2. Liability of members

The liability of the members is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares held by them.

PART 2

DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

11

3. Directors' general authority

Subject to the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the Company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the Company.

4. Shareholders' reserve power

- a The shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.
- b No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

5. Directors may delegate

- a Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles—
 - 1 to such person or committee,

- ii by such means (including by power of attorney),
- iii to such an extent,
- iv in relation to such matters or territories, and
- v on such terms and conditions, as they think fit

- b If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated
- c The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions

6. Committees

- a Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors
- b The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

7. Directors to take decisions collectively

- a The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with article 8
- b If—
 - i the Company only has one director, and
 - ii no provision of the articles requires it to have more than one director, the general rule does not apply, and the director may take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the articles relating to directors' decision-making

8. Unanimous decisions

- a A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter

- b Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible director or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing
- c References in this article to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting
- d A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting

9. Calling a directors' meeting

- a Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) of the Company to give such notice
- b Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate—
 - i its proposed date and time,
 - ii where it is to take place, and
 - iii if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting
- c Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing
- d Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the Company not more than 7 days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it

10. Participation in directors' meetings

- a Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when—
 - i the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles, and
 - ii they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting
- b In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other
- c If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is

11. Quorum for directors' meetings

- a At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting
- b The quorum for directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors, but it must never be less than two, and unless otherwise fixed it is two
- c If the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision to —
 - i appoint further directors, or
 - ii call a general meeting so as to enable the shareholders to appoint further directors

12. Chairing of directors' meetings

- a The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings
- b The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman
- c The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time
- d If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it

13. Casting vote

- a If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote
- b But this does not apply if, in accordance with the articles, the chairman or other director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes

14. Conflicts of interest

- a If a proposed decision of the directors is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company in which a director is interested, that director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes
- b But if paragraph (c) applies, a director who is interested in an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company is to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum and voting purposes

- c This paragraph applies when—
 - i the Company by ordinary resolution disapplies the provision of the articles which would otherwise prevent a director from being counted as participating in the decision-making process,
 - ii the director's interest cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest, or
 - iii the director's conflict of interest arises from a permitted cause
- d For the purposes of this article, the following are permitted causes—
 - i a guarantee given, or to be given, by or to a director in respect of an obligation incurred by or on behalf of the Company or any of its subsidiaries,
 - ii subscription, or an agreement to subscribe, for shares or other securities of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, or to underwrite, sub-underwrite, or guarantee subscription for any such shares or securities, and
 - iii arrangements pursuant to which benefits are made available to employees and directors or former employees and directors of the Company or any of its subsidiaries which do not provide special benefits for directors or former directors
- e For the purposes of this article, references to proposed decisions and decision-making processes include any directors' meeting or part of a directors' meeting
- f Subject to paragraph (g), if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive
- g If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes

15. Records of decisions to be kept

The directors must ensure that the Company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors

16. Directors' discretion to make further rules

Subject to the articles, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

17. Methods of appointing directors

- a Any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director by —
 - i ordinary resolution, or
 - ii a decision of the directors
- b In any case where, as a result of death, the Company has no shareholders and no directors, the personal representatives of the last shareholder to have died have the right, by notice in writing, to appoint a person to be a director
- c For the purposes of paragraph (b), where 2 or more shareholders die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger shareholder is deemed to have survived an older shareholder

18. Termination of director's appointment

A person ceases to be a director as soon as—

- a that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006 or is prohibited from being a director by law,
- b a bankruptcy order is made against that person,
- c a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts,
- d a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the Company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months,
- e by reason of that person's mental health, a court makes an order which wholly or partly prevents that person from personally exercising any powers or rights which that person would otherwise have,
- f notification is received by the Company from the director that the director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms

19. Directors' remuneration

- a Directors may undertake any services for the Company that the directors decide
- b Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the directors determine—
 - i for their services to the Company as directors, and
 - ii for any other service which they undertake for the Company
- c Subject to the articles, a director's remuneration may—
 - i take any form, and
 - ii include any arrangements in connection with the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuity, or any death, sickness or disability benefits, to or in respect of that director
- d Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors' remuneration accrues from day to day
- e Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors are not accountable to the Company for any remuneration which they receive as directors or other officers or employees of the Company's subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the Company is interested

20. Directors' expenses

The Company may pay any reasonable expenses which the directors properly incur in connection with their attendance at—

- a meetings of directors or committees of directors,
- b general meetings, or
- c separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the Company, or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the Company

SHARES AND DISTRIBUTIONS

SHARES

21. All shares to be fully paid up

- b This does not apply to shares taken on the formation of the Company by the subscribers to the Company's memorandum

22. Powers to issue different classes of share

- a Subject to the articles, but without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing share, the Company may issue shares with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by special resolution.
- b The Company may issue shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the Company or the holder, and the directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such shares

23. Company not bound by less than absolute interests

Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the articles, the Company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it

24. Company's lien over shares

- a The Company has a lien over every share, whether or not fully paid, which is registered in the name of any person indebted or under any liability to the Company, whether he is the sole registered holder of the share or one of several joint holders, for all monies payable by him (either alone or jointly with any other person) to the Company, whether payable immediately or at some time in the future
- b The Company's lien over a share –
 - i takes priority over any third party's interest in that share, and
 - ii extends to any dividend or other money payable by the Company in respect of that share and (if the lien is enforced and share sold) to the proceeds of the sale of that share)
- c The directors may at any time decide that a share which is or would be subject to the Company's lien shall not be subject to it, either wholly or in part

25. Share certificates

- a The Company must issue each shareholder, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that shareholder holds
- b Every certificate must specify—
 - i in respect of how many shares, of what class, it is issued,
 - ii the nominal value of those shares,
 - iii that the shares are fully paid, and
 - iv any distinguishing numbers assigned to them
- c No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class

- d If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it
- e Certificates must—
 - i have affixed to them the Company's common seal, or
 - ii be otherwise executed in accordance with the Companies Acts.

