Subject as aforesaid, any word or expression to which a meaning is assigned by the Act has the meaning so assigned to it on the date on which these articles became binding on the Association.

MEMBERSHIP

- The number of members with which the Association proposes to be registered is 50 but the Council may from time to time register an increase of members.
- The members of the Association shall be every person who the Council shall admit to membership in accordance with the provisions of these articles.
- No person shall be admitted to membership of the Association unless he is at the date of his application a director of The Rank Foundation Limited. Any person applying to be admitted to the membership shall give all such information to the Council as the Council may in their absolute discretion think relevant to the consideration of such application, and any such application may be accepted or rejected by the Council at their absolute discretion.
- A member shall forthwith cease to be a member of the Association -
 - (a) if he resigns his membership by notice in writing to the Association;
 - (b) if he ceases to be eligible for membership in accordance with article 5; or
 - (c) if he dies, or a bankruptcy order is made against him, or he makes a voluntary arrangement with his creditors (within the meaning of the Insolvency Act 1986), or an order is made by a court of competent jurisdiction (whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) on the ground (however formulated) of mental disorder for his detention or for the appointment of a receiver or other person to exercise powers with respect to his property or affairs.
- 7 The rights and privileges of a member as such shall be personal and shall not be transferable or transmissible.

GENERAL MEETINGS

- All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.
- The Association shall in each year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting in addition to any other meeting in that year and not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting and that of the next. The annual general meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Council shall determine.
- The Council may call general meetings and, on the requisition of members pursuant to the provisions of the Act, shall forthwith proceed to convene an extraordinary general meeting for a date not later than eight weeks after receipt of the requisition. If there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient members of the Council to call a general meeting, any member of the Council or any member of the Association may call a general meeting.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

- An annual general meeting and an extraordinary general meeting for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by at least twenty-one clear days' notice. All other extraordinary general meetings shall be called by at least fourteen clear days' notice but a general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed -
 - (a) in the case of an annual general meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote at that meeting; and
 - (b) in the case of any other meeting by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote being a majority together holding not less than ninety-five per cent of the total voting rights at the meeting of all the members.

The notice shall specify the time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted and, in the case of an annual general meeting, shall specify the meeting as such. Every notice shall be given, in the manner provided in these articles, to all the members, all members of the Council and to the auditors for the time being of the Association.

The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

All business transacted at an extraordinary general meeting shall be special. All business transacted at an annual general meeting shall also be special, except -

- (i) the consideration of the income and expenditure accounts, balance sheets and reports of the Council and auditors and other documents required to be attached or annexed to the balance sheets;
- (ii) the election of members of the Council in the place of those retiring; and
- (iii) the appointment and the fixing of the remuneration of the auditors.
- No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present. Except as otherwise provided in these articles, three members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum.
- If such a quorum is not present within thirty minutes from the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting such a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of or by members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Council may determine, and, if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the meeting shall be a quorum, but so that not less than two individuals shall constitute the quorum.
- The chairman of the meeting may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall, if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place.
- When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, at least seven clear days' notice specifying the place, the day and the time of the adjourned meeting shall be given, but it shall not be necessary to specify in such notice the nature of the business to be transacted at the adjourned meeting. Save as aforesaid, no member shall be entitled to any notice of an adjourned meeting. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- The chairman (if any) of the Council or, in his absence, some other member of the Council nominated by the Council shall preside as chairman at every general meeting but if at any meeting the Chairman is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members of the Council present shall elect one of their number to be chairman or, if no member of the Council is willing to act as chairman, or if no member of the Council is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members of the Association present shall choose one of their number to be chairman.
- A member of the Council shall, notwithstanding that he is not a member of the Association, be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting.

- A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before, or upon the declaration of the result of, the show of hands, a poll is demanded -
 - (i) by the chairman of the meeting; or
 - (ii) by at least two members present having the right to vote at the meeting; or
 - (iii) by a member or members representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting.

and a demand by a person as proxy for a member shall be the same as a demand by the member.

