DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

3. Directors' general authority

- 3 1 Subject to the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company

4. Shareholders' reserve power

- 4 1 The shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action
- 4 2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution
- 4 3 No alteration of the articles invalidates anything which the directors have done before the making of the alteration

5. Directors may delegate

- 5 1 Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles
- 5 1 1 to such person or committee,
- 5 1 2 by such means (including by power of attorney),
- 5 1 3 to such an extent,
- 5 1 4 in relation to such matters or territories, and
- 5 1 5 on such terms and conditions,
- as they think fit

- 5 2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated

- 5 3 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions

6. Committees

- 6 1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors
- 6 2 The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

7. Directors to take decisions collectively

7 1 Subject always to article 7 2, the general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with article 8

7 2 If

7 2 1 the company only has one director, and 7 2 2 no provision of the articles requires it to have more than one director, the general rule does not apply, and the director may (at such times as he is the sole director) take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the articles relating to directors' decision-making

7 3 If only one director is eligible to vote on any authorisation required under article 14, the general rule does not apply, and the eligible director may take decisions in relation to the relevant matter without regard to any of the provisions of the articles relating to directors' decision-making

8. Unanimous decisions

8 1 Subject to article 7 2, a resolution in writing signed by each eligible director shall be as valid and effectual as it if had been passed at a meeting of the directors duly convened and held, and may consist of several documents in the like form each signed by one or more directors

8 2 References in these articles to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting

8 3 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article 8 if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting

9. Calling a directors' meeting

9 1 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice

9 2 Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate

9 2 1 its proposed date and time,

9 2 2 where it is to take place, and 9 2 3 if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting

9 3 Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing

9 4 Without prejudice to the provisions of article 7 2

9 4 1 notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company either before or after the date on which the meeting is held,

9 4 2 where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it

10. Participation in directors' meetings

10 1 Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when

10 1 1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles, and

10 1 2 they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting

10 2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other

10 3 If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is

11. Quorum for directors' meetings

11 1 At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting

11 2 Subject always to article 7 2, the quorum for directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors, but it must never be less than two, and unless otherwise fixed it is two. If and so long as there is a sole director, he may exercise all the powers and authorities vested in the directors by these articles and accordingly the quorum for the transaction of business in these circumstances shall be one

11 3 Subject always to article 7 2, if the total number of directors for the time being in office is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision to appoint further directors or to call a general meeting so as to enable the shareholders to appoint further directors

12. Chairing of directors' meetings

12 1 The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings

12 2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman

12 3 The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time

12 4 If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it

13. Casting vote

13 1 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote

- 13 2 Article 13 1 does not apply if, in accordance with the articles, the chairman or other director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes

14. Conflicts of interest

- 14 1 The directors may, in accordance with the requirements set out in this article 14, authorise any matter proposed to them by any director which would, if not authorised, involve a director breaching his duty under section 175 of the Companies Act 2006 to avoid conflicts of interest (such matter being hereinafter referred to as a “Conflict”)

- 14 2 A director seeking authorisation in respect of a Conflict shall declare to the other directors the nature and extent of his interest in a Conflict as soon as is reasonably practicable. The director shall provide the other directors with such details of the relevant matter as are necessary for the other directors to decide how to address the Conflict, together with such other information as may be requested by the other directors

- 14 3 Any authorisation under this article 14 will be effective only if

14 3 1 the matter in question shall have been proposed by any director for consideration at a meeting of directors in the same way that any other matter may be proposed to the directors under the provisions of these articles or in such other manner as the directors may determine,

14 3 2 any requirement as to the quorum at any meeting of the directors at which the matter is considered is met without counting the director in question and any other conflicted director(s), and

14 3 3 the matter was agreed to without the director and any other conflicted director(s) voting or would have been agreed to if their votes had not been counted

- 14 4 Any authorisation of a Conflict under this article 14 may (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently)

14 4 1 extend to any actual or potential conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the Conflict so authorised,

14 4 2 be subject to such terms and for such duration, or impose such limits or conditions as the directors may determine, or

14 4 3 be terminated or varied by the directors at any time

This will not affect anything done by the director prior to such termination or variation in accordance with the terms of the authorisation

- 14 5 A director is not required, by reason of being a director (or because of the fiduciary relationship established by reason of being a director), to account to the company for any remuneration, profit or other benefit which he receives as director or other officer or employee of the company’s subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the Company is interested or which he derives from or in connection with a relationship involving a Conflict which has been authorised by the directors or by the company in general meeting (subject in each case to any terms, limits or conditions attaching to that authorisation) and no contract shall be liable to be avoided on such grounds nor shall

the receipt of any such remuneration or other benefit constitute a breach of his duty under section 176 of the Companies Act 2006

