CHESHIRE PHILATELIC AUCTIONS LIMITED

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

The directors present their report together with financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2001.

Principal activities

The company did not trade during the year. There has been no income and expenditure and no change has arisen in the position of the company.

Directors

The present membership of the Board is set out below. Both directors served throughout the year.

R D Craig
V A Green

The directors had no interest in the shares of the company.

Both Mr R D Craig and Mr V A Green are directors of the parent company. Their interests in that company's share capital are disclosed in the parent company's financial statements.

Directors' responsibilities for the financial statements

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to :

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently ;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records, for safeguarding the assets of the company and for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Small company exemption

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 relating to small companies.

ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD
