6. As a Special resolution:

In agreement with the Companies Acts 1948-2006 for a public company limited by shares to adopt the revised Articles of Association

Amendments have been made to

- i) Update the Articles to comply with the Companies act 2006 in regards to various legislation sections
- ii) Comply with Age Discrimination legislation where automatic retirement on reaching a certain age is no longer allowed under the Companies Act 2006. (Article 79)
- iii) Adjust quorum issues, reflecting the fact that the Company currently operates with only two directors. In the event of there only being a quorum of two directors, then decisions must be unanimous. (Article 106).
- iv) Transmission on death – In the event of a member dying intestate with no recognised beneficiaries to the estate, then the shares shall automatically transfer back to the Company (Article 43).
- v) Adjustment of notice period from 7 to 10 days for the adjournment of General Meetings as required by the Companies Act 2006 (Articles 54 and 57)

Explanatory Notes to Resolution 5:

It is proposed by paragraph (i) of resolution 5 to authorise the directors to grant options to employees over shares without first offering them to existing shareholders. Employee options (excluding those which have lapsed) have already been granted over 2,050,233 ordinary shares. This resolution will enable a further 1,000,000 options to be granted taking the total percentage of the Company's issued ordinary share capital which can be placed under option to approximately 10%. Paragraph (iii) of resolution 5 also authorises the directors to allot equity securities for cash without first offering them to existing shareholders in proportion to their holdings, subject to certain limits. This resolution will enable your directors, in appropriate circumstances, to allot for cash (other than in connection with a rights issue or open offer) equity securities with an aggregate nominal value of £75,000, representing approximately 5% of the issued ordinary share capital of the Company. This authority will expire at the conclusion of next year's Annual General Meeting. Save for the issue of shares pursuant to employee options and existing warrants, the Directors have no present intention to allot any part of the unissued share capital of the Company.

The date of this notice is 30 May 2010

By order of the Board

Victor Hall

Company Secretary

Registered Office: Gatwick House, Peeks Brook Lane, Horley, Surrey RH6 9ST

Notes

- 1 Please indicate how you wish your votes to be cast on a poll in respect of the resolutions to be proposed at the said meeting. If you do not indicate how you wish your proxy to use your votes, the proxy will exercise his discretion both as to how he votes and as to whether or not he abstains from voting. Your proxy will have the authority to vote at his discretion on any amendment or other motion proposed at the meeting, including any motion to adjourn the meeting.
- 2 If you prefer to appoint some other person or persons as your proxy, strike out the words "the Chairman of the Meeting, or" and insert in the blank space the name or names preferred and initial the alteration. A proxy need not be a member of the Company. Completion of a form of proxy will not preclude a member from attending and voting in person.
- 3 In the case of joint holders, the signature of the holder whose name stands first in the relevant register of members will suffice as the vote of such holder and shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders. The names of all joint holders should, however, be shown.
- 4 If a member is a corporation, this form must be executed either under its common seal or under the hand of an officer or agent duly authorised in writing. In the case of an individual the proxy must be signed by the appointor or his agent, duly authorized in writing.

This form of proxy has been sent to you by post. It may be returned by post or courier or by hand to the Company's Registrars, Capita Registrars, PXS, 34 Beckenham Road, Beckenham, BR3 4TU. CREST members should use the CREST electronic proxy appointment service and refer to note 5 below in relation to the submission of a proxy appointment via CREST.

In each case the proxy appointment must be received not less than 48 hours before the time for the holding of the meeting or adjourned meeting together (except in the case of appointments made electronically) with any authority (or a notarially certified copy of such authority) under which it is signed.

- 5 CREST members who wish to appoint a proxy or proxies through the CREST electronic proxy appointment service may do so for the annual general meeting to be held on the above date and any adjournment(s) thereof by using the procedures described in the CREST Manual. CREST Personal Members or other CREST sponsored members, and those CREST members who have appointed a voting service provider(s), should refer to their CREST sponsor or voting service provider(s), who will be able to take the appropriate action on their behalf.

In order for a proxy appointment or instruction made using the CREST service to be valid, the appropriate CREST message (a "CREST Proxy Instruction") must be properly authenticated in accordance with Euroclear UK & Ireland Limited's specifications and must contain the information required for such instructions, as described in the CREST Manual. The message, regardless of whether it constitutes the appointment of a proxy or an amendment to the instruction given to a previously appointed proxy must, in order to be valid, be transmitted so as to be received by the Company's agent (ID: RA10) by the latest time(s) for receipt of proxy appointments specified in the notice of meeting. For this purpose, the time of receipt will be taken to be the time (as determined by the timestamp applied to the message by the CREST Applications Host) from which the Company's agent is able to retrieve the message by enquiry to CREST in the manner prescribed by CREST. After this time any change of instructions to proxies appointed through CREST should be communicated to the appointee through other means.

