11. The office of a director shall be vacated if:
 - 11.1 he or she is removed by the members in accordance with Article 10; or

- 11.2 he or she ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Acts or he or she becomes prohibited by law from being a director; or

Powers of directors

- 12. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, the Memorandum and the Articles and to any directions given by special resolution, the business of the company shall be managed by the directors who may exercise all the powers of the company. No alteration of the Memorandum or Articles and no such direction shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made or that direction had not been given. The powers given by this Article shall not be limited by any special power given to the directors by the Articles and a meeting of directors at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the directors.
- 13. The directors may, by power of attorney or otherwise, appoint any person to be the agent of the company for such purposes and on such conditions as they determine, including authority for the agent to delegate all or any of his or her powers.

Delegation of directors' powers

- 14. The directors may delegate any of their powers to any committee consisting of one or more directors. They may also delegate to any managing director or any director holding any other executive office such of their powers as they consider desirable to be exercised by him or her. Any such delegation may be made subject to any conditions the directors may impose, and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of their own powers and may be revoked or altered. Subject to any such conditions, the proceedings of a committee with two or more members shall be governed by the Articles regulating the proceedings of directors so far as they are capable of applying.

Remuneration of directors

- 15. The directors shall be entitled to such remuneration as the company may determine provided that any remuneration of a director who is also a trustee of the Charity must be authorised by the Charity's constitution or permitted under the Charities Act 1993 or any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof.

Directors' expenses

16. The directors may be paid all travelling, hotel, and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with their attendance at meetings of directors or committees of directors or general meetings or otherwise in connection with the discharge of their duties.

Directors' appointments

17. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts a director:
 - 17.1 may be a director or other officer of, or employed by the Charity or any body corporate promoted by the company or in which the company is otherwise interested provided that no director who is also a trustee of the Charity shall be remunerated or receive other benefits in respect of such employment or office unless authorised by the Charity's constitution or permitted under the Charities Act 1993 or any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof; and
 - 17.2 shall not, by reason of his or her office, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he or she derives from any such office or employment and no transaction or arrangement of the company shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such benefit provided the directors' conflicts of interest procedure in these Articles have been followed.

Proceedings of directors

18. Subject to the provisions of the Articles, the directors may regulate their proceedings as they think fit. A director may, and the Secretary at the request of a director shall, call a meeting of the directors. Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes, the chair shall have a second or casting vote.
19. The quorum for the transaction of the business of the directors may be fixed by the members and unless so fixed at any other number shall be two.
20. The continuing directors or a sole continuing director may act notwithstanding any vacancies in their number, but, if the number of directors is less than the number fixed as the quorum, the continuing directors or director may act only for the purpose of calling a general meeting.
21. The directors may appoint one of their number to be the chair of the board of directors and may at any time remove him or her from that office. Unless he or she is unwilling to do so, the director so appointed shall preside at every meeting of directors at which he or she is present. If there is no director holding that office, or if the director holding it is unwilling to preside or is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the directors present may appoint one of their number to be chair of the meeting.
22. All acts done by a meeting of directors, or of a committee of directors, or by a person acting as a director shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was a defect in the appointment of any director or that any of them were disqualified from holding office, or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a director and had been entitled to vote.

23. The directors may hold meetings by telephone or by using any televisual or other electronic or virtual method agreed by resolution of the directors in which all participants may communicate simultaneously with all other participants.
24. The directors may take a unanimous decision without a directors' meeting by indicating to each other by any means, including without limitation by electronic means, that they share a common view on a matter. Such a decision may, but need not, take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each director or to which each director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.

Directors' conflicts of interest procedure

25. Subject to Article 26, a director shall not vote at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors on any resolution concerning a matter in which he or she has an interest which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the company. A director shall not be counted in the quorum present at a meeting in relation to a resolution on which he or she is not entitled to vote.
26. The company may by ordinary resolution authorise a director's conflict of interest either generally or in respect of a particular matter following which provided the interest is not a personal financial interest the director shall be entitled to vote and be counted in the quorum.
27. Where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment of two or more directors to offices or employments with the company or any body corporate in which the company is interested the proposals may be divided and considered in relation to each director separately and provided he or she is not for another reason precluded from voting each of the directors concerned shall be entitled to vote and be counted in the quorum in respect of each resolution except that concerning his or her own appointment.

Secretary

28. A Secretary may, unless appointed by the members in accordance with the procedure for appointing directors, be appointed by the directors for such term at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit, and may be removed by them. A Secretary appointed by the members may be removed only by them following the procedure for removal of directors.
29. The Secretary shall not be remunerated if he or she is a trustee of the Charity unless permitted under the constitution of the Charity or the Charities Act 1993 or any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof but shall be entitled to reimbursement of expenses to the same extent that the directors are entitled.
30. If there is no Secretary:
 - 30.1 anything authorised or required to be given or sent to, or served on, the company by being sent to its Secretary may be given or sent to, or served on, the company itself, and if addressed to the Secretary shall be treated as addressed to the company; and
 - 30.2 anything else required or authorised to be done by or to the Secretary of the company may be done by or to a director, or a person authorised generally or specifically in that behalf by the directors.

- 34. The company may give any notice to a member either personally or by sending it by post in a prepaid envelope addressed to the member at his, her or its registered address or by leaving it at that address or by electronic means to an address provided for that purpose.
- 35. A member present in person or by proxy at any meeting of the company shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where requisite, of the purpose for which it was called.
- 36. Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted or proof that a document sent by electronic means has been transmitted to the proper address shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. A notice shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be given 48 hours after the envelope containing it was posted or in the case of a notice sent by electronic means 48 hours after the time it was sent.

- 37. If the company is wound up all remaining assets of the company after paying the debts of the company and the costs of winding up shall be paid to the Charity.

Indemnity

- 38. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts but without prejudice to any indemnity to which a director may otherwise be entitled, every director or other officer or auditor of the company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the company against any liability incurred by him or her in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgment is given in his or her favour or in which he or she is acquitted or in connection with any application in which relief is granted to him or her by the court from liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the company.
