(F) To establish and conduct on a permanent or a temporary basis clinics, outpatients' departments, surgeries, dispensaries and convalescent homes.

(G) To engage and pay such doctors, surgeons, nursing or domestic staff, lecturers, chaplains, physiotherapists, occupational therapists, radiologists, dieticians, dentists, chiropodists, pharmacists, social workers and others whom the Association may think fit for the promotion of its objects

(H) To make such regulations as to the admission of persons to any hospital, home, clinic or out-patients' department established by or conducted under the direction of the Association as aforesaid, and as to the residence of any persons in any such home as aforesaid as the Association may think fit, and so that such regulations may provide, either generally or in any particular case or cases for such admission or residence to be either free of charge or subject to such payment as the Association may think fit

(I) To provide or arrange for such medical or other attention as the Association may think fit for patients in any such Hospital, home, clinic or out-patients' department as aforesaid or for patients in their own homes

(J) To provide such medical supplies, equipment and apparatus, drugs, amenities, comforts and other things conducive to the material or spiritual welfare of any persons resident or working in or attending any such Hospital, home, clinic or out-patients' department as aforesaid or any persons being treated or attending in their own homes as the Association may think fit

(K) To provide or arrange for a building or premises to be used by the Association as a church or chapel available for Christian worship

(L) To establish and conduct schools, training colleges and other places of learning and laboratories and other research establishments

(M) To arrange lectures and conduct training courses and to publish pamphlets books, journals and other publications relating to the work of the Association

(N) To conduct appeals for money or other gifts or for any other assistance for any of the purposes of the Association, and to solicit and accept subscriptions and donations (whether of real or personal property) and devises and bequests for any of the purposes of the Association

(O) To grant pensions and retirement benefits to or for employees or former employees and to the widows children and other dependants of deceased employees (who are in necessitous circumstances) and to pay or subscribe to funds or schemes for the provision of pensions and retirement benefits for employees and former employees their widows children and other dependants

(P) To sell, let, mortgage, dispose of or turn to account all or any of the property or assets of the Association as may be thought expedient with a view to the promotion of its objects

(Q) To undertake and execute any charitable trusts which may lawfully be undertaken by the Association and which will further the objects of the Association

(R) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Association on such terms and on such security as may be thought fit

(S) (i) To set aside funds for special purposes or as reserves against future expenditure

(ii) To deposit or invest funds in any manner (but to invest only after obtaining advice from a Financial Expert and having regard to the suitability of investments and the need for diversification) provided that the Association shall have power to retain any investments donated to it

(iii) To delegate the management of investments to a Financial Expert, but only on terms that -

(a) the investment policy is set down in writing for the Financial Expert by the members of the Board of Trustees,

(b) every transaction is reported promptly to the members of the Board of Trustees,

(c) the performance of the investments is reviewed regularly with the members of the Board of Trustees,

(d) the members of the Board of Trustees are entitled to cancel the delegation arrangement at any time,

(e) the investment policy and the delegation arrangement are reviewed at least once a year,

(f) all payments due to the Financial Expert are on a scale or at a level which is agreed in advance and are notified promptly to the members of the Board of Trustees on receipt, and

(g) the Financial Expert must not do anything outside the powers of the members of the Board of Trustees

(iv) To arrange for investments or other property of the Association to be held in the name of a nominee (being a corporate body registered or having an established place of business in England and Wales) under the control of the members of the Board of Trustees or of a Financial Expert acting under their instructions and to pay any reasonable fee required

(T) To establish and support or aid in establishment and support of any charitable associations or institutions and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable purposes in any way connected with or calculated to further any of the objects of the Association

(U) To administer or act as almoner of any funds specially contributed by way of donation, subscription, grant or legacy for the purpose of instituting, improving or extending facilities of the establishment or establishments operated by the Association or of facilitating the attendance of sick persons thereat

(V) To insure the property of the Association against any foreseeable risk and take out other insurance policies to protect the Association when required

(W) To insure the members of the Board of Trustees against the costs of a successful defence to a criminal prosecution brought against them as charity members of the Board of Trustees or against personal liability incurred in respect of any act or omission which is or is alleged to be a breach of trust or breach of duty, unless the Trustee concerned knew that, or was reckless whether, the act or omission was a breach of trust or breach of duty