14 6 Subject to the applicable provisions for the time being of the Companies Acts and to any terms, limits and/or conditions imposed by the directors in accordance with article 14 4 2 and provided that he has disclosed to the directors the nature and extent of any interest of his in accordance with the Companies Acts, a director notwithstanding his office

14 6 1 may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company or in which the company is otherwise interested,

14 6 2 shall be counted as participating for voting and quorum purposes in any decision in connection with any proposed or existing transaction or arrangement with the company, in which he is in any way directly or indirectly interested,

14 6 3 may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the company (otherwise than as auditor) and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a director,

14 6 4 may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any contract, transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate promoted by the company or in which the company is otherwise interested, and

14 6 5 shall not, by reason of his office, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he (or anyone connected with him (as defined in section 252 of the Companies Act 2006) derives from any such office or employment or from any such contract, transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such contract, transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such interest or benefit, nor shall the receipt of any such remuneration or benefit constitute a breach of his duty under section 176 of the Companies Act 2006

14 7 Subject to article 14 8, if a question arises at a meeting of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive

14 8 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes

15. Records of decisions to be kept

The directors must ensure that the company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors

18 5 by reason of that person's mental health, a court makes an order which wholly or partly prevents that person from personally exercising any powers or rights which that person would otherwise have,

18 6 notification is received by the company from the director that the director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms,

18 7 the director shall for more than six consecutive months have been absent without permission of the directors from meetings of directors held during that period and the directors resolve that that director's office be vacated,

24 1 4 when the alternate's appointor's appointment as a director terminates

SHARES

25 Authority to allot shares

In accordance with section 550 of the Companies Act 2006, for so long as the company has only one class of shares, the directors are generally and unconditionally authorised to exercise any power of the company to allot and grant rights to subscribe for or convert securities into such shares

26. Powers to issue different classes of share

26 1 Subject to the articles, but without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing share, the company may issue shares with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by ordinary resolution

26 2 The company may issue shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the company or the holder, and the directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such shares

27. Company not bound by less than absolute interests

Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the articles, the company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it

28. Share certificates

28 1 The company must issue each shareholder, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that shareholder holds

28 2 Every certificate must specify

28 2 1 in respect of how many shares, of what class, it is issued,

- 28 2 2 the nominal value of those shares, and
- 28 2 3 any distinguishing numbers assigned to them
- 28 3 No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class
- 28 4 If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it
- 28 5 Certificates must
 - 28 5 1 have affixed to them the company's common seal, or
 - 28 5 2 be otherwise executed in accordance with the Companies Acts
- 29 Replacement share certificates
- 29 1 If a certificate issued in respect of a shareholder's shares is
 - 29 1 1 damaged or defaced, or
 - 29 1 2 said to be lost, stolen or destroyed,that shareholder is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same shares
- 29 2 A shareholder exercising the right to be issued with such a replacement certificate
 - 29 2 1 may at the same time exercise the right to be issued with a single certificate or separate certificates,
 - 29 2 2 must return the certificate which is to be replaced to the company if it is damaged or defaced, and
 - 29 2 3 must comply with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of a reasonable fee as the directors decide

PARTLY PAID SHARES

- 30. Company's lien over partly paid shares
- 30 1 The company has a lien ("the company's lien") over every share which is partly paid for any part of that share's nominal value and any premium at which it was issued, which has not been paid to the company, and which is payable immediately or at some time in the future, whether or not a call notice has been sent in respect of it
- 30 2 The company's lien over a share takes priority over any third party's interest in that share and extends to any dividend or other money payable by the company in respect of that share and (if the lien is enforced and the share is sold by the company) the proceeds of sale of that share
- 30 3 The directors may at any time decide that a share which is or would otherwise be subject to the company's lien shall not be subject to it, either wholly or in part

