DIRECTORS' AND TRUSTEES' REPORT

for the year ended 31 December 2014

The trustees present their report and financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2014. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out on page 5 and with special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small entities and comply with the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities 2005.

Structure, governance and management

The Institute of Packaging was incorporated under the Companies Act 1948 on 3 January 1964, registration number 786826. The Institute is a company limited by guarantee and is a registered charity, number 295762.

The registered office is at 297 Euston Road, London, NW1 3AQ.

The directors (and trustees of the charity) who served during the year were as follows

Mr B D Lye
Dr B A Rickinson
Dr M J May

The liability of each guarantor in the event of winding up is £1. At 31 December 2014 there were three guarantors: Mr B D Lye, Dr B A Rickinson and Dr M J May.

The company operates in accordance with its memorandum and articles of association and its ultimate parent undertaking is The Institute of Materials, Minerals and Mining (IOM3).

Governance of the company is vested in the directors who are also trustees. The directors are appointed by the Council of the Institute. The day to day management of the company is delegated to staff employed by the Institute who report to the chief executive.

The board meet as necessary to review strategy and approve operating plans and budgets.

The directors have overall responsibility for ensuring that the company has appropriate systems of controls, financial and otherwise. They are also responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities and to provide reasonable assurance that:

- The company is operating efficiently and effectively;
- Its assets are safeguarded against unauthorised use or disposal;
- Proper records are maintained and financial information used within the company or for publication is reliable;
- The company complies with relevant laws and regulations.

The systems of internal control are designed to provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance against material misstatement or loss. They include:

- A strategic plan and an annual budget approved by the directors.
- Regular consideration by the directors of financial results, variance from budgets, non-financial performance indicators and benchmarking reviews.
- Delegation of authority and segregation of duties.
- Identification and management of risks.

A formal risk management process to assess business risks and implement risk management strategies is in place. It involves identifying the types of risks the company faces, prioritising them in terms of potential impact and likelihood of occurrence, and identifying means of mitigating the risks.

The trustees (who are also directors of The Institute of Packaging Limited for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the annual report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom accounting standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources including income and expenditure of the charitable company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- Observe the methods and principles of the charities' SORP;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue to operate.

Objects and activities for the public benefit

The main objects of the Institute, as set out in the Memorandum of Association, are to advance public education in and to improve the technology of packaging in all its aspects. In previous years, the Institute has achieved these objects through its principal activities of a professional, educational and qualifying body in the technology of packaging and of an organiser of competitions designed to improve that technology. Following the decision by members in January 2005 to merge, these activities have been transferred to The Institute of Materials, Minerals and Mining.

Achievements and performance

The company has ceased all operations in 2005.

Financial review

As the company did not operate in 2013 and 2014 no statement of financial activities has been prepared. All expenses have been paid by the company's parent organisation.

The company held no reserves at the year-end.

Plans for the future periods

The Institute has ceased all operations for the foreseeable future.

This report is prepared in accordance with the special provisions applicable companies entitled to small companies' exemption.

Approved and authorised for issue by the board and signed on its behalf on 13 July 2015 by:
