Notes to the financial statements

1. Accounting policies

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below. There are no accounting policies where the use of assumptions and estimates are determined to be significant to the financial statements.

The company's ultimate parent company, Lloyds TSB Group plc, adopted International Financial Reporting Standards ('IFRS') as adopted by the European Union in its financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2005. The company elected to adopt IFRS in the preparation of these financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2005.

There is no impact on the company's financial statements as a result of the change in accounting framework from UK Generally Accepted Accounting Principles to IFRS.

These separate financial statements contain information about the company and do not contain consolidated financial information as the parent of a group. The company has taken advantage of the exemption under IAS 27 Consolidated and Separate Financial Statements from the requirement to prepare consolidated financial statements. The company and its subsidiary are included in the consolidated financial statements of the company's ultimate parent company.

An income statement, a statement of changes in equity and a cash flow statement are not presented in these financial statements as these would show nil amounts for the current and preceding financial years.

(a) Investments in subsidiaries

Investments in subsidiary undertakings are carried out at cost, less provision for any permanent diminution in value.

2. Related party transactions

The company's immediate parent company is TSB Commercial Holdings Limited. The company's ultimate parent company is Lloyds TSB Group plc. The company's related parties include other companies in the Lloyds TSB Group, pension schemes of the company's ultimate parent company and the company's key management personnel. Key management personnel are those persons having authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the activities of the company, which is determined to be the company's directors.

There were no transactions between the company and key management personnel during the current or preceding year.

Key management personnel are employed by other companies in the Lloyds TSB Group and consider that their services to the company are incidental to their other activities within the group.