(X) To do all such other things as are necessary for the attainment of the objects of the Association or any of them

Provided that -

(i) In case the Association shall take or hold any property which may be subject to any trusts, the Association shall only deal with or invest the same in such manner as allowed by law, having regard to such trusts

(ii) The Association's objects shall not extend to the regulations of workers and employers or organisations of workers and organisations of employers

(iii) In case the Association shall take or hold any property subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, the Association shall not sell, mortgage, charge or lease the same without such authority, approval or consent as may be required by law, and as regards any such property the Board of Trustees or Governing Body of the Association shall be chargeable for any such property that may come into their hands and shall be answerable and accountable for their own acts, receipts, neglects and defaults, and for the due administration of such property in the same manner and to the same extent as they would as such Board of Trustees or Governing Body have been if no incorporation had been effected, and the incorporation of the Association shall not diminish or impair any control or, authority exercisable by the Commission over such Board of Trustees or Governing Body but they shall as regards any such property be subject jointly and separately to such control or authority as if the Association were not incorporated

(A) The property and funds of the Association must be used only for promoting the objects and do not belong to the members of the Association but provided (in the case of members of the Board of Trustees) that Article 4(D) is complied with -

(i) members who are not members of the Board of Trustees may be employed by or enter into contracts with the Association and receive reasonable payment for goods or services supplied, and

(ii) members (including members of the Board of Trustees and Connected Persons) may be paid interest at a reasonable rate on money lent to the Association,

(iii) members (including members of the Board of Trustees and Connected Persons) may be paid a reasonable rent or hiring fee for property let or hired to the Association;

(iv) individual members (including members of the Board of Trustees and Connected Persons) but who are beneficiaries may receive charitable benefits in that capacity.

(B) A Trustee must not receive any payment of money or other material benefit (whether directly or indirectly) from the Association except -

(i) as mentioned in Articles 3(W), 4(A)(ii) or 4(A)(iii) or 4(C)

(ii) as reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including hotel and travel costs) actually incurred in running the Association,

(iii) as an indemnity in respect of any liabilities properly incurred in running the Association (including the costs of a successful defence to criminal proceedings),

(iv) as payment to any company in which members of the Board of Trustees or a Connected Person have no more than a 1 per cent shareholding, or

(v) in exceptional cases, other payments or benefits (but only with the written approval of the Commission in advance and subject where required by the Act, to the approval or affirmation of the members)

(C) No member of the Board of Trustees or Connected Person may be employed by the Association except in accordance with Article 4 (B) (v), but any Trustee or Connected

Person may enter into a written contract with the Association (stating the maximum to be paid) to supply services (and goods in connection therewith) in return for a payment or other material benefit but only if -

- (i) the services (and goods) are actually required by the Association, and the members of the Board of Trustees decide that it is in the best interests of the Association to enter into such a contract,
- (ii) the nature and level of the remuneration is no more than is reasonable in relation to the value of the goods or services and is set in accordance with the procedure in Article 4(D), and
- (iii) no more than a minority of the members of the Board of Trustees are subject to such a contract at any time

(D) Subject to Article 4(E) any member of the Board of Trustees who becomes a Conflicted Trustee in relation to any matter must.-

- (i) declare the nature and extent of his or her interest at or before discussion begins on the matter,
- (ii) withdraw from the meeting for that item after providing any information requested by the members of the Board of Trustees,
- (iii) not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting, and
- (iv) be absent during the vote and have no vote on the matter

(E) When any member of the Board of Trustees is a Conflicted Trustee, the Trustees who are not Conflicted Trustees, if they form a quorum without counting the Conflicted Trustee and are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the Association to do so, may by resolution passed in the absence of the Conflicted Trustee authorise the Conflicted Trustee, notwithstanding any conflict of interest or duty which has arisen or may arise for the Conflicted Trustee -

- (i) except in circumstances which involve the receipt by the Conflicted Trustee or a Connected Person of any payment or material benefit, to continue to participate in discussions leading to the making of a decision, but to be absent during the vote and have no vote on the matter, or
- (ii) to disclose information confidential to the Association to a third party, or
- (iii) to take any other action not otherwise authorised which does not involve the receipt by the Conflicted Trustee or a Connected Person of any payment or material benefit, or to refrain from taking any step required to remove the conflict

