I have had a word with the Land Registry at Nottingham where I filed our UN2 application. She has checked the file and your application last Friday is being processed but the entry will not be removed without notifying the Beneficiary.

However, I pointed out that the UN2 filed by me is signed by the beneficiary which should deal with the issue. Nottingham have promised to speak to Birkenhead and send over the UN2 as they are dealing with the process and hopefully they may be able to sort it out tomorrow.

I think it would be a good idea if you also telephoned Birkenhead tomorrow to explain the situation at your end, particularly as Nottingham did not have the full details of the application that you filed last week.

Kind regards

With regard to clause 11 of the undertakings can you confirm that we only need to give notice to those tenants whose leases have been registered. I cannot imagine there is any need to inform a short term tenant of the charge in favour of the bank.
