Chrysalis Community Care Group Limited
Directors' Report for the Year Ended 31 December 2008

The directors present their report and the audited financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2008.

Directors' responsibilities

The directors are responsible for preparing the Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). The financial statements are required by law to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period.

In preparing those financial statements, directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business, in which case there should be supporting assumptions or qualifications as necessary.

The directors confirm that they have complied with the above requirements in preparing the financial statements.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Directors' statement regarding disclosure of information to auditors

The directors who held office at the date of the approval of this directors' report confirm that they have taken all steps that they ought to have taken as a director in order to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the company's auditors are aware of that information. The directors confirm that, as far as they are aware, there is no relevant audit information of which the company's auditors are unaware of.

Principal activity

The principal activity of the company is that of a domiciliary care provider to local authorities and private clients in their own homes.

The nursing and social care business was transferred to Medacs Healthcare plc on 5 March 2008.

Business review and future developments

The domiciliary care business of Celsian Care (a trading name of Carlisle Staffing plc) was transferred to Chrysalis on 1 December 2008. In addition, the business of the company's wholly owned subsidiary, Chrysalis Community Care (Bristol) Limited, was transferred to the company on 1 November 2008. The enlarged business is committed about standards and its position as a quality partner in the delivery of care.

The company monitors its performance using the following key performance indicators.

The overall gross margin percentage increased 100 basis points. Pre-exceptional administrative expenses were reduced by 4.0% to £1,455,000 in the year (2007: £1,569,000). Pre-exceptional operating profit increased to £179,000 (2007: £53,000) reflecting a conversion rate of gross profit to EBIT of 11.0%, a significant improvement on the previous year.

The combined domiciliary care business is well placed to benefit from the trend towards more community supported living and an ageing population.

Results and dividends

The results for the company are set out in the financial statements.

The directors do not recommend the payment of a dividend (2007: none).

Insurance

The group, of which the company is a member, maintains a comprehensive insurance programme with a number of reputable third party underwriters. These insurance policies are reviewed annually to ensure that there is adequate cover for insurable risks and that the terms of those policies are optimised.

Regulatory environment

The staffing industry is governed by an increasing level of compliance which varies from market to market. Additionally our clients require more complex levels of compliance in their contractual arrangements. The company takes its responsibilities seriously, is committed to meeting all of its regulatory responsibilities, and continues to strengthen its internal controls and processes with respect to legal and contractual obligations.

Principal risks facing the business

The principal risks and uncertainties of the Impellam Group plc ("the Group"), which include those of the company, are discussed in the Group Financial Director's Report in the group's annual report which does not form part of this report. The group's Business and financial risks are managed at a group level, rather than at an individual company level. For this reason, the company's directors believe that a discussion of the group's risks would not be appropriate for an understanding of the development, performance or position of the company.

Technology systems

The company is reliant on a number of technology systems in providing its services to clients. These systems are hosted both in-house and in various data centres. The business continues to review and enhance its ability to cope with the loss of a technology system as a result of a significant event.

Fixed assets

In the opinion of the directors no fixed assets have a significant difference in value between the book value reported and the market value.

Chrysalis Community Care Group Limited

Supplier payment policy

The company's policy, which is also applied by the group of which the company is a member, is to settle terms of payment with suppliers when agreeing the terms of each transaction and to ensure that suppliers are made aware of the terms of payment. The company abides by the terms of payment. The company's trade creditors are settled by another group company.

Employees

The company recognises that it is essential to maintain a highly skilled workforce. To this end the policy of training and development is incorporated in the company plan. It is the policy to promote from within the organisation wherever the possibility exists.

Health and safety measures are given particular attention by the directors and a written policy exists and is known throughout the company.

Applications for employment by disabled persons are always fully considered, bearing in mind the aptitudes of the candidate concerned. In the event of members of staff becoming disabled every effort is made to ensure that their employment with the company continues and that appropriate training is arranged. It is the policy of the company that the training, career development and promotion of disabled persons should, as far as possible, be identical with that of other employees.

The company recognises the need for employees to be informed of the company's activities and performance. A corporate intranet for all employees provides a wide range of information and provides an increasingly important communication tool for policies and procedures as well as the sharing of information, document storage and specific news. Meetings are held between management and employees to allow sharing of information and consultation. Employees participate directly in the performance of the business through the Company's bonus arrangements.

Donations

Chrysalis Community Care Group Limited
Notes to the Financial Statements for the Year Ended 31 December 2008

1 Accounting policies

Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable accounting standards and the Companies Act 1985.

Significant accounting judgements

In applying the company's accounting policies the following judgements have been made that may have a significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements:

Fixed asset investments

Fixed asset investments are stated at cost less a provision for impairment. The carrying values of investments are reviewed for impairment at least on an annual basis. This requires an estimation of the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the assets are allocated. Estimating the value in use requires the company to make an estimate of the future cash flows from the cash-generating unit and also to choose a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value of those cash flows.

Recoverability of debtors

The company determines whether debtors are impaired if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable at least on an annual basis. This requires an estimation of the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the debtor is attached.

Turnover

Turnover, which is stated exclusive of value added tax, comprises amounts receivable for employment services, rebates and discounts provided within the United Kingdom. The nature of the company's activities is such that revenue is recognised when a written agreement, terms and conditions or an approved customer order is in place and the services have been fully rendered. At that time, pricing is then fixed and determinable. The company's procedures require review of a customer's ability to pay prior to a service provision, at the time of such provision, and at the time of billing, such that collectibility is reasonably assured.

