Report of the Committee of Management (incorporating the trustees' and directors' report) for the year ended 31 March 2016

The Committee of Management, who are the trustees and directors of the company, submit their report together with the financial statements of the company for the year ended 31 March 2016.

Objects and principal activities

The principal activities of the company continued to be that of organising and presenting musical events, with particular emphasis on performances involving young artists, 20th century and contemporary music, as well as programmes of unusual and/or special interest. These events have been presented solely for the purpose of carrying out the company's principal object, as expressed in the Memorandum of Association, to promote, advance, encourage and improve education, particularly musical education, by disseminating knowledge of music generally and in particular by providing, organising, promoting and managing concerts, operas and other such representations and productions. During the year ended 31 March 2016 the company had a deficit of £20,919 (2015 deficit £5,375).

Organisation

Mr Woolf, a director and trustee, is in charge of day-to-day work in support of the Group's programme of activities and there is frequent and regular consultation between the directors/trustees.

Risk management

Every care is taken to assess risk per activity prior to commitment.

Reserves policy

The directors/trustees actively consider methods of improving the company's reserves, including the planning and holding of fund-raising events and the extension of the range of incoming grants and donations.

THE PARK LANE GROUP LIMITED

Committee of Management responsibilities in respect of the preparation of the financial statements.

The Committee of Management are required to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the financial activities during the year and of its financial position at the end of the year.

In preparing those financial statements, the Committee of Management are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

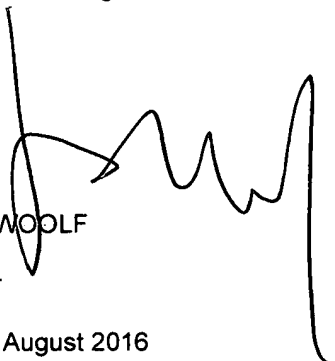

The Committee of Management are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved and signed on behalf of the Committee of Management

THE PARK LANE GROUP LIMITED

Notes to the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2016

1. Accounting policies

(a) Basis of accounting

These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the Companies Act 2006, applicable Accounting Standards and the Statement of Recommended Practice, Accounting and Reporting by Charities.

(b) Incoming resources

All income is accounted for when receivable.

(c) Resources expended

Direct charitable expenditure comprises services supplied identifiable as wholly or mainly in support of the company's objectives. Those costs shown as management and administration relate to the management of the company's assets, organisational administration and compliance with constitutional and statutory requirements.

Going concern

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis which assumes that the company will continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. The directors consider this basis to be appropriate due to the level of support they are giving and will continue to give to the company. The directors' stated intention is to ensure that the company continues to perform the objects given in the Memorandum of Association.

(d) Fixed assets

Individual fixed assets costing £200 or more are capitalised at cost.

Depreciation is provided on fixed assets at the following rates based on the estimated useful lives of the assets and their anticipated residual values:-

Fixtures and fittings 25% p.a. (reducing balance basis)

(e) Restricted funds

Restricted funds consist of grants and guarantees in respect of specific production costs in organising and presenting musical events. Expenditure in respect of these activities exceeded income and the excess has been transferred from the general fund.

2. Net incoming resources

Net incoming resources are stated after charging:

	2016 £	2015 £
Auditors' remuneration	-	-
Depreciation	60	60

3. Transactions with directors

The directors have acted as guarantors against the company's borrowing.

Mr J R M Woolf loaned the company variable amounts during the year, the balance at 31 March 2016 being £34,325 (2015 - £19,897).

During the year Mr Woolf was paid £nil (2015 - £nil), towards his services as chief executive, which are separate from his duties as a director.

No remuneration was paid to the directors in respect of their duties as directors.

4. Income and expenditure account

A separate income and expenditure account has not been prepared as the figures comprising net Income for the year shown in the statement of financial activities on page 3 give the information required under the Companies Act 1985, together with details of other recognised gains and losses.

5. Taxation

As a registered charity, the company's income is not subject to taxation.