CREST members and, where applicable, their CREST sponsors or voting service providers should note that Euroclear UK & Ireland Limited does not make available special procedures in CREST for any particular messages. Normal system timings and limitations will therefore apply in relation to the input of CREST Proxy Instructions. It is the responsibility of the CREST member concerned to take (or, if the CREST member is a CREST personal member or sponsored member or has appointed a voting service provider(s), to procure that his CREST sponsor or voting service provider(s) take(s)) such action as shall be necessary to ensure that a message is transmitted by means of the CREST system by any particular time. In this connection, CREST members and, where applicable, their CREST sponsors or voting service providers are referred, in particular, to those sections of the CREST Manual concerning practical limitations of the CREST system and timings.

The Company may treat as invalid a CREST Proxy Instruction in the circumstances set out in Regulation 35(5)(a) of the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001.

- 6 To appoint more than one proxy you may photocopy the proxy card form. Please indicate the proxy holder's name and the number of shares in relation to which they are authorized to act as your proxy (which in aggregate, should not exceed the number of shares held by you). Please also indicate if the proxy instruction is one of multiple instructions being given. All forms must be signed and should be returned together in the same envelope.

- 7 The following documents are available for inspection by members at the registered office of the Company on weekdays (except bank holidays) during normal business hours, and at the place of the meeting for not less than 15 minutes prior to and during the meeting
- (i) The register of Director's interests required to be kept under section 325 of the Act, and
 - (ii) Copies of the Director's contracts of service
- 8 The Company specifies, pursuant to Regulation 41 of the Uncertified Securities Regulations 2001, that only those shareholders registered on the register of members of the Company as at 10.30 a.m. on 30 June 2010 or, if the meeting is adjourned, the shareholders entered on the Company's register of members not later than 48 hours before the time fixed for the adjourned meeting shall be entitled to attend or vote at the Annual General Meeting in respect of the number of shares registered in their name at that time. Changes to entries on the register after 10.30 a.m. on 30 June 2010 shall be disregarded in determining the rights of any person to attend or vote at the meeting.

Report and Accounts 2009

DL presented the Report and Accounts and invited questions. It was noted a pre-tax profit of £40,388 had been achieved, which although lower than that of 2008 (£78,956) was a fair achievement in what was regarded as a very challenging and competitive year, with the IABM Industry Index report for April 2010 assessing that some 30% of companies in the sector moved from profit into a loss.

DL then proposed the Report and Accounts for 2009 be accepted, which was seconded by BT. The Report and Accounts were duly approved.

Appointment of Auditors

DL proposed the reappointment of Mazars as the Company auditors as having done a thorough audit of the Company. This was seconded by AL and carried.

Appointment of Andrew Lambourne

DL proposed this motion, seconded by BT. The motion was carried.

Remuneration of the Auditors

BT proposed that the directors of the company be authorised to fix the remuneration of the auditors, seconded by AL. The resolution was approved by the directors and members.

Share options

DL moved a Special Resolution that would empower the directors to offer shares and share options to staff, subject to limits and stated that the Company was committed to the involvement of staff in the equity of the company

Revised Articles of Association

DL proposed a special resolution to update the Articles in order for them to comply with the Companies Act 2006, the specific amendments of which being as listed within the resolution. Sets of both articles (old and new) were distributed at the meeting for comparison. BT then seconded the motion, which was carried.

The formal business of the meeting was then closed board where the equity securities respectively attributable to the interests of all those shareholders are proportionate (as nearly as practicable) to the respective number of Ordinary Shares held by them on that date but the board may make such exclusions or other arrangements as the board considers expedient in relation to fractional entitlements or legal or practical problems under the laws in any territory or the requirements of any relevant regulatory body or stock exchange.

9 Power to pay commission and brokerage

The company may in connection with the issue of any shares exercise all powers of paying commission and brokerage conferred or permitted by the Statutes.

10 Power to increase, consolidate, sub-divide and cancel share capital

10 1 The company may by ordinary resolution:

- 10.1.1 increase its capital by the creation of new shares of such amount as the resolution prescribes,
- 10.1.2 consolidate or consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of a larger amount than its existing shares;
- 10 1.3 sub-divide its shares, or any of them into shares of a smaller amount than is fixed by the Memorandum of Association of the company, but so that the proportion between the amount paid up and the amount (if any) not paid up on each reduced share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the reduced share is derived; and
- 10 1.4 cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled

10 2 A resolution by which any share is sub-divided may determine that, as between the holders of the shares resulting from the sub-division, one or more of the shares may have such preferred or other special rights, or may have such qualified or deferred rights to be subject to such restrictions, as compared with the other or others, as the company has power to attach to new shares

10 3 If as a result of any consolidation of shares any members would become entitled to fractions of a share, the board may deal with the fractions as it thinks fit and in particular may (on behalf of those members) sell the shares representing the fractions to any person (including, subject to the provisions of the Statutes, the company) and distribute the net proceeds of sale in due proportion among those members (except that any proceeds less than a sum fixed by the board may be retained for the benefit of the company). For the purpose of any such sale the board may authorise some person to transfer the shares to or as directed by the purchaser, who shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money; nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings relating to the sale.

