DSS Flexibles Limited

Directors' report

The directors present their annual report and the financial statements for the year ended 1 May 1999.

Principal activities, business review and results for the year

The company did not trade during the year.

Directors and directors' interests

The directors who held office during the year were as follows:

JP Williams
JS Russell
DF Buttfield

None of the directors during the year had any interest in the shares of the company.

JS Russell, JP Williams and DF Buttfield are directors of David Smith (Holdings) PLC, and particulars of their interests, including share options, in the shares of the parent company are shown in those accounts.

Statement of directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They have general responsibility for taking such steps as are reasonably open to them to safeguard the assets of the company and to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.