26. Replacement share certificates

- a If a certificate issued in respect of a shareholder's shares is—
 - i damaged or defaced, or
 - ii said to be lost, stolen or destroyed, that shareholder is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same shares
- b A shareholder exercising the right to be issued with such a replacement certificate—
 - i may at the same time exercise the right to be issued with a single certificate or separate certificates,
 - ii must return the certificate which is to be replaced to the Company if it is damaged or defaced, and
 - iii must comply with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of a reasonable fee as the directors decide

27. Share transfers

- a Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor
- b No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share
- c The Company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered
- d The transferor remains the holder of a share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as holder of it
- e The directors may refuse to register the transfer of a share, and if they do so, the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee with the notice of refusal unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent

28. Transmission of shares

- a If title to a share passes to a transmittee, the Company may only recognise the transmittee as having any title to that share
- b A transmittee who produces such evidence of entitlement to shares as the directors may properly require—

- 1 may, subject to the articles, choose either to become the holder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person, and
- 11 subject to the articles, and pending any transfer of the shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had
- c But transmittes do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of shares to which they are entitled, by reason of the holder's death or bankruptcy or otherwise, unless they become the holders of those shares

29. Exercise of transmittes' rights

- a Transmittes who wish to become the holders of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the Company in writing of that wish
- b If the transmittes wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmittes must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it
- c Any transfer made or executed under this article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmittes has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred

30. Transmittes bound by prior notices

If a notice is given to a shareholder in respect of shares and a transmittes is entitled to those shares, the transmittes is bound by the notice if it was given to the shareholder before the transmittes's name has been entered in the register of members

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

31. Procedure for declaring dividends

- a The Company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends
- b A dividend must not be declared unless the directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors
- c No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with shareholders' respective rights
- d Unless the shareholders' resolution to declare or directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each shareholder's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it.

- e If the Company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrear
- f The directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment
- g If the directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights

32. Payment of dividends and other distributions

- a Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means—
 - i transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide,
 - ii sending a cheque made payable to the distribution recipient by post to the distribution recipient at the distribution recipient's registered address (if the distribution recipient is a holder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide,
 - iii sending a cheque made payable to such person by post to such person at such address as the distribution recipient has specified either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide, or
 - iv any other means of payment as the directors agree with the distribution recipient either in writing or by such other means as the directors decide
- b In the articles, "the distribution recipient" means, in respect of a share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable—
 - i the holder of the share, or
 - ii if the share has two or more joint holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members, or
 - iii if the holder is no longer entitled to the share by reason of death or bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, the transmittee

33. No interest on distributions

The Company may not pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share unless otherwise provided by—

- a the terms on which the share was issued, or

- b the provisions of another agreement between the holder of that share and the Company

34. Unclaimed distributions

- a All dividends or other sums which are—
 - i payable in respect of shares, and
 - ii unclaimed after having been declared or become payable,may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed
- b The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the Company a trustee in respect of it
- c If—
 - i twelve years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment, and
 - ii the distribution recipient has not claimed it,the distribution recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the Company

35. Non-cash distributions

- a Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the Company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company)
- b For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution—
 - i fixing the value of any assets,
 - ii paying cash to any distribution recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients, and
 - iii vesting any assets in trustees

36. Waiver of distributions

Distribution recipients may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by giving the Company notice in writing to that effect, but if—

- a the share has more than one holder, or

- b more than one person is entitled to the share, whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise, the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

37. Authority to capitalise and appropriation of capitalised sums

- a Subject to the articles, the directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution—
 - i decide to capitalise any profits of the Company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of the Company's share premium account or capital redemption reserve, and
 - ii appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a "capitalised sum") to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the "persons entitled") and in the same proportions
- b Capitalised sums must be applied—
 - i on behalf of the persons entitled, and
 - ii in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them
- c Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct
- d A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied in paying up new debentures of the Company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct
- e Subject to the articles the directors may—
 - i apply capitalised sums in accordance with paragraphs (c) and (d) partly in one way and partly in another,
 - ii make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions under this article (including the issuing of fractional certificates or the making of cash payments), and
 - iii authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the Company on behalf of all the persons entitled which is binding on them in respect of the allotment of shares and debentures to them under this article

DECISION-MAKING BY SHAREHOLDERS
ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

38. Attendance and speaking at general meetings

- a A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting
- b A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when—
 - i that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting, and
 - ii that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting
- c The directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it
- d In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other
- e Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them

39. Quorum for general meetings

No business other than the appointment of the chairman of the meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum. One member present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum at a general meeting.

40. Chairing general meetings

- a If the directors have appointed a chairman, the chairman shall chair general meetings if present and willing to do so
- b If the directors have not appointed a chairman, or if the chairman is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not present within ten minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start—
 - i the directors present, or
 - ii (if no directors are present), the meeting, must appoint a director or shareholder to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the chairman of the meeting must be the first business of the meeting

- c The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this article is referred to as "the chairman of the meeting"

41. Attendance and speaking by directors and non-shareholders

- a Directors may attend and speak at general meetings, whether or not they are shareholders
