DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES AND REPORT OF THE AUDITORS

Statement of directors' responsibilities

The directors are required by company law to prepare financial statements which give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the company at the end of its financial year and of the profit or loss for the year then ended. In preparing the financial statements on a going concern basis, suitable accounting policies have been consistently applied by making reasonable and prudent judgements and estimates. Applicable accounting standards have been followed with material departures disclosed in the financial statements. The directors are also responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Auditors' report to the members of Valiant House (Management) Limited

We have audited the financial statements on page 4 to 9 which have been prepared under the historical cost convention and the accounting policies set out on page 6 in accordance with auditing standards.

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors

As described above, the company's directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements. It is our responsibility to form an independent opinion, based on our audit, on those financial statements and to report our opinion to you.

Basis of opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Auditing Standards issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made by the directors in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed. We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs at . 24 June 1998 and of its result for the period then ended and have been properly prepared in accordance with the provision of the Companies Act 1985.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accounting policies are explained under the appropriate headings in the notes on the financial statements and have been consistently applied throughout the company's financial statements. The income and expenditure account on page 4 is a statement of a maintenance income received and expenses paid during the year except that:-

- (a) Maintenance and other income due from the flats and car spaces is the total for the year and not the amount received during the year.
- (b) Expenses which were unpaid at the year end due to the financial statements not having been rendered and substantial expense prepayments at the balance sheet date are included.
- (c) Additional maintenance levies will be charged on all late payments of the year to 24 June 1998 and these will be included in future financial statements when collected.
- (d) As last year depreciation of £Nil (1997 £Nil) is charged at 100% of the cost of fixed assets purchased in the year of account.
- (e) The company's results are stated after charging the following:

1998 1997

Auditors remuneration, excluding VAT

£2,500 £2,500

(f) As last year the company is treated in the Inland Revenue as a mutually trading entity. Corporation tax of £2,456 (1997 - £2,625) is therefore due only on its investment income received at the small company rate of 21% and Value Added Tax is neither chargeable on the residents' maintenance levies nor recoverable from the Value Added Tax paid on expenses.
