DIRECTORS RESPONSIBILITIES

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period In preparing those financial statements, the Directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

The Directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006 They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities

This report has been prepared in accordance with the small companies regime of the Companies Act 2006

EXEMPTION FROM AUDIT

Under Section 477(2) of the Companies Act 2006, the Company is believed by the Directors to be exempt as a dormant company from the requirement to have these Accounts audited, and the Directors have taken advantage of this exemption

INCOME AND CORPORATION TAXES ACT 1988

Under the provisions of the above Act, the Company is a close company