(F) A Conflicted Trustee who obtains (other than through his position as a member of the Board of Trustees) information that is confidential to a third party, shall not be in breach of his or her duties to the Association if he or she declares the conflict in accordance with Article 4(D) and then withholds such confidential information from the Association

(G) For any transaction or arrangement authorised under Articles 3(W), 4(A)(ii) to 4(A)iv, 4(B) and 4(C), the member of the Board of Trustees' duty under the Act to avoid a conflict of interest with the Association shall be disapplied provided the relevant provisions of Article 4(D) have been followed

(H) This Article may not be amended without the prior written consent of the Commission

MEMBERSHIP

5 The number of members with which the Association proposes to be registered is fifteen

6 The Association must maintain a register of members

7 The members of the Association shall be the members of the Board of Trustees

8 Every member recognises the fact that Dorothy House was founded in accordance with the tenets of the Christian faith Every member is required to accept that Dorothy House will continue, at all times, to operate in conformity with the Christian principles of care that led to its foundation

(B) dies,

(C) is 6 months in arrears in paying the relevant subscription (if any) (but in such a case the member may be reinstated on payment of the amount due),

(D) is removed from membership by resolution of the Board of Trustees on the ground that in their reasonable opinion the member's continued membership is harmful to the Association (but only after notifying the member in writing and considering the matter in the light of any written representations which the member concerned puts forward within 14 clear days after receiving notice), or

(E) ceases to be a member of the Board of Trustees

11 Membership of the Association is not transferable

12 Every member of the Association shall either sign a written consent to become a member or sign the register of members on becoming a member

LIMITED LIABILITY

13 The liability of the members is limited

GUARANTEE

14 Every member of the Association undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Association, in the event of the same being wound up while he is a member, or within one year after he ceases to be a member, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Association contracted before he ceases to be a member, and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, such amount as may be required not exceeding £1

GENERAL MEETINGS

15 The Association shall hold a General Meeting in every calendar year as its Annual General Meeting at such time and place as may be determined by the Board of Trustees and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it, provided that every Annual General Meeting except the first shall be held not more than fifteen months after the holding of the last preceding Annual General Meeting and that so long as the Association holds its first Annual General Meeting within eighteen months after its incorporation it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year

16 All General Meetings other than Annual General Meetings shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings

17 The Board of Trustees may whenever they think fit convene an Extraordinary General Meeting and Extraordinary General Meetings must be called on a request from the requisite number of members in accordance with the Act

18 Twenty-one days' notice in writing at the least of every Annual General Meeting and of every meeting convened to pass a Special Resolution and fourteen days' notice in writing at the least of every other General Meeting (exclusive in every case both of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given) specifying the place, the day and the hour of meeting, notifying members of their right to appoint a proxy, and in the case of special business the general nature of that business shall be given in manner hereinafter mentioned to such persons (including the Auditors) as are under these presents or under the Act entitled to receive such notices from the Association but with the consent of all the members having the right to attend and vote thereat or of such proportion of them as is prescribed by the Act in the case of meetings

other than Annual General Meetings, a meeting may be convened by such notice as those members may think fit

19. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of such notice by, any person entitled to receive notice thereof shall not invalidate any resolution passed, or proceeding had, at any meeting,

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

20 All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting, and all that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting shall also be deemed special, with the exception of the consideration of the income and expenditure account and balance sheet, and the reports of the Board of Trustees and of the Auditors, the election of members of the Board of Trustees in the place of those retiring and the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of the Auditors

21 No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. Save as herein otherwise provided five members personally present shall be a quorum.

