Messrs. L.B. Sell, R.G. Janes, H.W. Janes and A. Bebbington are directors of H.C. Janes Limited and, therefore, their shareholdings in that company are shown in the report and accounts of the holding company.

- (c) There are no schemes to benefit directors by enabling them to buy shares in your company or in the holding company.
- (d) None of your directors had a material beneficial interest in any contract, of significance in relation to the company's business, to which your company was a party during the financial year.

5. Auditors

Hillier, Hills, Frary & Co., are willing to continue in office and a resolution authorising the directors to fix the remuneration of the auditors will be submitted to the Annual General Meeting.

On behalf of the Board

LESLIE B. SELL

Report of the Auditors to the Members of

H.C. JAMES (SERVICES) LIMITED

In our opinion, the accounts set out on pages 5.3 to 5.5 give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs at 31st March, 1975, and of its loss for the year ended on that date and comply with the Companies Acts 1948 and 1967.

8. Share capital

The authorised and issued capital at 31st March, 1974 and 1975 was 100 ordinary shares of £1 each, fully paid.

The company is a wholly owned subsidiary of H.C. James Limited registered in the United Kingdom.

9. Deferred Taxation

Provision has been made for the following:

- (a) taxation relief on assets in advance of the corresponding charge for depreciation,
- (b) tax applicable to items which are charged or credited in accounting periods different from those in which they are allowed for tax or are taxable, and
- (c) taxation deferred by stock relief.

The amount set aside represents an estimate of the provision required for (a) and (b) above at 31st March 1975 at a taxation rate applicable to the year. Relief for losses surrendered under group taxation arrangements has also been included.

10. Bank overdraft

The company is a party, with its parent company H.C. James Limited, and other companies in the group, to a joint banking account with Barclays Bank Limited. The overdraft on this joint account is secured on building land owned by the parent and certain of the subsidiary companies. Each of the companies, being a party to the joint account, has agreed to be jointly and severally liable for the indebtedness on such account, which at 31st March, 1975, amounted to £1,410,893 (1974 £4,004,357). The bank operates memorandum accounts for each of the joint holders and the balance shown in this balance sheet is the balance on its memorandum account. This memorandum account balance does not constitute a balance in account between this company and the bank.