- No poll shall be demanded on the election of a chairman of the meeting or on the question of adjournment.
- Subject to the provisions of article 21, a poll demanded shall be taken either immediately or at such time (not being more than thirty days from the date of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the poll was demanded) and place as the chairman of the meeting directs, and no notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately. A poll shall be taken in such manner (including the use of ballot or voting papers) as the chairman of the meeting directs. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- A declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has been carried, carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of proceedings of the Association shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.
- A resolution in writing executed by or on behalf of each member of the Association who would have been entitled to vote upon it if it had been proposed at a general meeting at which he was present shall be as effectual as if it had been passed at a general meeting duly convened and held and may consist of several instruments in the like form each executed by or on behalf of one or more members.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

- On a show of hands every member present in person shall have one vote and on a poll every member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote.
- No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
- On a poll, votes may be given either in person or by proxy.
- A proxy must be a member of the Association.
- The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing in any usual form or such other form as may be approved by the Council, and shall be under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing. Instruments of proxy need not be witnessed.
- The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed, or a certified copy of such power or authority certified notarially or in some other way approved by the Council, shall be deposited, not less than forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, at the office or at such other place in the United Kingdom as is specified for the purpose in the notice convening the meeting or in the instrument of proxy issued by the Association and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.
- A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death of the principal or revocation of the proxy, provided that no intimation in writing of the death or revocation shall have been received at the office one hour at least before the time fixed for holding the meeting.
- The Council may, at the expense of the Association, send by post or otherwise to the members instruments of proxy (with or without stamped envelopes for their return) for use at any general meeting either in blank or nominating any one or more of the elected members of the Council or any other persons in the alternative. If, for the purpose of any meeting, invitations to appoint as proxy a person or one of a number of persons specified in the invitations are issued at the expense of the Association, such invitations shall be issued to all (and not to some only) of the members entitled to be sent a notice of the meeting and to vote thereat by proxy.

THE COUNCIL

Unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution the number of members of the Council (other than alternates) shall not be subject to any maximum but shall be not less than three. A member of the Council need not be a member of the Association.

- The Rank Foundation Limited may from time to time, by an instrument in writing signed on its behalf and delivered to the office, appoint such number of persons willing to act as members of the Council as shall form a simple majority of the aggregate number of members of the Council; and The Rank Foundation Limited may remove any such person appointed by it from office Provided that the total number of members of the Council does not exceed the maximum number (if any) fixed by these articles.

- At every annual general meeting after the adoption of these articles all the members of the Council shall retire from office. A retiring member of the Council shall be eligible for reappointment.
- If the Association, at the meeting at which a member of the Council retires, does not fill the vacancy the retiring member of the Council shall, if willing to act, be deemed to have been reappointed unless at the meeting it is resolved not to fill the vacancy or unless a resolution for the reappointment of the member of the Council is put to the meeting and lost.
- No person other than a member of the Council retiring at that meeting shall be appointed or reappointed a member of the Council at any general meeting unless -
 - (a) he is recommended by the Council; or
 - (b) not less than fourteen nor more than thirty-five clear days before the date appointed for the meeting, notice executed by a member of the Association qualified to vote at the meeting has been given to the Association of the intention to propose that person for appointment or reappointment stating the particulars which would, if he were so appointed or reappointed, be required to be included in the company's register of directors together with notice executed by that person of his willingness to be appointed or reappointed.
- Not less than seven nor more than twenty-eight clear days before the date appointed for holding a general meeting notice shall be given to all who are entitled to receive notice of the meeting of any person (other than a member of the Council retiring at the meeting) who is recommended by the Council for appointment or reappointment as a member of the Council at the meeting or in respect of whom notice has been duly given to the Association of the intention to propose him at the meeting for appointment or reappointment as a member of the Council. The notice shall give the particulars of that person which would, if he were so appointed or reappointed, be required to be included in the Association's register of directors.

- Subject as aforesaid, the Association may by ordinary resolution appoint a person who is willing to act to be a member of the Council either to fill a vacancy or as an additional member of the Council.
- Subject as aforesaid, a member of the Council who retires at an annual general meeting may, if willing to act, be reappointed. If he is not reappointed, he shall retain office until the meeting appoints someone in his place, or if it does not do so, until the end of the meeting.

 - (a) he ceases to be a member of the Council by virtue of any provision of the Act or he becomes prohibited by law from being a director of a company; or
 - (b) he becomes bankrupt or makes an arrangement or composition with his creditors generally; or
 - (c) he is, or may be, suffering from mental disorder and either -

 - (ii) an order is made by a court having jurisdiction (whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) in matters concerning mental disorder for his detention or for the appointment of a receiver, curator bonis or other person to exercise powers with respect to his property or affairs; or
 - (d) he resigns his office by notice to the Association; or
 - (e) he shall for more than six consecutive months have been absent without permission of the Council from meetings of the Council held during that period and the Council resolves that his office be vacated.
- Unless otherwise determined by the Association by ordinary resolution either Generally or in any particular case, no member of the Council shall vacate or be required to vacate his office as a member of the Council on or by reason of his attaining or having attained the age of seventy, and any person proposed to be appointed a member of the Council shall be capable of being appointed as a member of the Council notwithstanding that at the time of such appointment he has attained the age of seventy. It shall not be necessary to give to the members notice of the age of any member of the Council or person proposed to be re-appointed or appointed as a member of the Council.