31. Enforcement of the company's lien

- 31 1 Subject to the provisions of this article 31, if a lien enforcement notice has been given in respect of a share and the person to whom the notice was given has failed to comply with it, the company may sell that share in such manner as the directors decide
- 31 2 A lien enforcement notice may only be given in respect of a share which is subject to the company's lien, in respect of which a sum is payable and the due date for payment of that sum has passed and must
- 31 2 1 specify the share(s) concerned,
- 31 2 2 require payment of the sum payable within 14 days of the notice,
- 31 2 3 be addressed either to the holder of the share or to a person entitled to it by reason of the holder's death, bankruptcy or otherwise, and
- 31 2 4 state the company's intention to sell the share if the notice is not complied with
- 31 3 Where shares are sold under this article 31 the directors may authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to the purchaser or a person nominated by the purchaser and the transferee is not bound to see to the application of the consideration and the transferee's title is not affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to the sale
- 31 4 The net proceeds of any such sale (after payment of the costs of sale and any other costs of enforcing the lien) must be applied
- 31 4 1 first, in payment of so much of the sum for which the lien exists as was payable at the date of the lien enforcement notice,
- 31 4 2 second, to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale, but only after the certificate for the shares sold has been surrendered to the company for cancellation or a suitable indemnity has been given for any lost certificates, and subject to a lien equivalent to the company's lien over the shares before the sale for any money payable in respect of the shares after the date of the lien enforcement notice
- 31 5 A statutory declaration by a director or the company secretary that the declarant is a director or the company secretary and that a share has been sold to satisfy the company's lien on a specified date is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share and subject to compliance with any other formalities of transfer required by the articles or by law, constitutes a good title to the share

32. Call notices

- 32 1 Subject to the articles and the terms on which shares are allotted, the directors may send a notice (a "call notice") to a shareholder requiring the shareholder to pay the company a specified sum of money (a "call") which is payable in respect of shares which that shareholder holds at the date when the directors decide to send the call notice
- 32 2 A call notice may not require a shareholder to pay a call which exceeds the total sum unpaid on that shareholder's shares (whether as to the share's nominal value or any amount payable to the company by way of premium), must state when and how any

call to which it relates it is to be paid, and may permit or require the call to be paid by instalments

32 3 A shareholder must comply with the requirements of a call notice, but no shareholder is obliged to pay any call before 14 days have passed since the notice was sent

32 4 Before the company has received any call due under a call notice the directors may revoke it wholly or in part or specify a later time for payment than is specified in the notice, in either such case by a further notice in writing to the shareholder in respect of whose shares the call is made

33. Liability to pay calls

33 1 Liability to pay a call is not extinguished or transferred by transferring the shares in respect of which it is required to be paid

33 2 Joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of that share

33 3 Subject to the terms on which shares are allotted, the directors may, when issuing shares, provide that call notices sent to the holders of those shares may require them to pay calls which are not the same or to pay calls at different times

34. When call notice need not be issued

34 1 A call notice need not be issued in respect of sums which are specified, in the terms on which a share is issued, as being payable to the company in respect of that share (whether in respect of nominal value or premium)

34 1 1 on allotment,

34 1 2 on the occurrence of a particular event, or

34 1 3 on a date fixed by or in accordance with the terms of issue

34 2 If the due date for payment of such a sum has passed and it has not been paid, the holder of the share concerned is treated in all respects as having failed to comply with a call notice in respect of that sum, and is liable to the same consequences as regards the payment of interest and forfeiture

35. Failure to comply with call notice: automatic consequences

35 1 If a person is liable to pay a call and fails to do so by the call payment date the directors may issue a notice of intended forfeiture to that person and until the call is paid, that person must pay the company interest on the call from the call payment date at the relevant rate

35 2 For the purposes of this article 35

35 2 1 the "call payment date" is the time when the call notice states that a call is payable, unless the directors give a notice specifying a later date, in which case the "call payment date" is that later date,

35 2 2 the "relevant rate" is

35 2 2 1 the rate fixed by the terms on which the share in respect of which the call is due was allotted,

35 2 2 2 such other rate as was fixed in the call notice which required payment of the call, or has otherwise been determined by the directors, or

35 2 2 3 if no rate is fixed in either of these ways, 5 per cent per annum

35 3 The relevant rate must not exceed by more than 5 percentage points the base lending rate most recently set by the Monetary Policy Committee of the Bank of England in connection with its responsibilities under Part 2 of the Bank of England Act 1998

35 4 The directors may waive any obligation to pay interest on a call wholly or in part

36. Notice of intended forfeiture

36 1 A notice of intended forfeiture may be sent in respect of any share in respect of which a call has not been paid as required by a call notice and must

36 1 1 be sent to the holder of that share or to a person entitled to it by reason of the holder's death, bankruptcy or otherwise,

36 1 2 require payment of the call and any accrued interest by a date which is not less than 14 days after the date of the notice,

