Directors' report

The directors present their report together with the audited financial statements for the year ended 31 July 2013

Principal activities

The company has not traded during the year or prior year and as a result there has been no income or expenditure during the year

Future Prospects

There is no intention to place the company into liquidation or have it struck off. After making enquiries, the directors believe that the company has sufficient resources to meet its liabilities as they fall due.

Directors

The directors of the company who served during the year were as follows

Sean Tompkins Violetta Parylo

Auditors

Under the Companies Act 2006 section 487 (2) BDO LLP will be automatically re-appointed as auditors 28 days after these accounts are sent to the members, unless the members exercise their rights under the Companies Act 2006 to prevent their reappointment

All of the current directors have taken all the steps that they ought to have taken to make themselves aware of any information needed by the company's auditors for the purposes of their audit and to establish that the auditors are aware of the information. The directors are not aware of any relevant audit information of which the auditors are unaware

BDO LLP have expressed their willingness to continue in office as auditors and a resolution proposing their re-appointment will be submitted at the Annual General Meeting

This report has been prepared in accordance with provisions applicable to companies subject to the small companies' regime

Approved by the board and signed on its behalf by

Statement of directors' responsibilities

The directors are responsible for preparing the Directors' Report and the financial statements in accordance with the applicable law and regulations

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with the United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law, the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Independent Auditor's Report to the members of RICS Business Services Limited

We have audited the financial statements of RICS Business Services Limited for the year ended 31 July 2013 which comprise of the consolidated profit and loss account, consolidated and company balance sheet, and consolidated statement of total recognised gains and losses, and the related notes. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice)

This report is made solely to the company's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors

As explained more fully in the statement of directors' responsibilities, the directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view. Our responsibility is to audit and express an opinion on the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). Those standards require us to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's Ethical Standards for Auditors.

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

A description of the scope of an audit of financial statements is provided on the Financial Reporting Council's website at www.frc.org.uk/auditscopeukprivate

Opinion on financial statements

In our opinion the financial statements

- give a true and fair view of the state of the group and parents affairs as at 31 July 2013 and of its profit for the year then ended.
- · have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice, and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006

Opinion on other matters prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion the information given in the directors' report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion

- adequate accounting records have not been kept, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us, or
- · the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns, or
- · certain disclosures of directors' remuneration specified by law are not made, or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit

Notes to the accounts (forming part of the financial statements)

1) Accounting policies

The following accounting policies have been applied consistently in dealing with items which are considered material in relation to the financial statements

a) Basis of accounting

The financial statements have been prepared

- Under the historical cost convention
- In accordance with the special provisions relating to small companies within Companies Act 2006
- Other applicable United Kingdom Accounting Standards

Under Financial Reporting Standard 1, the company is exempt from the requirement to prepare a cash flow statement as it is a wholly-owned subsidiary of a parent undertaking which has produced a group cash flow statement in accordance with the provisions of the standard

The company has taken the exemption under Companies Act 2006 not to present consolidated financial statements as it is a wholly-owned subsidiary where the parent company, the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors prepares group accounts

b) Fixed asset investments

Investments in its subsidiary undertakings are shown at cost less provision for impairment

c) Taxation

Corporation tax is provided on taxable profit at the current rate

Deferred taxation is provided in full on timing differences that result in an obligation at the balance sheet date to pay more tax, or a right to pay less tax, at a future date, at rates expected to apply when they crystallise based on current tax rates and law Timing differences arise from the inclusion of items of income and expenditure in taxation computations in periods different from those in which they are included in the financial statements. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is regarded as more likely that not that they will be recovered. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are not discounted.
