Director's report

For the 52 weeks ended 26 February 2022

The director presents their annual report on the affairs of the company, together with the unaudited financial statements for the 52 weeks ended 26 February 2022. This directors' report has been prepared in accordance with the provisions applicable to companies entitled to the small companies' exemption.

Principal activities and business review

The company has been dormant as defined in section 1169 of the Companies Act 2006 throughout the period and preceding financial period. It is anticipated that the company will remain dormant for the foreseeable future. Key performance indicators are not considered necessary for an understanding of the development, performance or position of the business of the company. There are no risks or uncertainties facing the company including those within the context of the use of financial instruments.

The director has prepared these financial statements on the going concern basis as explained in note 1. The company qualifies as a small company under sections 381-384 of the Companies Act.

Directors and their interests

The directors who served during the period and thereafter are as shown below:

Director's Responsibilities Statement

The director is responsible for preparing the director's report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial period. Under that law the director has elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law the director must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period.

In preparing these financial statements, the director is required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The director is responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

By order of the Board,

Sarah Nichol
Director

Notes to accounts

26 February 2022

1 Basis of accounting

These financial statements were prepared in accordance with Financial Reporting Standard 102. The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland ("FRS 102"). As the company has met the Companies Act 2006 definition of a dormant company as at and since the date of transition the accounting policies applied at the date of transition under previous GAAP have been retained as permitted by paragraph 10(m) of chapter 35 of FRS 102. As a result, there will be no change to amounts reported at 26 February 2022 until there is any change to those balances or the company undertakes any new transactions.

The director has considered the company's working capital requirements for the next 12 months from the date of approval of these financial statements and considers that there are no material uncertainties. On this basis the director considers the going concern basis of preparation to be appropriate.

2 Profit and loss account

No profit and loss account is presented with these financial statements because the company has not received income, incurred expenditure or recognised any gains or losses during either the period under review or the preceding financial period. There have been no movements in shareholders' funds during the period under review or the preceding financial period. The cost of the annual return fee was borne by the Company's parent company without any right of reimbursement.

3 Information regarding directors and employees

The company had no employees during the current and preceding period. No emoluments were payable to the directors of the company during the current and preceding financial period.

4 Called-up share capital

	2022 £	2021 £
Allotted, called up and fully-paid
100 Ordinary shares of £1 each	100	100

5 Ultimate parent company

The director regards N Brown Group plc, a company incorporated in England and Wales, as the ultimate parent company and the ultimate controlling party.

N Brown Group plc is the parent company of the largest and smallest group of which the company is a member and for which group accounts are drawn up. Copies of the accounts are available from Griffin House, 40 Lever Street, Manchester, M60 6ES.

N Brown Group plc has undertaken to provide continued financial support.
