Notes

- 'Director' includes any person who occupies the position of a director, by whatever name called, and any person in accordance with whose directions or instructions the directors of the company are accustomed to act.
- For an individual, his present christian name(s) and surname must be given, together with any previous Christian name(s) or surname(s).
"Christian name" includes a forename. In the case of a peer or person usually known by a title different from his surname, "surname" means that title. In the case of a corporation, its corporate name must be given.
A previous christian name or surname need not be given if:—
(a) in the case of a married woman, it was a name by which she was known before her marriage; or
(b) it was changed or ceased to be used at least 20 years ago, or before the person who previously used it reached the age of 18; or
(c) in the case of a peer or a person usually known by a British title different from his surname, it was a name by which he was known before he adopted the title or succeeded to it.
- Where all the partners in a firm are joint secretaries, only the firm's name and its principal office need be given.
Where the secretary or one of the joint secretaries is a Scottish firm, give only the firm name and its principal office.
- Usual residential address must be given. In the case of a corporation, give the registered or principal office.
- Date of birth need only be given if the company making the return is:—
(a) a public company;
(b) the subsidiary of a public company; or
(c) the subsidiary of a public company registered in Northern Ireland.
However a present or past directorship need not be disclosed if it is, or has been, held in a body corporate which, throughout that directorship, has been:—
(a) a dormant company (which is a company which has had no transactions required to be entered in the company's accounting records, except any which may have arisen from the taking of shares in the company by a subscriber to the memorandum as such).
(b) a body corporate of which the company making the return was a wholly-owned subsidiary;
(c) a wholly-owned subsidiary of the company making the return; or
(d) a wholly-owned subsidiary of a body corporate of which the company making the return was also a wholly owned subsidiary.
- If the space overleaf is insufficient, the names and particulars must be entered on the prescribed continuation sheet(s).
