- 17.3 the other trustees are satisfied that it is in the interests of the Charity to employ or to contract with that trustee rather than with someone who is not a trustee. In reaching that decision the trustees must balance the advantage of employing a trustee against the disadvantages of doing so (especially the loss of the trustee's services as a result of dealing with the trustee's conflict of interest);

Winding Up

22. If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Charity there remains after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities any property whatsoever the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Charity but shall be given or transferred to some other charitable trust or body having objects similar to the objects of the Charity and which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property amongst its or their members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Charity under or by virtue of Article 6, such trust or body to be determined by the members of the Charity at or before the time of dissolution and if and so far as effect cannot be given to the aforesaid provision then to some charitable object.

Members

23. New members of the Charity shall be admitted to membership by ordinary resolution of the members or by a written resolution of the members of the Charity passed in accordance with the Companies Act, provided that if at any time the number of members falls below two, the trustees may appoint a member or members to bring the membership up to two.
24. Unless the Charity in general meeting shall make other provision under Articles 76 to 77, any member of the Charity may retire by written notice to the Charity, provided that after such retirement the number of members is not less than two.
25. Membership is terminated if the member is removed from membership by a resolution of not less than 75% of the remaining members that his or her membership is terminated

General meetings

26. The trustees may call general meetings and, on the requisition of members pursuant to the provisions of the Companies Act, shall forthwith proceed to convene a general meeting for a date not later than eight weeks after receipt of the requisition. If there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient trustees to call a general meeting, any trustee or any member of the Charity may call a general meeting.

Notice of general meetings

27. A general meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by at least twenty-one clear days' notice. All other general meetings shall be called by at least fourteen clear days' notice but a general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority in number of members having a right to attend and vote, being a majority together holding not less than 90% of the total voting rights.
- 27.1 The notice shall specify the time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. The notice must also contain a statement setting out the right of members to appoint a proxy under the Companies Acts.
- 27.2 The notice shall be given to all the members and to the trustees and auditors.
28. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

Proceedings at general meetings

29. No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum is present. A simple majority of all members entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted, each being a member or a proxy for a member, shall constitute a quorum.
30. If a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to such time and place as the trustees may determine.
31. The members may from time appoint a member to act as chair of their meetings.
32. If no chair has been appointed, or if the chair is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to be chair.
33. The chair may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had adjournment not taken place. When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.
34. A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands or as the members shall otherwise decide.

Attendance and speaking at general meetings

35. A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.
36. A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when:-
 - 36.1 that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting; and
 - 36.2 that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.
37. The members may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak at it.
38. In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other.
39. Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

Written resolutions

40. A resolution in writing agreed by a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution by a majority of not less than 75%) of the members who would have been entitled to vote upon it had it been proposed at a general meeting shall be effective provided that:-
- 40.1 a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to every eligible member;
- 40.2 a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution a majority of not less than 75%) of members has signified its agreement to the resolution; and
- 40.3 it is contained in an authenticated document which has been received at the office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date.
41. A resolution in writing may comprise several copies to which one or more members have signified their agreement.

Votes of members

42. On a show of hands every member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote. A proxy need not be a member of the Charity.
43. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chair whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

Decisions not prescribed by the Companies Act or these Articles

44. Except as otherwise required by these Articles or the Companies Act, the members may take decisions in any manner which they consider fit including by email. One of the members or the company secretary shall be appointed to record such decision, and the names of those who voted for and against such decision and keep the decision and any minutes or supporting documentation, with the Charity records.

Trustees

45. The number of trustees shall be not less than three but (unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution) shall not be subject to any maximum.

Powers of trustees

46. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act and the Articles and to any directions given by special resolution, the business of the Charity shall be managed by the trustees who may exercise all the powers of the Charity. No alteration of the Articles and no such direction shall invalidate any prior act of the trustees which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made or that direction had not been given. The powers given by this Article shall not be limited by any special power given to the trustees by the Articles and a meeting of trustees at which a quorum is present may exercise all the powers exercisable by the trustees.

Appointment of trustees

47. No person may be appointed as a trustee in circumstances such that, had he or she already been a trustee, he or she would have been disqualified from acting under the provisions of Article 50.
48. Save as set out above, the members may by ordinary resolution appoint a person who is willing to act to be a trustee either to fill a vacancy or as an additional trustee.
49. The trustees may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a trustee, subject in each case to ratification by members, either to fill a vacancy or as an additional trustee, and provided that the appointment does not cause the number of trustees to exceed any number fixed by or in accordance with the Articles as the maximum number of trustees.

