DIRECTORS' AND TRUSTEES' REPORT

INTRODUCTION

The directors hereby submit the annual report and financial statements of the company for the year ended 31 December 2011. This report represents the trustees' report for the purposes of the Charities Act 2011 and the directors' report for the purposes of section 415 of the Companies Act 2006. The provisions of 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice' (revised 2005) have been adopted in preparing the annual report and financial statements of the company.

REFERENCE AND ADMINISTRATIVE DETAILS OF THE CHARITY, ITS TRUSTEES AND ADVISORS

The Institute of Packaging was incorporated under the Companies Act 1948 on 3 January 1964, registration number 786826. The Institute is limited by guarantee without share capital and is a registered charity, number 295762.

The registered office is situated at 1 Carlton House Terrace London SW1Y 5DB.

The directors (and trustees of the charity) who served during the year were as follows:

Mr B D Lye
Dr B A Rickinson
Dr M J May

The company secretary is Mr R C Milbank.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

The company operates in accordance with its memorandum and articles of association and its ultimate parent undertaking is The Institute of Materials, Minerals and Mining (IOM3).

Governance of the company is vested in the directors who are also trustees. The directors are appointed by the Council of the Institute. The day to day management of the company is delegated to staff employed by the Institute who report to the chief executive.

The board meet as necessary to review strategy and approve operating plans and budgets.

The directors have overall responsibility for ensuring that the company has appropriate systems of controls, financial and otherwise. They are also responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities and to provide reasonable assurance that:

- The company is operating efficiently and effectively,
- Its assets are safeguarded against unauthorised use or disposal,

The Institute of Packaging Limited

- Proper records are maintained and financial information used within the company or for publication is reliable,
- The company complies with relevant laws and regulations

The systems of internal control are designed to provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance against material misstatement or loss. They include

- A strategic plan and an annual budget approved by the directors
- Regular consideration by the directors of financial results, variance from budgets, non-financial performance indicators and benchmarking reviews
- Delegation of authority and segregation of duties
- Identification and management of risks

A formal risk management process to assess business risks and implement risk management strategies is in place. It involves identifying the types of risks the company faces, prioritising them in terms of potential impact and likelihood of occurrence, and identifying means of mitigating the risks.

The trustees (who are also directors of The Institute of Packaging Limited for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the annual report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom accounting standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources including income and expenditure of the charitable company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to

- Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently,
- Observe the methods and principles of the charities' SORP,
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue to operate.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

The main objects of the Institute, as set out in the memorandum of association, are to advance public education in and to improve the technology of packaging in all its aspects. In previous years, the Institute has achieved these objects through its principal activities of a professional, educational and qualifying body in the technology of packaging and of an organiser of competitions designed to improve that technology. Following the decision by members in January 2005 to merge, these activities have been transferred to The Institute of Materials, Minerals and Mining.
