Directors' report

For the 52 week period ended 31 December 2016

The Directors, who are also Directors of the ultimate parent company Johnston Press plc (the "Group") present their annual report on the affairs of the Bedfordshire Newspapers Limited (the "Company"), together with the financial statements, for the 52 week period ended 31 December 2016.

In accordance with the provisions of s414B Companies Act 2006 and s415A Companies Act 2006, the Company is entitled to the small company's exemption in relation to the Directors' report for the financial period.

Activities and results

The Company has been dormant as defined in section 1169 of the Companies Act 2006 throughout the current and preceding financial period. It is anticipated that the Company will remain dormant for the foreseeable future.

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on the continued operation of the Group and the outcome and timing of the strategic review and the associated uncertainties described in the Group's going concern and viability statement.

The Company had no employees, other than the Directors, during either period. The Directors received no remuneration for their services to the Company in either period.

The Directors are not aware, at the date of this report, of any likely major changes in the Company's activities during the forthcoming financial period.

The financial position of the Company is set out in the balance sheet on page 4.

Johnston Press plc, the ultimate parent company of the Group, provides the Company with direction and access to all central resources it needs and determines policies in all key areas such as finance, risk, human resources or environment. For this reason, the Directors believe that performance indicators and principal risks or uncertainties specific to the Company are not necessary or appropriate for an understanding of the development, performance, position or future developments of the business. The publicly available annual report of Johnston Press plc reviews these matters on a Group basis.

Liquidity and going concern

The Company is part of the Johnston Press plc group, which has published its audited consolidated financial statements to 31 December 2016 and interim report to 1 July 2017.

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on the continued operation of the Group and the outcome and timing of the strategic review. The Company utilises intercompany funding provided by other Group companies.

Further details of the Group liquidity and going concern position are detailed in the 2016 annual report included within the viability statement on page 46 and in the 2017 interim report included within the viability statement on page 14.

Dividends

No dividends have been paid or proposed by the Directors (2 January 2016: £nil).

Directors

The directors who served throughout the year were as follows:

A G M Highfield
D J King

Bedfordshire Newspapers Limited

Directors' report (continued)

For the 52 week period ended 31 December 2016

Directors' liability

As permitted by the Companies Act 2006, the Group has insurance cover for the Directors against liabilities in relation to the Company.

Future developments and events after the balance sheet date

The Group issued its interim results for the 26 week period ended 1 July 2017 on 2 August 2017. Refer to note 19 in those interim results for details of events that occurred after the balance sheet date. There are no other events requiring disclosure.

Approval of reduced disclosures

The Company, as a qualifying entity, has taken advantage of the disclosure exemptions in FRS 102 paragraph 1.12.

The Company also intends to take advantage of these exemptions in the financial statements to be issued in subsequent periods. Objections to this basis of preparation may be served on the Company by Johnston Press plc, as the ultimate parent of the entity.

The accompanying notes are an integral part of these financial statements.

The Company did not trade during the current or preceding period and has made neither profit nor loss, nor any other items of comprehensive income. Bedfordshire Newspapers Limited is a dormant company, as defined by the Companies Act 2006, and has therefore elected to retain its accounting policies for reported assets, liabilities and equity at the date of transition to FRS 102 in accordance with the transition provisions in paragraph 35.10 in FRS 102. The accompanying notes are an integral part of these financial statements.

For the period ended 31 December 2016 the Company was entitled to exemption from audit under section 480 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.

Directors' responsibilities:

- the members have not required the Company to obtain an audit of its accounts for the period in question in accordance with section 476
- the Directors acknowledge their responsibilities for complying with the requirements of the Act with respect to accounting records and the preparation of accounts
- these accounts have been delivered and prepared in accordance with the provisions applicable to companies subject to the small companies' regime

Notes to the financial statements

For the 52 week period ended 31 December 2016

1. Accounting policies

A summary of the principal accounting policies, all of which have been applied consistently throughout the current and preceding periods, is set out below:

General information and basis of accounting

Bedfordshire Newspapers Limited is a Company incorporated in the United Kingdom under the Companies Act 2006. The address of the registered office is Unex House - Suite B, Bourges Boulevard, Peterborough, Cambridgeshire, PE1 1NG. The Company is a dormant non-trading entity, whose principle assets and liabilities are held with fellow entities within the Group.

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, modified to include certain items at fair value, and in accordance with Financial Reporting Standard 102 (FRS 102) issued by the Financial Reporting Council.

The Company meets the definition of a qualifying entity under FRS 102 and has therefore taken advantage of the disclosure exemptions available to it in respect of its separate financial statements. Exemptions have been taken in relation to share-based payments, financial instruments, presentation of a cash-flow statement, intra-group transactions and remuneration of key personnel.

The functional currency of the Company is considered to be pounds sterling because that is the currency of the primary economic environment in which the company operates.

Liquidity risk and going concern

The Company is part of the Johnston Press plc group, which has published its audited consolidated financial statements to 31 December 2016 and interim report to 1 July 2017.

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on the continued operation of the Group and the outcome and timing of the strategic review. The Company utilises intercompany funding provided by other Group companies.

Further details of the Group liquidity and going concern position are detailed in the 2016 annual report included within the viability statement on page 46 and in the 2017 interim report included within the viability statement on page 14.

2. Critical accounting judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty

In the process of applying the Company's accounting policies, which are described in note 1, management have not made any judgement or estimate that have had a significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements.

3. Called-up share capital

Notes to the financial statements (continued) For the 52 week period ended 31 December 2016

4. Reserves

	31 December 2016 £'000	2 January 2016 £'000
Profit and loss account	(1)	(1)

Profit and loss account relates to accumulated gains and losses and is not distributable.

5. Financial commitments and guarantees

Value added tax

The Company is registered for VAT purposes in a group of undertakings, which share a common registration number. As a result, it has jointly guaranteed the VAT liability of the group, and failure by other members of the group to meet their VAT liabilities would give rise to additional liabilities for the Company. At 2 January 2016 the total liability of the group amounted to £956,000 (2 January 2016: £2,088,000), which is substantially accounted for in Johnston Publishing Limited.

6. Immediate and ultimate parent company

The immediate and ultimate parent company is Johnston Press plc, a company incorporated in the United Kingdom and registered in Scotland.

The only group in which the results of the Company are consolidated is that headed by Johnston Press plc. The financial statements of Johnston Press plc are available to the public and may be obtained from Johnston Press plc, Orchard Brae House, 30 Queensferry Road, Edinburgh EH4 2HS

7. Post balance sheet events

The Group issued its interim results for the 26 week period ended 1 July 2017 on 2 August 2017. Refer to note 19 in those interim results for details of events that occurred after the balance sheet date. There are no other events requiring disclosure.