Disqualification and removal of trustees

50. A trustee shall cease to hold office if:-
- 50.1 he or she ceases to be a trustee by virtue of any provision in the Companies Act or is disqualified from acting as a trustee by virtue of the Charities Acts;
- 50.2 the trustees reasonably believe he or she has become physically or mentally incapable of managing his or her own affairs and they resolve that he or she be removed from office;
- 50.3 he or she resigns his or her office by notice to the Charity (but only if at least two trustees will remain in office when the notice of resignation is to take effect); or
- 50.4 he or she is absent without the permission of the trustees from all their meetings held within a period of six months and the trustees resolve that his or her office be vacated; or
- 50.5 he or she is removed by an ordinary resolution of the members.

Trustees' expenses

51. The trustees may be paid all reasonable travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with their attendance at meetings of trustees or committees or general meetings or otherwise in connection with the discharge of their duties.

Proceedings of trustees

Trustees' Meetings

52. Subject to the provisions of the Articles, the trustees may regulate their proceedings as they think fit. A trustee may, and the secretary at the request of a trustee shall, call a meeting of the trustees. In the case of an equality of votes, the chair shall have a second or casting vote. Questions arising at a meeting of the trustees shall be decided:
- 52.1 by a simple majority of votes, or:
- 52.2 Where any decision of the trustees is to: (a) appoint or remove the CEO; (b) approve the Charity's five year strategy; or (c) is a decision that is either (i) agreed by a majority of the trustees to be; or (ii) a resolution of at least 50% of the members determine is, sufficiently significant or critical to the Charity, then any such decision must have no more than two trustees voting against or abstaining to be duly passed.

53. The quorum for the transaction of the business of the trustees at a trustee meeting shall be a simple majority of the appointed trustees from time to time.
54. The trustees may act notwithstanding any vacancies in their number, but, if the number of trustees is less than the number fixed as the quorum, the continuing trustees or trustee may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting.
55. The trustees may appoint one of their number to be the chair of their meetings and may at any time remove him or her from that office. Unless he or she is unwilling to do so, the trustee so appointed shall preside at every meeting of trustees at which he or she is present. But if there is no trustee holding that office, or if the trustee holding it is unwilling to preside or is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the trustees present may appoint one of their number to be chair of the meeting.

Participation in trustees' meetings

56. Subject to the Articles, trustees participate in a trustees' meeting, or part of a trustees' meeting, when:-
 - 56.1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Articles; and
 - 56.2 they are each able to communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting for example, via telephone or video conferencing.
57. In determining whether trustees are participating in a trustees' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.
58. If all the trustees participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

Trustees' decision making by majority without a meeting

- 59.1 The trustees may, in the circumstances outlined in Articles 59.1 to 59.4, make a majority decision without holding a trustees' meeting unless the decision is one to which the provisions of Article 52.2 applies, if:
 - 59.1.1 a trustee has become aware of a matter on which the trustees need to take a decision;
 - 59.1.2 that trustee has taken all reasonable steps to make all the other trustees aware of the matter and the decision;
 - 59.1.3 the trustees have had a reasonable opportunity to communicate their views on the matter and the decision to each other; and
 - 59.1.4 a majority of all appointed trustees vote in favour of a particular decision on that matter ;
- 59.2 A decision taken in accordance with Articles 59.1 to 59.4 shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been taken at a trustees' meeting duly convened and held.

- 59.3 Trustees participating in the taking of a majority decision otherwise than at a trustees' meeting in accordance with Articles 59.1 to 59.4:
- 59.3.1 may be in different places, and may participate at different times; and
 - 59.3.2 may communicate with each other by any means, including without limitation in electronic form including by email.
- 59.4 The Chair, or such other trustee as shall be appointed by the trustees shall be the chair of the process of decision-making in accordance with Articles 59.1 to 59.4. The process shall include:
- 59.4.1 circulation of the proposed decision with an indication of the time period for discussion and the date by which trustees are asked to make a decision or cast their votes;
 - 59.4.2 the nomination of a person to whom all trustee's votes must be communicated;
 - 59.4.3 if a majority of the trustees vote in favour of the decision, the nominated person shall communicate the decision to all the trustees and the date of the decision shall be the date of the communication from the nominated person confirming formal approval; and
 - 59.4.4 the nominated person shall prepare a minute of the decision in accordance with Article 64.2.

Trustee interests and management of conflicts of interest

Declaration of interests

- 60.1 For the avoidance of doubt, Articles 60.1 to 60.8 applies to trustees' decisions taken in accordance with both:
- 60.1.1 Articles 52 to 58 (in relation to trustee decision making at trustee meetings); and
 - 60.1.2 Articles 59.1 to 59.4 (in relation to trustee decision making without a trustee meeting).
- 60.2 Unless Article 60.3 applies, a trustee must declare the nature and extent of:
- 60.2.1 any direct or indirect interest which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Charity; and
 - 60.2.2 any duty or any direct or indirect interest which he or she has which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Charity or his or her duties to the Charity.
- 60.3 There is no need to declare any interest or duty of which the other trustees are, or ought reasonably to be, already aware.

