned subsidiary of Recipharm AB. Further details are given on Recipharm's website. As a result of the acquisition, the Company de-listed from the London Stock Exchange and brought forward the reporting period to 31 January 2020 instead of its previous 30 April period-end. Due to this change in statutory reporting date, the accounts for the period ended 31 January 2020 covered a period of 9 months. Furthermore, the accounts to 31 December 2020 cover a period of 11 months, with the accounting year now aligned with the remainder of the Recipharm group.

Accounting convention

The financial statements have been prepared using the historic cost convention, as modified by certain financial assets and financial liabilities (including derivative financial instruments) at fair value. The specific accounting policies adopted, which have been approved by the Board, are described within this note and have been applied consistently in all periods presented.

Going concern basis

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis which the directors consider to be appropriate for the following reasons.

The directors have prepared a cash flow forecast for the period to 30 April 2023, being the going concern review period, which indicates that with ongoing financial support from its parent, Recipharm AB, the Company will have sufficient funds to meet its liabilities as they fall due for that period. Recipharm AB has confirmed that it will provide the necessary financial support to the Company for the period to 30 April 2023 to enable the Company to settle its liabilities as they fall due. The directors have made enquiries of Recipharm AB as to its ability to provide the necessary financial support.

Consequently, the directors are confident that the company will have sufficient funds to continue to meet its liabilities as they fall due for at least the period to 30 April 2023, being the going concern review period and therefore have prepared the financial statements on a going concern basis.

Investments

Investments are shown at cost less provision in respect of impairments. Impairment write-downs are determined by reference to the higher of the post-tax realisable value of the investment and its ongoing value in use.

Dividends

Dividends are recorded in the financial statements in the period in which they are approved by the Company's shareholders. Interim dividends are recorded in the period in which they are approved and paid.

1. Presentation of the financial statements and accounting policies (continued)

Exceptional items

The directors believe that presenting exceptional items disaggregated from operating expenditure as presented in the income statement provides additional useful information for shareholders on the underlying performance of the business. These measures are consistent with how business performance is measured internally. Further detail on the exceptional items in the period can be found in notes 9 and 20.

Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment is stated at historic purchase cost including any incidental costs of acquisition less accumulated depreciation. Cost includes the original purchase price of the asset and the costs attributable to bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use. Depreciation is recognised so as to write-off the cost of fixed assets (less the current expected residual value) on a straight-line basis over their expected useful lives as follows:

Leasehold improvements and other plant and equipment

3 to 10 years

Depreciation methods, useful lives, and residual values are reviewed at each balance sheet date as a minimum.

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing the proceeds with the carrying amount and are recognised in the income statement.

Assets under construction

The costs of property, plant and equipment are capitalised as incurred and are not depreciated until such time as the assets are commissioned, when the total costs are transferred to the appropriate asset category.

Intangible fixed assets

Other intangible fixed assets, including software licences, customer contracts and relationships, and distribution rights are capitalised at cost and amortised on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful economic lives. The estimated useful life of other intangible assets are as follows:

Computer software

4 years

1. Presentation of the financial statements and accounting policies (continued)

Taxation

Tax on the profit or loss for the period comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognised in the income statement except to the extent that it relates to items recognised directly in equity or other comprehensive income, in which case it is recognised directly in equity or other comprehensive income.

Current tax is the expected tax payable or receivable on the taxable income or loss for the period, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous periods.

Deferred taxation is accounted for in full using the balance sheet liability method in respect of temporary differences arising from differences between the carrying amount of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary difference can be utilised. Their carrying amount is reviewed at each balance sheet date on the same basis.

Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the periods in which the asset or liability is settled. It is recognised in the profit or loss account except when it relates to items credited or charged directly to equity, in which case the deferred tax is also dealt with in equity.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when the deferred income taxes assets and liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the taxable entity or different taxable entities where there is an intention to settle the balances on a net basis.

Non-derivative financial instruments

Non-derivative financial instruments comprise investments in equity and debt securities, trade and other receivables, cash and cash equivalents, loans and borrowings and trade and other payables.

Foreign currencies

Items included in the financial statements of the Company are measured using that entity's functional currency, which is the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Company operates ('functional currency'). The financial statements are presented in 'Pound Sterling' (£) which is also the company's functional currency. Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation at period-end exchange rates of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognised in the income statement.

Critical accounting estimates and judgements

The Company makes estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts. Estimates and judgements are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results may differ from these estimates. The estimates and assumptions which have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets and liabilities are discussed below.

A) Carrying value of intercompany balances

In assessing the carrying value of the Company's intercompany balances, the directors take into account the net assets of the corresponding companies and the trading forecasts of those companies. The trading forecasts contain estimates and assumptions around future profitability and cash generation.

B) Carrying value of investments

In assessing the carrying value of the Company's investments in other group companies, the directors take into account the net assets of the corresponding companies and the trading forecasts of those companies. The trading forecasts contain estimates and assumptions around future profitability and cash generation.

Audit fees

The audit fees of the Company for the period are £40,000 (9 month period ended 31 January 2020: £98,500).

Factors affecting future tax charge

The Finance (No.2) Act 2015 reduced the main rate of UK corporation tax to 19%, effective from 1 April 2017. A further reduction in the UK corporation tax rate to 17% was expected to come into effect from 1 April 2020 (as enacted by Finance Act 2016 on 15 September 2016). However, legislation introduced in the Finance Act 2020 (enacted on 22 July 2020) repealed the reduction of the corporation tax, thereby maintaining the current rate of 19%. Deferred taxes on the balance sheet have been measured at 19% (2019 – 17%) which represents the future corporation tax rate that was enacted at the balance sheet date.

The UK Budget 2021 announcements on 3 March 2021 included measures to support economic recovery as a result of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. These included an increase to the UK's main corporation tax rate to 25%, which is due to be effective from 1 April 2023. These changes were not substantively enacted at the balance sheet date and hence have not been reflected in the measurement of deferred tax balances at the period end. It is not anticipated that these changes will have a material impact on the company's deferred tax balances.
