REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS OF AMSCORDI LIMITED FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 OCTOBER 1996

The directors submit their report together with the accounts for the year ended 31 October 1997. This report is prepared in accordance with the Charities Act 1993 and the Statement Of Recommended Practice "Accounting for Charities" issued by the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales in October 1995 and approved by The Accounting Standards Board.

Directors Responsibilities

Company law requires us as directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the surplus or deficit of the Company for that period. In preparing these accounts, we are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Follow approved accounting standards subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- Prepare the accounts on the going concern basis, unless it is inappropriate to presume the Company will continue in business.

We are also responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and enable us to ensure that the financial statements comply with applicable legislation which include the provisions of the Companies Act 1985. We are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and the detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Objects and General Information About The Charity

Amscordi Limited was incorporated on 9 September 1975. The Charity Registration Number is 270204 and the Company Registration Number is 1226660.

The objects of the Charity as set out in the Memorandum Of Association are to educate the public in the arts and specifically music, by providing classes and tuition for young musicians and accommodation in connection therewith; to offer scholarships and grants to students and to charge fees; to co-operate with other organisations in these aims, accepting donations and subscriptions from bodies and individuals.

The company runs two major seminars per annum and arranges various concerts each year for the public and for The Friends of IMS organisation.

The Charity is managed through its' Board of Directors with such additional assistance as the Board sees fit to invite.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS OF AMSCORDI LIMITED FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 OCTOBER 1997

Review Of The Year

During the year the Charity's expenditure on its charitable objects was £181,961 (1996: £176,891). The charity made no grants to third parties during the year.

The Charity's total income for the year was £174,812 (1996 £269,135). The receipts from the two main residential seminars fell by £3,052 due to a decision to invite more non paying guests to the Open Chamber Music seminar. Income from concerts for the year amounted to £16,941 (1996 -£11,625). The Charity increased this income as a result of running more concerts. The Friends of IMS contributed £16,000 (1996 £5,000) in additional income from ticket sales at various concerts and appeals run on behalf of the Charity. This has now been separately identified within the accounts for both 1996 and 1997. Donations were received totalling £60,979 (1996: £168,667) which was £107,688 less than in the comparative year. The significant reduction seen in the two figures was affected greatly by the donation of £88,800 for the purchase of pianos in the year ended 30 October 1996. Administrative and Charitable expenditure taken together increased marginally as indicated above, however the Company kept overheads under control by running its administrative operations from the home of two of the directors rent free, and has reduced its wage costs.

The audited accounts for the year ended 31 October 1997 are shown on pages 5 to 13. The Statement Of Financial activities on page 5 shows the incoming resources available to the Charity to the extent of which the funds have been spent. This, together with the Balance Sheet on page 7 shows the current market value of the Charity's unrestricted funds, is £10,065 (1996: £8,376) from which it will generate income to meet its future obligations and activities. The Charity held £8,045 (1996 - £22,067) in net bank balances at 31 October 1997 and in Directors' opinion the unrestricted funds continue to be sufficient to pursue their charitable activities in the future.

Date July 1998

REPORT OF THE AUDITORS TO THE DIRECTORS OF AMSCORDI LIMITED

We have audited the financial statements on page 5 to 13 which have been prepared under the historical cost convention and the accounting policies set out on page 8.

Respective Responsibilities Of Directors and Auditors

As described on page 1, the Company's Directors are responsible for the preparation of financial statements. It is our responsibility to form an independent opinion based on our audit, on those statements and to report our opinion to you.

Basis Of Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Auditing Standards issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes an examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the Company's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed. We have been appointed as Auditors under Section 43 of the Charities Act 1993 and report in accordance with regulations made under Section 44 of that Act.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatements, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion, we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the Company's affairs as at 31 October 1997 and of its loss for the year ended and have been properly prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act 1985 applicable to small companies. The financial statements also give a true and fair view of the Charity's incoming resources and application of resources in the year then ended and have been properly prepared in accordance with the Charities Act 1993.

1. Accounting Policies

The principal accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the Financial Statements are set out below and have remained unchanged from the previous year, and have consistently applied within the same accounts.

Cash Flow Statement

The company qualifies as a small company and advantage has therefore been taken of the exemption provided by financial reporting Standard No 1 not to prepare a Cash Flow Statement.

Basis Of Preparation Of Financial Statements

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

The effect of events in relation to the year ended 31 October 1997 which occurred before the date of approval of the financial statement by the Board of Directors, have been included in the statements to the extent required to show a true and fair state of affairs at 31 October 1997 and of the results for the year ended on that date.

Depreciation

Depreciation has been computed to write off the cost of tangible fixed assets over their expected useful lives using the following rates:

Pianos

-10% per annum on cost

Furniture and Equipment

-10% per annum on cost

Music Library

-15% per annum on cost

Bed Linen

-20% per armum on cost

Leasing

Tangible fixed assets acquired under finance leases or hire purchase contracts are capitalised and depreciated in the same manner as other tangible fixed assets. The related obligations, net of future finance charges are included in creditors.

Rentals payable under operating leases are charged to the profit and loss account on a straight line basis over the period of the lease.

2. Turnover and Other Operating Income

The company's turnover represents the value of goods and services supplied to those attending seminars and concerts during the year.

Other operating income includes non trading receipts including donations and covenant income which have been grossed up by the value of related tax credits where these are applicable at present.