11 Power to issue redeemable shares

Subject to the provisions of the Statutes any share may be issued on terms that it is to be redeemed or is liable to be redeemed at the option of the company or the shareholder

12 Power to purchase own shares

Subject to the provisions of the Statutes, the company may purchase all or any of its shares of any class, including any redeemable shares.

13 Power to reduce capital

Subject to the provisions of the Statutes and to any rights conferred on the holders of any class of shares, the company may by special resolution reduce its share capital or any capital redemption reserve, share premium account or other undistributable reserve in any way.

14 Trusts not recognised

Except as required by law or these Articles or as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction, no person shall be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust and the company shall not be bound by or required to recognise (even when having notice of it) any interest or other right in or in respect of any share, except the holder's absolute right to the entirety of the share.

Variation of rights

15 Variation of class rights

- 15.1 Whenever the capital of the company is divided into different classes of shares, all or any of the rights for the time being attached to any class of shares in issue may from time to time (whether or not the company is being wound up) be varied in such manner (if an) as may be provided by those rights or with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths in nominal value of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of those shares
- 15.2 All the provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings of the company or to the proceedings at general meetings shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to ever such separate general meeting, except that:
- 15.2.1 the necessary quorum at any such meeting (other than an adjourned meeting) shall be two persons holding or representing by proxy at least one-third in nominal amount of the issued shares of the class;
 - 15.2.2 at an adjourned meeting the necessary quorum shall be one person holding shares of the class or his proxy;
 - 15.2.3 every holder of shares of the class shall, on a poll, have one vote in respect of every share of the class held by him; and
 - 15.2.4 a poll may be demanded by any one holder of shares of the class whether present in person or by proxy.
- 15.3 Unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of their issue, the rights attached to any class of shares shall not be deemed to be varied or abrogated by:
- 15.3.1 the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu with them but in no respect in priority thereto; or
 - 15.3.2 the purchase by the company of any of its own shares

Share certificates

16 Issue of certificates

- 16.1 A person whose name is entered in the register as the holder of any certificated shares shall be entitled to receive without charge within one month after the allotment to him of those shares or five business days after the lodgement of evidence of his entitlement to shares (or within such other period as the conditions of issue may provide) one certificate for those shares, or one certificate for each class of those shares, but no certificate shall be issued to any member who is a market nominee unless it specifically requests the company to issue one.

16.2 In the case of joint holders, the company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate for all the shares in any particular class registered in their joint names and delivery of a certificate for a share to any one of the joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all.

16.3 Every share certificate shall be executed under seal or as may be otherwise permitted by law and shall specify the number and class of the shares to which it relates and the amount or respective amounts paid upon the shares

17 Charges for and replacement of certificates

17.1 Except as expressly provided to the contrary in these Articles, no fee shall be charged for the issue of a share certificate.

17.2 Any two or more certificates representing shares of any one class held by any member may at his request be cancelled and a single new certificate issued

17.3 Where a member has transferred part only of the shares comprised in a certificate, he shall be entitled without charge to a certificate for the balance of his shares.

17.4 If any member surrenders for cancellation a certificate representing shares held by him and requests the company to issue two or more certificate representing those shares in such proportions as he may specify, the board may, if it thinks fit, comply with the request on payment of such fee (if any) as the board may decide

17.5 In the case of shares held jointly by several persons any such request may be made by any one of the joint holders.

17.6 If a certificate is damaged or defaced or alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, a new certificate representing the same shares may be issued on compliance with such conditions as to evidence and indemnity as the board may think fit without charge (other than exceptional out of pocket expenses) and, if damaged or defaced, on delivery up of the old certificate

Lien on shares

18 Lien on partly paid shares

- 18.1 The company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all amounts payable (whether or not due) in respect of that share. The lien shall extend to every amount payable in respect of that share.
- 18.2 The board may at any time either generally or in any particular case declare any share to be wholly or partly exempt from the provisions of this Article.
- 18.3 Unless otherwise agreed, the registration of a transfer of a share shall operate as a waiver of the company's lien (if any) on that share.

