4. The Company may pay a commission to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares in the Company, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional, for any shares in the Company, provided that the commission does not exceed 10 per cent. of the price at which such shares are issued, or an amount equivalent thereto, and such commission may be paid, in whole or in part, in cash or fully or partly paid shares of the Company, as may be arranged. The statement required by Section 53 of the Companies Act 1948 shall be duly delivered to the Registrar of Companies for registration, and Section 52 of the same Act shall where necessary be duly complied with, and the amount of any such commission shall be stated in the balance sheets and annual returns of the Company as required by the same Act.

5. The Directors may also suspend the registration of transfers during the fourteen days immediately preceding the Ordinary General Meeting in each year. The Directors may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless (A) such fee, not exceeding two shillings and sixpence as the Directors may from time to time determine, is paid to the Company in respect thereof, and (B) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer.

The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing, or if the appointor is a corporation, either under its common seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney so authorised. No person shall act as a proxy unless either he is entitled on his own behalf to be present and vote at the meeting at which he acts as proxy, or he is appointed to act at that meeting as proxy for a corporation, but a proxy for or representative of a