Participation in decision-making

- 60.4 If a trustee's interest or duty cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest or a conflict of duties with or in respect of the Charity, he or she is entitled to participate in the decision-making process, to be counted in the quorum and to vote in relation to the matter. Any uncertainty about whether a trustee's interest or duty is likely to give rise to a conflict shall be determined by a majority decision of the other trustees taking part in the decision-making process.

60.5 If a trustee's interest or duty gives rise (or could reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise) to a conflict of interest or a conflict of duties with or in respect of the Charity, he or she may participate in the decision-making process and may be counted in the quorum and vote unless:

60.5.1 the decision could result in the trustee receiving a benefit other than:

- (a) any benefit received in his, her or its capacity as a beneficiary of the Charity (as permitted under Article 12) and which is available generally to the beneficiaries of the Charity;
- (b) the payment of premiums in respect of indemnity insurance effected in accordance with Article 8;
- (c) payment under the indemnity set out at Article 73; and
- (d) reimbursement of expenses in accordance with Article 7; or

60.5.2 a majority of the other trustees participating in the decision-making process decide to the contrary, in which case he or she must comply with Article 60.6.

60.6 If a trustee with a conflict of interest or conflict of duties is required to comply with this Article 60.6, he or she must:

60.6.1 take part in the decision-making process only to such extent as in the view of the other trustees is necessary to inform the debate;

60.6.2 not be counted in the quorum for that part of the process; and 60.6.3 withdraw during the vote and have no vote on the matter.

Continuing duties to the Charity

60.7 Where a trustee has a conflict of interest or conflict of duties and the trustee has complied with his or her obligations under these Articles in respect of that conflict:

60.7.1 the trustee shall not be in breach of his or her duties to the Charity by withholding confidential information from the Charity if to disclose it would result in a breach of any other duty or obligation of confidence owed by him or her; and

60.7.2 the trustee shall not be accountable to the Charity for any benefit expressly permitted under these Articles which he or she derives from any matter or from any office, employment or position.

60.8 For the purposes of Article 60.5.1 and 60.7 "trustee" shall include:

60.8.1 any child, parent, grandchild, grandparent, brother, sister or spouse of the trustee or any person living with the trustee as his or her partner; and

60.8.2 any firm, company or charity in which the trustee is:

- (a) a partner;
- (b) an employee;
- (c) a consultant;
- (d) a director; or
- (e) a shareholder,

unless the shares of the company are listed on a recognised stock exchange and the trustee holds less than 1% of the issued capital.

Delegation to committees

61. The trustees may appoint one or more committees consisting of one or more trustees or other persons for the purpose of making any inquiry or supervising or performing any function or duty which in the opinion of the trustees would be more conveniently undertaken or carried out by a committee:- provided that all acts and proceedings of any such sub-committees shall be fully and promptly reported to the trustees.

Delegation of investment management

62. The trustees may delegate the management of investments to a financial expert or financial experts provided that:
- 62.1 the investment policy is set down in writing for the financial expert or financial experts by the trustees;
 - 62.2 timely reports of all transactions are provided to the trustees;
 - 62.3 the performance of the investments is reviewed regularly with the trustees;
 - 62.4 the trustees are entitled to cancel the delegation arrangement at any time;
 - 62.5 the investment policy and the delegation arrangements are reviewed regularly;
 - 62.6 all payments due to the financial expert or financial experts are on a scale or at a level which is agreed in advance; and
 - 62.7 the financial expert or financial experts must not do anything outside the powers of the trustees.

Validity of trustee actions

63. All acts done by a meeting of trustees, or of a committee, shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was a defect in the appointment of any trustee or member of such committee or that any of them were disqualified from holding office, or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a trustee or member of such committee and had been entitled to vote.

Minutes

- 64. The trustees shall keep minutes for the purpose:-
 - 64.1 of all appointments of officers made by the trustees;
 - 64.2 of all resolutions of the Charity and of the trustees (including, without limitation, decisions of the trustees made without a meeting in accordance with Articles 59.1 to 59.4); and
 - 64.3 of all proceedings at meetings of the Charity and of the trustees and of committees including the names of the trustees and committee members present at each such meeting.

 - 68.4 by giving it in electronic form to the member's address.

- 70. Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given.

71. Proof that an electronic form of notice was given shall be conclusive where the company can demonstrate that it was properly addressed and sent, in accordance with the Companies Acts.
72. In accordance with the Companies Acts notice shall be deemed to be given:-
