Directors' report

The directors present their annual report and the unaudited financial statements for the year ended 31 August 1998.

Principal activities, trading review and future developments

The company did not trade during the year and is unlikely to do so in the near future.

Dividends

The directors do not recommend payment of a dividend for the year under review (1997: £nil).

Directors and directors' interests

The directors who held office during the year were as follows:

CN Wright Sir George Martin NRA Butterfield

None of the directors who held office at the end of the financial year had any disclosable interest in the shares of the company.

According to the register of directors' interests, no rights to subscribe for shares in or debentures of the company were granted to any of the directors or their immediate families, or exercised by them, during the year.

At 31 August 1998 and 31 August 1997, CN Wright, NRA Butterfield and Sir George Martin were also directors of Chrysalis Group plc, the ultimate parent company and their share interests are stated in the directors' report of that company.

Year 2000 compliance

The Chrysalis Group, of which this company is a part, has upgraded both its internal computer network and its main accounting software over the past 18 months. In carrying out these two major upgrades the Directors have sought to ensure that the new hardware and software selected was Year 2000 compliant. The Directors of the Group are also in the process of assessing the compliance of all other computer hardware, software and other electronic equipment which uses time-coded software in use throughout the Group. Where instances of non-compliance have been found, these have been noted and the necessary changes are being made as part of the Group's normal ongoing replacement cycle before 31 December 1999. An internal working party comprising senior information technology and accounting personnel meets on a regular basis to plan and control the implementation of changes and review progress.

Directors' report

Auditors

In accordance with Section 250(3) of the Companies Act 1985, the company qualifies as a dormant company and has resolved that auditors shall not be appointed.

Statement of directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They have general responsibility for taking such steps as are reasonably open to them to safeguard the assets of the company and to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.
