Statement of Directors' Responsibilities in respect of the Strategic Report, the Directors' Report and the Financial Statements

The Directors are responsible for preparing the Strategic Report, Directors' Report and the Financial Statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the Directors to prepare Financial Statements for each financial year. Under that law, they have elected to prepare the Financial Statements in accordance with IFRSs as adopted by the EU and applicable law.

Under Company law, the Directors must not approve the Financial Statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period. In preparing these Financial Statements, the Directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;

- state whether they have been prepared in accordance with IFRSs as adopted by the EU; and
- prepare the Financial Statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business.

The Directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the Company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and enable them to ensure that the Financial Statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They have general responsibility for taking such steps as are reasonably open to them to safeguard the assets of the Company and to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.

Future Developments

Future developments impacting the Company are detailed in the Strategic Report under the Principal activities.

1. General

Buckmore Nominees Limited (the "Company") is domiciled in the United Kingdom. The Company's registered office is Compliance Dept, Credit Suisse Private Banking, 16th Floor, Five Cabot Square, London E14 4QR. The company acts as a nominee company for Credit Suisse (UK) Limited in respect of its clients' assets registered in its name with the receipt and onward booking of distributions on behalf of the beneficial owners. It, therefore, has no beneficial interest in these assets and accordingly they are not shown as assets on the Statement of Financial Position. During the year and preceding financial year, the Company did not trade, received no income and incurred no expenditure. Consequently, during these years, the Company made neither a profit nor a loss.

2. Significant accounting policies

a) Statement of compliance

The Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards as adopted by the European Union ('adopted IFRS') and the Companies Act 2006.

The Financial Statements were authorised for issue by the Board of Directors on 15 May 2019.

b) Basis of preparation

The Financial Statements are presented in Great British Pounds (£), which is the Company's functional currency. They are prepared on historical cost basis.

The preparation of Financial Statements in conformity with adopted IFRS requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets and liabilities, income and expenses. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis of making the judgements about carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates. The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis.

Management believes that there are no critical accounting estimates which involve significant judgement and assessment.

Standards and Interpretations effective in the current period

The Company has not adopted any amendments in the current period.

Standards and Interpretations endorsed by the EU and not yet effective

The Company is not yet required to adopt the following standards and interpretations which are issued by the IASB but not yet effective:

- IFRIC 23: In June 2017, the IASB issued IFRIC 23 'Uncertainty over Income Tax Treatments' (IFRIC 23). IFRIC 23 clarifies the accounting for uncertainties in income taxes and is to be applied to the determination of taxable profit (tax loss), tax bases, unused tax losses, unused tax credits and tax rates, when there is uncertainty over income tax treatments under IAS 12. IFRIC 23 is effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2019. The adoption of IFRIC 23 did not have an impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

Standards and Interpretations not endorsed by the EU and not yet effective.

The Company is not yet required to adopt the following standards and interpretations which are issued by the IASB but not yet effective and have not yet been endorsed by the EU.

- Annual Improvements to IFRSs 2015-2017 Cycle: In December 2017, the IASB issued 'Annual Improvements to IFRSs 2015-2017 cycle' (Improvements to IFRSs 2015-2017). The Improvements to IFRSs 2015-2017 are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2019. The adoption of Annual Improvements to IFRSs 2015-2017 Cycle will not have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

c) Contingent liabilities

Contingent liabilities are possible obligations that arise from past events, and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity, or are present obligations where it is not probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation or the amount of the obligation cannot be measured with sufficient reliability. A contingent liability is not recognised as a liability but is disclosed, unless the possibility is remote, except for those acquired under business combinations, which are recognised at fair value.

3. Called-up share capital

	31 December 2018	December 31, 2017
Authorised:
100 Ordinary shares of £ 1 each	100	100
Allotted and fully paid:
2 Ordinary shares of £ 1 each	2	2

The holders of ordinary shares have voting rights and the right to receive dividends.

During the year, the Company made no share issues (2017: £ Nil) and no dividends were paid or declared (2017: £ Nil).

Capital management

The Board's policy is to maintain an adequate capital base so as to enable smooth operation of the Company's activities.

The capital structure of the Company consists of equity attributable to equity holders of the Company, comprising issued capital. The Company is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

The Company funds its operations through equity. This includes assessing the need to raise additional equity where required.

There were no changes in the Company's approach to capital management during the year.

4. Related party transactions

The Company is a subsidiary undertaking of Credit Suisse (UK) Limited which is incorporated in the United Kingdom. The ultimate holding company is Credit Suisse Group AG which is incorporated in Switzerland.

Copies of group Financial Statements of Credit Suisse AG and Credit Suisse Group AG, which are those of the smallest and largest groups in which the results of the Company are consolidated, are available to the public and may be obtained from Credit Suisse Group AG, Paradeplatz 8, 8070 Zurich, Switzerland.

During the course of its business, the Company entered into agreements and transactions with related parties as follows:

a) Related party assets

	31 December 2018	31 December 2017
	Parent	Parent
Assets
Amounts due from related company	2	2
Total assets	2	2

The book value of receivables approximates their fair value. The receivables represent a non-interest bearing asset which is repayable on demand.

b) Remuneration of Directors and Key Management Personnel

The Directors and Key Management Personnel did not receive any remuneration in respect of their services as Directors of the Company (2017: £ Nil). The Directors and Key Management Personnel are employees of its related companies and the Company does not reimburse its related companies for the services rendered by these Directors and Key Management Personnel.

All Directors benefited from qualifying third-party indemnity provisions.

c) Loans and advances to Directors and Key Management Personnel

There were no loans or advances made to Directors or Key Management Personnel during the year (2017: £ Nil).

d) Liabilities due to pension funds

The Company has no employees and therefore does not have any liabilities with regard to pension funds.

5. Employees' remuneration

The Company had no employees during the year (2017: Nil). The Company receives a range of administrative services from related companies within the Credit Suisse Group. Credit Suisse Group companies have borne the cost of these services.

6. Financial risk management

The Company's activities are mainly exposed to operational risk. The Company is not exposed to any material credit, liquidity, foreign exchange, interest-rate or operational risk.

The exposures to risk are regularly evaluated as part of the risk management programme. The overall risk management programme focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Company's financial performance.

Credit Suisse (UK) Limited, of which the Company is a subsidiary, manages risks under global and local policies and within an agreed risk appetite. The risk management process is designed to ensure that there are sufficient controls to measure, monitor and control risks in accordance with its control framework and in consideration of industry best practices. The primary responsibility for risk management lies with business line managers and the responsibility for the risk management framework lies with the CSUK CRO. The Company is primarily exposed to operational risk and this is managed consistent with the Group Operational Risk framework.
