DIRECTORS

12. The Company may by ordinary resolution appoint a person who is willing to act to be a Director either to fill a vacancy or as an additional Director.
13. The Directors may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a Director, either to fill a vacancy or as an additional Director, provided that the appointment does not cause the number of Directors to exceed any number fixed by or in accordance with the Articles as the maximum number of Directors.
14. The office of a Director shall be vacated:
 - (a) if he becomes bankrupt or apparently insolvent or suspends payment or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors

16. Regulation 72 of Table A is hereby modified by the addition at the end thereof of the following sentence:

Provided that a Director declares his interest in any contract, transaction or arrangement or any proposed contract, transaction or arrangement in the manner provided by the Act and Table A, he may be counted in the quorum at any meeting of Directors at which the same is considered and may vote as a Director in respect thereof or in respect of any matter arising therefrom. Any such person shall not be a Director for any of the purposes of the Act or these Articles and shall not have any of the powers of, or be subject to any of the duties of, a Director, save insofar as they are delegated or granted to him by the Directors. A person bearing such title as aforesaid shall not be entitled to receive notice of or to attend any meeting of the Directors unless invited to do so by the Directors, nor shall he be entitled to vote on any resolution proposed at a meeting of the Directors. The use of a title including the word "Director" by any person other than a Director shall not by itself form a term or condition of office or employment unless agreed between such person and the Company and failing any such agreement the right to use such title may be withdrawn at any time. The titles which may be conferred by the Directors under this Article shall include, without limitation, the title of "Deputy Director", "Assistant Director", "Special Director" and "Associate Director".

21. Any Director or member of a committee of Directors may participate in a meeting of the Directors or such committee by means of video-conferencing, conference telephone or similar communications equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear and speak to each other and participation in a meeting in this manner shall be deemed to constitute presence in person at such meeting.

INDEMNITY

22. Every Director or officer of the Company shall be entitled to be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against all losses or liabilities which he may sustain or incur in or about the execution or discharge of the duties of his office or otherwise in relation thereto, including any liability incurred by him in defending any proceedings whether civil or criminal in which judgment is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in which the charge is found not proven or in connection with any application under Section 727 of the Act in which relief is granted to him by the Court from liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the Company and no Director or other officer shall be liable for any loss, damage or misfortune which may happen to be incurred by the Company in the execution or discharge of the duties of his office or in relation thereto. Any such appointment or removal shall be in writing served on the Company and signed on behalf of the Majority Shareholder by any one of its directors or by its secretary or by some other person duly authorised for the purpose and shall take effect upon lodgement at the registered office of the Company.