36 1 3 must state how the payment is to be made, and

36 1 4 must state that if the notice is not complied with, the shares in respect of which the call is payable will be liable to be forfeited

37. Directors' power to forfeit shares

If a notice of intended forfeiture is not complied with before the date by which payment of the call is required in the notice of intended forfeiture, the directors may decide that any share in respect of which it was given is forfeited, and the forfeiture is to include all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before the forfeiture

38. Effect of forfeiture

38 1 Subject to the articles, the forfeiture of a share extinguishes all interests in that share, and all claims and demands against the company in respect of it, and (b) all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the person whose share it was prior to the forfeiture and the company

38 2 Any share which is forfeited in accordance with the articles

38 2 1 is deemed to have been forfeited when the directors decide that it is forfeited,

38 2 2 is deemed to be the property of the company, and

38 2 3 may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of as the directors think fit

38 3 If a person's shares have been forfeited

38 3 1 the company must send that person notice that forfeiture has occurred and record it in the register of members,

- 38 3 2 that person ceases to be a shareholder in respect of those shares,
 - 38 3 3 that person must surrender the certificate for the shares forfeited to the company for cancellation,
 - 38 3 4 that person remains liable to the company for all sums payable by that person under the articles at the date of forfeiture in respect of those shares, including any interest (whether accrued before or after the date of forfeiture), and
 - 38 3 5 the directors may waive payment of such sums wholly or in part or enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or for any consideration received on their disposal
- 38 4 At any time before the company disposes of a forfeited share, the directors may decide to cancel the forfeiture on payment of all calls and interest due in respect of it and on such other terms as they think fit

39 Procedure following forfeiture

- 39 1 If a forfeited share is to be disposed of by being transferred, the company may receive the consideration for the transfer and the directors may authorise any person to execute the instrument of transfer
- 39 2 A statutory declaration by a director or the company secretary that the declarant is a director or the company secretary and that a share has been forfeited on a specified date is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share and, subject to compliance with any other formalities of transfer required by the articles or by law, constitutes a good title to the share
- 39 3 A person to whom a forfeited share is transferred is not bound to see to the application of the consideration (if any) nor is that person's title to the share affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to the forfeiture or transfer of the share
- 39 4 If the company sells a forfeited share, the person who held it prior to its forfeiture is entitled to receive from the company the proceeds of such sale, net of any commission, and excluding any amount which
- 39 4 1 was, or would have become, payable, and
 - 39 4 2 had not, when that share was forfeited, been paid by that person in respect of that share,
- but no interest is payable to such a person in respect of such proceeds and the company is not required to account for any money earned on them

40. Surrender of shares

- 40 1 A shareholder may surrender any share
- 40 1 1 in respect of which the directors may issue a notice of intended forfeiture,
 - 40 1 2 which the directors may forfeit, or
 - 40 1 3 which has been forfeited

- 40 2 The directors may accept the surrender of any such share
- 40 3 The effect of surrender on a share is the same as the effect of forfeiture on that share
- 40 4 A share which has been surrendered may be dealt with in the same way as a share which has been forfeited

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

41. Share transfers

- 41 1 Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor
- 41 2 No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share
- 41 3 The company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered
- 41 4 The transferor remains the holder of a share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as holder of it
- 41 5 The directors may refuse to register the transfer of a share, and if they do so, the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee with the notice of refusal unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent

42. Transmission of shares

- 42 1 If title to a share passes to a transmittee, the company may only recognise the transmittee as having any title to that share, but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a holder from whom the transmittee derives such title from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by the holder
- 42 2 A transmittee who produces such evidence of entitlement to shares as the directors may properly require
 - 42 2 1 may, subject to the articles, choose either to become the holder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person, and
 - 42 2 2 subject to the articles, and pending any transfer of the shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had
- 42 3 Transmittees do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of shares to which they are entitled, by reason of the event which gave rise to the transmission, unless they become the holders of those shares

43. Exercise of transmittees' rights

- 43 1 Transmittees who wish to become the holders of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the company in writing of that wish
- 43 2 If the transmittee wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmittee must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it

- 43 3 Any transfer made or executed under this article 43 is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmittee has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred

44. Transmittes bound by prior notices

If a notice is given to a shareholder in respect of shares and a transmittee is entitled to those shares, the transmittee is bound by the notice if it was given to the shareholder before the transmittee's name has been entered in the register of members