DIRECTORS' APPOINTMENTS AND INTERESTS

- Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Council may appoint one or more of their number to the office of managing director or to any other executive office under the Association and may enter into an agreement or arrangement with any member of the Council for his employment by the Association or for the provision by him of any services outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a director. Any such appointment, agreement or arrangement may be made upon such terms (subject to article 48) as the Council determines and they may remunerate any such member of the Council for his services as they think fit. Any appointment of a member of the Council to an executive office shall terminate if he ceases to be a member of the Council but without prejudice to any claim or damages for breach of the contract of service between the director and the Association.
- Subject to the provisions of the Act, and provided that he has disclosed to the Council the nature and extent of any material interest of his, a member of the Council, notwithstanding his office -

 - (b) may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in any body corporate promoted by the Association or in which the Association is otherwise interested; and
 - (c) shall not, by reason of his office, be accountable to the Association for any benefit which he derives from any such office or employment or from any such transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such interest or benefit.
- 47 For the purposes of regulation 46 -
 - (a) a general notice given to the Council that a member of the Council is to be regarded as having an interest of the nature and extent specified in the notice in any transaction or arrangement in which a specified person or class of persons is interested shall be deemed to be a disclosure that the member of the Council has an interest in any such transaction of the nature and extent so specified; and
 - (b) an interest of which a member of the Council has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his.
- A member of the Council who holds an executive office or who devotes special attention to the business of the Association or who otherwise performs services which, in the opinion of the Council, are outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a member of the Council may be paid such remuneration by way of salary, commission or otherwise as the Council may determine. Any member of the Council may act in a professional capacity to the Association on such terms as to remuneration and otherwise as the Council may determine.

A member of the Council shall be entitled to be paid all travelling, hotel and other expenses incurred by him in and about the performance of his duties as a member of the Council, including his expenses of travelling to and from meetings of the Council or of committees of the Council or general meetings.

ALTERNATE MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL

- Any member of the Council (other than an alternate member) may appoint any other member of the Council, or any other person approved by resolution of the Council and willing to act, to be an alternate member of the Council ('an alternate member') and may remove from office an alternate member so appointed by him.
- An alternate member shall be entitled to receive notice of all meetings of the Council and of all meetings of committees of the Council of which his appointor is a member, to attend and vote at any such meeting at which the member of the Council appointing him is not personally present, and generally to perform all the functions of his appointor as a member of the Council in his absence but shall not be entitled to receive any remuneration from the Association for his services as an alternate member. But it shall not be necessary to give notice of such a meeting to an alternate member who is absent from the United Kingdom.
- An alternate member shall cease to be an alternate member if his appointor ceases to be a member of the Council; but, if a member of the Council retires by rotation or otherwise but is reappointed or deemed to have been reappointed at the meeting at which he retires, any appointment of an alternate member made by him which was in force immediately prior to his retirement shall continue after his reappointment.
- Any appointment or removal of an alternate member shall be by notice to the Association signed by the member of the Council making or revoking the appointment or in any other manner approved by the Council.
- Save as otherwise provided in the articles, an alternate member shall be deemed for all purposes to be a member of the Council and shall alone be responsible for his own acts and defaults and he shall not be deemed to be the agent of the member of the Council appointing him.

POWERS OF THE COUNCIL

Subject to the provisions of the Act, the memorandum and the articles and to any directions given by special resolution, the business of the Association shall be managed by the Council who may exercise all such powers of the Association and do on behalf of the Association all such acts as may be exercised and done by the Association and as are not by the Act or by these articles required to be exercised or done by the Association in general meeting. No alteration of the memorandum or articles and no direction made by the Association in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Council which would have been valid if such alteration had not been made or that direction had not been given. The general powers given by this article shall not be limited or restricted by any special authority or power given to the Council by any other article and a meeting of the Council at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the Council.

- The Council may from time to time and at any time, by power of attorney or otherwise, appoint any person, to be the agent of the Association for such purposes, for such period and subject to such conditions as they may determine, including authority for the agent to delegate all or any of his powers.
- The Council may exercise all the powers of the Association to borrow money and to mortgage or charge its undertaking and property or any part thereof, and to issue debentures and other securities. All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable or transferable instruments and all receipts for moneys paid to the Association shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed as the case may require in such manner as the Council may from time to time determine.
- The Council may on behalf of the Association, provide benefits, whether by the payment of pensions and retirement benefits or gratuities or by insurance or otherwise, to or for any persons who are or were at any time in the employment or service of the Association or of the charity created by a deed of settlement dated 1st July 1969 and known as "The Lord Rank Foundation for Christian Communication" or who are or were at any time members of the Council and to the widows, children and other dependants of any such persons Provided that nothing contained in this article shall confer on the Council any greater authority to pay pensions and retirement benefits than would be available to the Association under the Memorandum of Association.