22 If within half an hour from the time appointed for the holding of a General Meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or at such other place as the Board of Trustees may determine and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting the members present shall be a quorum

23 The Chairman (if any) of the Board of Trustees shall preside as Chairman at every General Meeting, but if there be no such Chairman, or if at any meeting he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the same or shall be unwilling to preside the members present shall choose some member of the Board of Trustees or if no such member be present, or if all the members of the Board of Trustees present decline to take the chair, they shall choose some member of the Association who shall be present to preside

24 The Chairman, may with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, the members shall not be entitled to any notice of an adjournment, or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting

25 At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is, before or upon the declaration of the result of the show of hands, demanded by the Chairman or by at least three members present in person or by proxy or by a member or members present in person or by proxy and representing one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting and unless a poll be so demanded a declaration by the Chairman of the meeting that a resolution has been carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Association shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against that resolution. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

26, Subject to the provisions of Article 27, if a poll be demanded in manner aforesaid, it shall be taken at such time and place and in such manner as the Chairman of the meeting shall direct and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

27 No poll shall be demanded on the election of Chairman of a meeting or on any question of adjournment.

28 In the case of an equality of votes whether on a show of hands or on a poll the Chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

29 The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

30 Subject as hereinafter provided, every member shall have one vote.

31 No member other than a member duly registered who shall have paid every subscription and other sum (if any) which shall be due and payable to the Association in respect of his membership shall be entitled to vote on any question either personally or by proxy or as a proxy for another member, at any General Meeting.

32 Votes may be given on a show of hands or a poll either personally or by proxy.

33 Any corporate or unincorporated organisation that is a member of the Association may nominate any person to act as its duly authorised representative at any meeting of the Association, provided that -

(A) the organisation must give written notice to the Association of the name of its representative. The nominee shall not be entitled to represent the organisation at any meeting unless the notice has been received by the Association. The nominee may continue to represent the organisation until written notice to the contrary is received by the Association;

(B) any notice given to the Association will be conclusive evidence that the nominee is entitled to represent the organisation or that his or her authority has been revoked. The Association shall not be required to consider whether the nominee has been properly appointed by the organisation,

(C) the duly authorised representative of an unincorporated organisation shall be entered in the register of members as the member, with the name of the unincorporated organisation which they represent noted next to them

34. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or his attorney duly authorised in writing or if such appointer is a corporation under its common seal, if any, and if none then under the hand of some officer duly authorised in that behalf

35. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed or a notarially certified or office copy thereof shall be deposited at the office not less than forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote or in the case of a poll not less than twenty-four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid. No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of twelve months from the date of its execution

36. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, provided that no intimation in writing of the death, insanity or revocation as aforesaid shall have been received at the office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used

37. Any instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form as near thereto as circumstances will admit -

"THE DOROTHY HOUSE FOUNDATION LIMITED"

"I,

"a member of the above-named Association hereby

"appoint

"and failing him

"to vote for me and on my behalf at the (Annual or Extraordinary, or Adjourned, as the case may be) General Meeting of the Association to be held on the day of and at every adjournment thereof

"As witness my hand this

38 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

39 Until otherwise determined by a General Meeting the number of the members of the Board of Trustees shall not be less than five or more than fifteen

40 The Board of Trustees may from time to time and at any time appoint any member of the Association as a member of the Board of Trustees, either to fill a casual vacancy or by way of addition to the Board of Trustees, provided that the prescribed maximum be not thereby exceeded. Any member so appointed shall retain his office only until the next Annual General Meeting but he shall then be eligible for re-election

41 No person who is not a member of the Association shall in any circumstances be eligible to hold office as a member of the Board of Trustees

42 A member of the Board of Trustees must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Association or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the Association which has not previously been declared, and a member of the Board of Trustees must comply with the requirements of Article 4 (D)

POWERS OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

43 The business of the Association shall be managed by the Board of Trustees who may pay all such expenses of, and preliminary and incidental to, the promotion, formation, establishment and registration of the Association as they think fit and may exercise all such powers of the Association and do on behalf of the Association all such acts as may be exercised and done by the Association and as are not by statute or by these presents required to be exercised or done by the Association in General Meeting subject nevertheless to any regulations of these presents to the provisions of the statutes for the time being in force and affecting the Association and to such regulations being not inconsistent with the aforesaid regulations or provisions as may be prescribed by the Association in General Meeting but no regulation made by the Association in General Meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Council which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made

44 The members for the time being of the Board of Trustees may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, provided always that in case the members of the Board of Trustees shall at any time be or be reduced in number to less than the minimum number prescribed by or in accordance with these presents, it shall be lawful for them to act as the Board of Trustees for the purpose of admitting persons to membership of the Association, filling up vacancies in their body or of summoning a General Meeting but not for any other purpose