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

45. Procedure for declaring dividends

- 45 1 The company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends
- 45 2 A dividend must not be declared unless the directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors
- 45 3 No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with shareholders' respective rights
- 45 4 Unless the shareholders' resolution to declare or directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each shareholder's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it
- 45 5 All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid, but, if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date, that share shall rank for dividend accordingly
- 45 6 If the company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrears
- 45 7 The directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment
- 45 8 If the directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights

46. Payment of dividends and other distributions

- 46 1 Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means
- 46 1 1 transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide,
- 46 1 2 sending a cheque made payable to the distribution recipient by post to the distribution recipient at the distribution recipient's registered address (if the distribution recipient is a holder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide,

46 1 3 sending a cheque made payable to such person by post to such person at such address as the distribution recipient has specified either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide, or

46 1 4 any other means of payment as the directors agree with the distribution recipient either in writing or by such other means as the directors decide

46 2 In the articles, "the distribution recipient" means, in respect of a share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable

46 2 1 the holder of the share,

46 2 2 if the share has two or more joint holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members, or

46 2 3 if the holder is no longer entitled to the share by reason of death or bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, the transmittee

47. No interest on distributions

The company may not pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share unless otherwise provided by

47 1 1 the terms on which the share was issued, or

47 1 2 the provisions of another agreement between the holder of that share and the company

48 Unclaimed distributions

48 1 All dividends or other sums which are 48 1 1 payable in respect of shares, and 48 1 2 unclaimed after having been declared or become payable, may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the company until claimed

48 2 The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the company a trustee in respect of it

48 3 1 twelve years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment, and

48 3 2 the distribution recipient has not claimed it, the distribution recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the company

49. Non-cash distributions

- 49 1 Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors or by a decision of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company)
- 49 2 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution
- 49 2 1 fixing the value of any assets,
- 49 2 2 paying cash to any distribution recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients, and
- 49 2 3 vesting any assets in trustees

50. Waiver of distributions

- 50 1 Distribution recipients may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by giving the company notice in writing to that effect, but if
- 50 1 1 the share has more than one holder, or
- 50 1 2 more than one person is entitled to the share, whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise, the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share

51. Distribution on winding up

If the company is wound up, the liquidator may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the company and any other sanction required by the Companies Acts, divide among the shareholders in specie the whole or any part of the assets of the company and may, for that purpose, value any assets and determine how the division shall be carried out as between the shareholders or different classes of shareholders. The liquidator may, with the like sanction, vest the whole or any part of the assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the shareholders as he with the like sanction determines, but no shareholder shall be compelled to accept any assets upon which there is a liability

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

52. Authority to capitalise and appropriation of capitalised sums

- 52 1 Subject to the articles, the directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution
- 52 1 1 decide to capitalise any profits of the company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of any of the company's reserves, including (but not limited to) the company's share premium account or capital redemption reserve, and

52 1 2 appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a 'capitalised sum') to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the 'persons entitled') and in the same proportions

52 2 Capitalised sums must be applied

52 2 1 on behalf of the persons entitled, and

52 2.2 in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them

52 3 Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct

52 4 A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied in paying up new debentures of the company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct

52 5 Subject to the articles the directors may

52 5 1 apply capitalised sums in accordance with articles 52 3 and 52 4 partly in one way and partly in another,

52 5 2 make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions under this article (including the issuing of fractional certificates or the making of cash payments), and

52 5 3 authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the company on behalf of all the persons entitled which is binding on them in respect of the allotment of shares and debentures to them under this article 52

ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

53. Attendance and speaking at general meetings

53 1 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting

53 2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when

53 2 1 that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting, and

53 2 2 that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting

53 3 The directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it

53 4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more shareholders attending it are in the same place as each other

53 5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them

54. Quorum for general meetings

No business other than the appointment of the chairman of the meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum

55. Chairing general meetings

55 1 If the directors have appointed a chairman, the chairman shall chair general meetings if present and willing to do so

55 2 If the directors have not appointed a chairman, or if the chairman is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not present within ten minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start

55 2 1 the directors present, or

55 2 2 (if no directors are present), the meeting, must appoint a director or shareholder to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the chairman of the meeting must be the first business of the meeting

55 3 The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this article 55 is referred to as “the chairman of the meeting”

56. Attendance and speaking by directors and non-shareholders

56 1 Directors may attend and speak at general meetings, whether or not they are shareholders

56 2 The chairman of the meeting may permit other persons who are not

56 2 1 shareholders of the company, or 56 2 2 otherwise entitled to exercise the rights of shareholders in relation to general meetings, to attend and speak at a general meeting

57. Adjournment

57 1 If the persons attending a general meeting within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the chairman of the meeting must adjourn it