Depreciation of tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets are stated at cost or valuation, less depreciation and any provision for impairment. Depreciation is provided on all tangible fixed assets at rates calculated to write off the cost less estimated residual value of each asset on a straight line basis over its expected useful life, as follows:

|                                  |                        |
|----------------------------------|------------------------|
| Short leasehold properties       | over the lease term    |
| Fixtures, fittings and equipment | between 3 and 10 years |

The carrying values of tangible fixed assets are reviewed for impairment if events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying value may not be recoverable.

Chrysalis Community Care Group Limited

Goodwill

Goodwill arising on the acquisition of businesses, representing any excess of the fair value of the consideration given over the fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities acquired, is capitalised and written off on a straight-line basis over its estimated useful economic life, subject to a maximum of 20 years. The carrying value of goodwill is reviewed for impairment at the end of the first full year following acquisition and in other periods if events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying value may not be recoverable.

Goodwill arising on acquisitions in the year ended 31 December 1997 and earlier periods were written off to reserves in accordance with the accounting standard then in force. As permitted by the current accounting standard the goodwill previously written off to reserves has not been reinstated in the balance sheet. On disposal or closure of a previously acquired business, the attributable amount of goodwill previously written off to reserves is included in determining the profit or loss on disposal.

Taxation

Current tax is recognised at the amounts estimated to be payable or recoverable using the tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognised, subject to certain exceptions, in respect of all material timing differences between the recognition of gains and losses in the accounts and for tax purposes. Those timing differences recognised may include accelerated capital allowances, unrelieved tax losses and short term timing differences. Timing differences not recognised include those relating to the revaluation of fixed assets in the absence of a commitment to sell the revalued assets and the gain on sale of assets rolled over into replacement assets in the absence of a commitment to sell the replacement assets.

Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that they are regarded as recoverable. They are regarded as recoverable to the extent that, on the basis of all available evidence, it can be regarded as more likely than not that there will be suitable taxable profits from which the future reversal of the underlying timing differences can be deducted.

Deferred tax is calculated on a non-discounted basis at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the periods in which timing differences reverse, based on tax rates and laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date.

Operating leases

Rentals payable under operating leases, where substantially all the benefits and risks of ownership remain with the lessor, are charged in the profit and loss account on a straight line basis over the lease term.

Pensions

The company operates a defined contribution pension scheme. Contributions are charged in the profit and loss account as they become payable in accordance with the rules of the scheme.

Financial instruments

Financial instruments are classified and accounted for, according to the substance of the contractual arrangement as financial assets, financial liabilities or equity instruments. An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the company after deducting all of its liabilities. Financial assets and financial liabilities are recorded on the company's balance sheet when the company has become a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument and derecognised when this is no longer the case.

Capital instruments

Shares are included in shareholders' funds. Other instruments are classified as liabilities if they contain an obligation to transfer economic benefits and if not they are included in shareholders' funds. The finance cost recognised in the profit and loss account in respect of capital instruments other than equity shares is allocated to periods over the term of the instrument at a constant rate on the carrying amount.

Cash flow statement

The company has taken advantage of the exemption under Financial Reporting Standard No. 1 (revised 1996) not to publish a cash flow statement as it is a wholly owned subsidiary of Impellam Group plc, which has prepared consolidated financial statements which are publicly available.

Vacant property

When a property substantially ceases to be used for the purposes of the business, provision is made to the extent that the recoverable amount of the interest in the property is expected to be insufficient to cover the future obligations relating to the lease.

Consolidation

The company is exempt under Section 228 of The Companies Act 1985 from the requirement to prepare group accounts because it is a wholly owned subsidiary of Impellam Group plc which prepares consolidated accounts which are publicly available. Accordingly, these accounts are those of the company and not of its group.

Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events; it is more likely than not that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation; and the amount has been reliably estimated.

If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a borrowing cost.

Exceptional costs relate to various provisions set up as a result of the purchase of The Corporate Services Group plc by Impellam Group plc. These provisions mainly relate to property provisions on empty office and branch space following the re-organisation within the enlarged group. There is also an element of provision for redundancy costs coming from the merger of branches and the consolidation of back office workers.

Seven of these directors were members of money purchase schemes in 2008 (2007: six). The directors do not believe that it is practicable to apportion this amount between services as directors to the company and services as directors of the ultimate parent company and of fellow subsidiary companies.

During the year no directors (2007: nil) exercised options over shares in the ultimate parent company during their tenure.

| The effective current tax rate on the loss on ordinary activities before tax can be reconciled to the standard rate of corporation tax (taken to be the standard rate of corporation tax in the UK) as follows: |                  |               |
|   | 2008%        | 2007%     |

| Timing differences:   |                  |               |
| Capital allowances in excess of depreciation and similar charges  | (434.6)          | (22.1)        |
| Effective current tax rate  | (1,175.0) | (2.9)  |

The standard rate of Corporation Tax in the UK changed from 30% to 28% with effect from 1 April 2008. Accordingly, the company's profits for this accounting period are taxed at an effective rate of 28.5% and will be taxed at the standard rate in the future.

The effective current and total tax rates in 2007 are lower than standard primarily because of current year tax losses not utilised and for which no deferred tax asset had previously been recognised.

The timing differences that are carried forward may reduce future tax charges when they are utilised or reversed.

UK legislation requiring, in broad terms, that transactions between most connected parties be at an arm's length price for tax purposes (commonly known as 'transfer pricing'). As a result, this company has become taxable on deemed net interest receivable that has not been recognised in the accounts.

The company's ultimate parent undertaking has previously surrendered £100,000 of advance corporation tax ('ACT') to this company for no consideration. This ACT may be used to reduce future tax charges, subject to various restrictions.