DELEGATION OF COUNCIL'S POWERS

The Council may delegate any of their powers to any committee consisting of one or more members of the Council. They may also delegate to any managing director or any member of the Council holding any other executive office such of their powers as they consider desirable to be exercised by him. Any such delegation may be made subject to any conditions the Council may impose, and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of their own powers and may be revoked or altered. Subject to any such conditions, the proceedings of a committee with two or more members shall be governed by the articles regulating proceedings of the Council so far as they are capable of applying.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COUNCIL

The members of the Council may meet together for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes the chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote. A member of the Council who is also an alternate member shall be entitled in the absence of his appointor to a separate vote on behalf of his appointor in addition to his own vote.

- A member of the Council may, and on the request of a member of the Council the Secretary shall, at any time convene a meeting of the Council. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting of the Council to any member of the Council for the time being absent from the United Kingdom.
- Except as may otherwise be required for the purposes specified in article 61 the quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Council shall not be less than three members of the Council. A person who holds office only as an alternate member shall, if his appointor is not present be counted in quorum.
- The continuing member or members of the Council may at any time act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body; but if the number of members of the Council is less than the number fixed as the quorum the continuing member or members of the Council may act for the purposes only of appointing an additional member or members of the Council in accordance with these articles or of convening a general meeting of the Association.
- The members of the Council may from time to time appoint from amongst the members of the Council appointed by the Rank Foundation Limited under article 35 or if no such person shall have been appointed from the members of the Council, being members of the Association and remove, a Chairman. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Council but, if no such Chairman be appointed, or if at any meeting the Chairman is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the members of the Council present may choose member of the Council, being a member of the Association, to preside as Chairman of the meeting.
- A resolution in writing signed by all the members of the Council for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Council, or a committee of the Council and being entitled to vote on the resolution shall be as effective as a resolution passed at a meeting of the Council or (as the case may be) a committee of the Council, duly convened and held, and may consist of several documents in the like form, each signed by one or more of the members of the Council, but a resolution signed by an alternate member need not also be signed by his appointor and if it is signed by a member of the Council who has appointed an alternate member it need not be signed by the alternate member in that capacity.
- All acts done bona fide by any meeting of the Council or of a committee of the Council or by any person acting as a member of the Council shall, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such member of the Council acting as aforesaid or that they or any of them were disqualified or had vacated office or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed, was qualified, had continued to be a member of the Council and had been entitled to vote.

- The members of the Council (including alternate members), or any of them, may form, or participate in, a meeting of the Council by means of a conference telephone or any communication equipment which allows all the participants to hear each other. A person so participating shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting and shall be counted in the quorum and be entitled to vote accordingly. The meeting shall be deemed to take place where the group of the highest number of participants is assembled or, if there is no such group, where the chairman of the meeting is then present.
- A member of the Council may as a member of the Council vote and be counted as one of the quorum upon a motion in respect of any transaction or arrangement which he enters into or makes with the Association or in which he is in any way interested Provided that nothing in this article shall permit any member of the Council from voting or being counted in the quorum if he is prohibited from so doing under the Memorandum of Association.

- Anything required or authorised by the Act to be done by or to the secretary may, if the office is vacant or there is for any other reason no secretary capable of acting, be done by or to any assistant or deputy secretary or, if there is no assistant or deputy secretary capable of acting, by or to any officer of the Association authorised generally or specially in that behalf by the Council; provided that any provision of the Act or these articles requiring or authorising a thing to be done by or to a member of the Council and the secretary shall not be satisfied by its being done by or to the same person acting both as a member of the Council and as, or in the place of, the Secretary.

Council may determine the persons and the number of such persons who shall sign every instrument to which the seal is affixed and, until otherwise so determined, every such instrument shall be signed by one member of the Council and countersigned by the secretary or another member of the Council. Whether or not the Association has a seal, a share certificate may be executed under section 36A (4) of the Act instead of being sealed.

ACCOUNTS

- The Council shall cause proper books of account to be kept in accordance with the provisions of the Act.
- The books of account shall be kept at the office, or, subject to the provisions of the Act, at such other place or places as the Council shall think fit, and shall always be open to the inspection of the members of the Council.
- No member of the Association (not being a member of the Council) shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or document of the Association except as conferred by the Act or authorised by the Council.

- The auditors' report shall be open to inspection by any member of the Association and be read before the meeting as required by the Act.