57 2 The chairman of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if

57 2 1 the meeting consents to an adjournment, or

57 2 2 it appears to the chairman of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner

- 57 3 The chairman of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting
- 57 4 When adjourning a general meeting, the chairman of the meeting must
- 57 4 1 either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the directors, and
- 57 4 2 have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting
- 57 5 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the company must give at least 7 clear days' notice of it (that is, excluding the day of the adjourned meeting and the day on which the notice is given)
- 57 5 1 to the same persons to whom notice of the company's general meetings is required to be given, and
- 57 5 2 containing the same information which such notice is required to contain
- 57 6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

58. Voting: general

A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the articles

59. Errors and disputes

- 59 1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid
- 59 2 Any such objection must be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision is final

60. Poll votes

- 60 1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded
- 60 1 1 in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote, or
- 60 1 2 at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared
- 60 2 A poll may be demanded by
- 60 2 1 the chairman of the meeting,
- 60 2 2 the directors,
- 60 2 3 two or more persons having the right to vote on the resolution, or

- 60 2 4 a person or persons representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the shareholders having the right to vote on the resolution
- 60 3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if
 - 60 3 1 the poll has not yet been taken, and
 - 60 3 2 the chairman of the meeting consents to the withdrawal
- 60 4 Polls must be taken immediately and in such manner as the chairman of the meeting directs
- 61. Content of proxy notices
 - 61 1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a “proxy notice”) which
 - 61 1 1 states the name and address of the shareholder appointing the proxy,
 - 61 1 2 identifies the person appointed to be that shareholder’s proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed,
 - 61 1 3 is signed by or on behalf of the shareholder appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine, and
 - 61 1 4 is delivered to the company in accordance with the articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting (or adjourned meeting) to which they relate
 - 61 2 The company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes
 - 61 3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions
 - 61 4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as
 - 61 4 1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
 - 61 4 2 appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself
- 62. Delivery of proxy notices
 - 62 1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the company by or on behalf of that person
 - 62 2 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given
 - 62 3 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates

- 62 4 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf

63. Amendments to resolutions

- 63 1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if
- 63 1 1 notice of the proposed amendment is given to the company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chairman of the meeting may determine), and
- 63 1 2 the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution
- 63 2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if
- 63 2 1 the chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and
- 63 2 2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution
- 63 3 If the chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairman's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution

ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

64. Means of communication to be used

- 64 1 Subject to the articles, anything sent or supplied by or to the company under the articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which the Companies Act 2006 provides for documents or information which are authorised or required by any provision of that Act to be sent or supplied by or to the company

67. Provision for employees on cessation of business

The directors may decide to make provision for the benefit of persons employed or formerly employed by the company or any of its subsidiaries (other than a director or former director or shadow director) in connection with the cessation or transfer to any person of the whole or part of the undertaking of the company or that subsidiary

DIRECTORS' INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE

68 Indemnity

68 1 Subject to article 68 2, a relevant director of the company or an associated company may be indemnified out of the company's assets against

69 2 1 a 'relevant director' means any director or former director of the company or an associated company,

69 2 2 a 'relevant loss' means any loss or liability which has been or may be incurred by a relevant director in connection with that director's duties or powers in relation to the company, any associated company or any pension fund or employees' share scheme of the company or associated company, and

69 2 3 companies are associated if one is a subsidiary of the other or both are subsidiaries of the same body corporate

70. Over-riding provision

70 1 The following provisions shall apply and to the extent of any inconsistency shall have over-riding effect as against all other provisions of these articles

70 1 1 the Parent Company may at any time and from time to time appoint any person to be a director or remove from office any director howsoever appointed and his removal from office shall be deemed an act of the company and shall have effect without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between him and the company,

70 1 3 any or all powers of the directors shall be restricted in such respects and to such extent as the Parent Company may by notice to the Company from time to time prescribe

Any such appointment, removal, consent or notice shall be in writing served on the company and signed on behalf of the Parent Company by any two of its directors or by any one of its directors and its secretary or some other person duly authorised for the purpose. No person dealing with the company shall be concerned to see or enquire as to whether the powers of the directors have been in any way restricted hereunder or as to whether any requisite consent of the Parent Company has been obtained and no obligation incurred or security given or transaction effected by the company to or with any third party shall be invalid or ineffectual unless the third party had at the time actual notice that the incurring of such obligation or the giving of such security or the effecting of such transaction was in excess of the powers of the directors
