The accompanying notes are an integral part of the financial statements.

LLOYDS, COX'S & KING'S LIMITED

Notes to the financial statements

1. Accounting policies

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below. There are no accounting policies where the use of assumptions and estimates are determined to be significant to the financial statements.

The company's ultimate parent company, Lloyds TSB Group plc, adopted International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) in its financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2005. In accordance with the Companies Act 1985, the company has also adopted IFRS in the preparation of these financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2005.

There is no impact on the company's financial statements as a result of the change in accounting framework from UK Generally Accepted Accounting Principles to IFRS.

An income statement, a statement of changes in equity and a cash flow statement are not presented in these financial statements as these would show nil amounts for the current and preceding financial years.

3. Called up share capital (continued)

Lloyds TSB Group plc is the parent undertaking of the largest group of undertakings for which group accounts are drawn up and of which the company is a member. Lloyds TSB Bank plc is the parent undertaking of the smallest such group of undertakings. Copies of the group accounts of both may be obtained from the Company Secretary's office, Lloyds TSB Group plc, 25 Gresham Street, London, EC2V 7HN.

4. Related party transactions

The company's immediate parent company is Endeavour Marine Services Limited. The company's ultimate parent company is Lloyds TSB Group plc. The company's related parties include other companies in the Lloyds TSB group, pension schemes of the company's ultimate parent company and the company's key management personnel. Key management personnel are those persons having authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the activities of the company, which is determined to be the company's directors.

There were no transactions between the company and key management personnel during the current or preceding year.

Key management personnel are employed by other companies in the Lloyds TSB group and consider that their services to the company are incidental to their other activities within the group.