SECRETARY

45 The Board of Trustees shall appoint a Secretary (who may or may not also be a member of the Association or of the Board of Trustees) for such time at such remuneration (subject to the provisions of Article 4) and upon such conditions as they may think fit and any Secretary so appointed may be removed by them. The Board of Trustees may from time to time by resolution appoint (in like manner and subject as aforesaid) an assistant or deputy secretary and any person so appointed may act in place of the Secretary if there be no Secretary capable of acting

DISQUALIFICATION OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

46 The office of a member of the Board of Trustees shall be vacated if -

(A) he ceases to be a director of the Association by virtue of any provision in the Act or is prohibited by law from being a director or a charity trustee,

(B) he is incapable, whether mentally or physically, of managing his or her own affairs,

(C) he ceases to be a member of the Association,

(D) by notice in writing to the Association he resigns his office,

(E) he is removed by resolution passed by the members present and voting at a general meeting after the meeting has invited the views of the member of the Board of Trustees concerned and considered the matter in the light of any such views

ROTATION OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

47 At the first Annual General Meeting and at the Annual General Meeting to be held in every subsequent year, one third of the members of the Board of Trustees for the time being or if their number is not a multiple of three then the number nearest to one third shall retire from office

48. The members of the Board of Trustees to retire at each AGM shall be those longest in office (since their last election or appointment) and in the absence of agreement the choice between any of equal service being made by drawing lots.

49. A retiring member of the Board of Trustees shall be eligible for re-election for consecutive periods not exceeding in aggregate 9 years from the date of his or her original appointment but thereafter a member of the Board of Trustees shall not be eligible for re-appointment until one year after his or her retirement. In this Article a 'year' means the period between one AGM and the next

50 The Association may at the meeting at which a member of the Board of Trustees retires in manner aforesaid fill up the vacated office by electing a person thereto and in default the retiring member shall if offering himself for re-election be deemed to have been re-elected unless at such meeting it is expressly resolved not to fill such vacated office or unless a resolution for the re-election of such member shall have been put to the meeting and lost

51 No person not being a member of the Board of Trustees retiring at the meeting shall, unless recommended by the Board of Trustees for election be eligible for election to membership of the Board of Trustees at any General Meeting unless within the prescribed time before the day appointed for the meeting there shall have been given to the Secretary notice in writing by some member duly qualified to be present and vote at the meeting for which such notice is given of his intention to propose such person for election and also notice in writing signed by the person to be proposed of his willingness to be elected The prescribed time above mentioned shall be such that between the date when the notice is served or deemed to be served and the day appointed for the meeting there shall be not less than four nor more than twenty-eight intervening days

52 The Association may from time to time in General Meeting increase or reduce the number of members of the Board of Trustees and determine in what rotation such increased or reduced number shall go out of office and may make the appointments necessary for effecting any such increase

53 Where a member of the Board of Trustees is removed by the Association under Article 46 (E), the Association may by an Ordinary Resolution appoint another qualified member in his stead, but any person so appointed shall retain his office so long only as the member in whose place he is appointed would have held the same if he had not been removed

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

54 Subject as hereinafter provided the Board of Trustees may meet together for the despatch of business adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit and determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business Unless otherwise determined three shall be a quorum Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes In case of an equality of votes the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote Unless otherwise determined every meeting of the Board of Trustees shall be held at the office or at such other place in the United Kingdom as the Chairman (if any) for the time being of the Board of Trustees or (if there is no such Chairman) the Secretary shall direct

55 A meeting of the Board of Trustees may be held either in person or by suitable electronic means agreed by the Board of Trustees in which all participants may communicate with all the other participants

56 On the request of a member of the Board of Trustees the Secretary shall at any time summon a meeting of the Board of Trustees by notice (stating the time and place of such meeting) served upon the several members of the Board of Trustees. A member of the Board of Trustees who is absent from the United Kingdom shall not be entitled to notice of a meeting. Any accidental omission or defect in any such notice or any accidental failure to give such notice to any member of the Board of Trustees entitled thereto shall not invalidate any of the proceedings of such meeting so long as a quorum is present thereat.