19 Enforcement of lien

- 19.1 The company may sell any share subject to a lien in such manner as the board may decide if any amount payable on the share is due and is not paid within 14 clear days after a notice has been served on the holder or any person entitled by transmission to the share demanding payment of that amount and giving notice of intention to sell in default.
- 19.2 To give effect to any sale under this Article, the board may authorise some person to transfer the share sold to, or in accordance with the directions of, the purchaser and the transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money; nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings connected with the sale.
- 19.3 The net proceeds of the sale, after payment of the costs, shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of the amount due and any residue shall (subject to a like lien for any amounts not presently due as existed on the share before the sale), on surrender of the certificate for the shares sold, be paid to the holder or person entitled by transmission to the share immediately before the sale.

Calls on shares

20 Calls

- 20.1 Subject to the terms of allotment, the board may make calls on the members in respect of any monies unpaid on their shares (whether in respect of nominal amount or premium) and each member shall (subject to his receiving at least 14 clear days' notice specifying when and where payment is to be made) pay to the company as required by the notice the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed as the board may decide.
- 20.2 Any call may be made payable in one sum or by instalments and shall be deemed to be made at the time when the resolution of the board authorising that call is passed
- 20.3 A person on whom a call is made shall remain liable for it notwithstanding the subsequent transfer of the share in respect of which the call is made.
- 20.4 The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of all calls in respect of that share.

21 Interest on calls

If a call is not paid before or on the due date for payment, the person from whom it is due shall pay interest on the amount unpaid from the due date for payment to the date of actual payment at such rate as the board may decide, but the board may waive payment of the interest, wholly or in part

22 Sums treated as calls

A sum which by the terms of allotment of a share is payable on allotment, or at a fixed time, or by instalments at fixed times, shall for all purposes of these Articles be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date or dates fixed for payment and, in case of non-payment, the provisions of these Articles shall apply as if that sum had become payable by virtue of a call.

23 Power to differentiate

On any issue of shares the board may make arrangements for a difference between the allottees or holders of the shares in the amounts and times of payment of calls on their shares

24 Payment of calls in advance

The board may, if it thinks fit, receive all or any part of the monies payable on a share beyond the sum actually called up on it if the holder is willing to make payment in advance and, on any monies so paid in advance, may (until they would otherwise be due) pay interest at such rate as may be agreed between the board and the member paying the sum in advance but no dividend shall be payable in respect of any monies so paid in advance

Forfeiture of shares

25 Notice of unpaid calls

25 1 If the whole or any part of any call or instalment remains unpaid on any shares after the due date for payment, the board may serve a notice on the holder requiring him to pay so much of the call or instalment as remains unpaid, together with any accrued interest.

25 2 The notice shall state a further day, being not less than seven clear days from the date of the notice, on or before which, and the place where, payment is to be made and shall state that, in the event of non-payment on or before the day and at the place appointed, the share in respect of which the call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

25 3 The board may accept a surrender of any share liable to be forfeited

26 Forfeiture following non-compliance with notice

26.1 If the requirements of a notice served under the preceding Article are not complied with, any share in respect of which it was given may (before the payment required by the notice is made) be forfeited by a resolution of the board. The forfeiture shall include all dividends declared and other monies payable in respect of the forfeited share and not actually paid before the forfeiture

26.2 If a share is forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be given to the person who was the holder of the share or (as the case may be) the person entitled to the share by transmission and an entry that notice of the forfeiture has been given, with the relevant date, shall be made in the register; but no forfeiture shall be invalidated by any omission to give such notice or to make such entry.

27 Power to annul forfeiture or surrender

The board may, at any time before the forfeited or surrendered share has been sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture or surrender upon payment of all calls and interest due on or incurred in respect of the share and on such further conditions (if any) as it thinks fit

28 Disposal of forfeited or surrendered shares

28.1 Every share which is forfeited or surrendered shall become the property of the company and (subject to the provisions of the Statutes) may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, upon such terms and in such manner as the board shall decide either to the person who was before the forfeiture the holder of the share or to any other person and whether with or without all or any part of the amount previously paid up on the share being credited as so paid up. The board may for the purposes of a disposal authorise some person to transfer the forfeited or surrendered share to, or in accordance with the directions of, any person to whom the same has been sold or disposed of.

28.2 A statutory declaration by a director or the secretary that a share has been forfeited or surrendered on a specified date shall, as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, be conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it and shall (subject to the execution of any necessary transfer) constitute a good title to the share. The new holder of the share shall not be bound to see to the application of the consideration for the disposal (if any), nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings connected with the forfeiture, surrender, sale, re-allotment or disposal of the share.

29 Arrears to be paid notwithstanding forfeiture or surrender

A person, any of whose shares have been forfeited or surrendered, shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited or surrendered share and shall surrender to the company for cancellation the certificate for the share forfeited or surrendered, but shall remain liable (unless payment is waived in whole or in part by the board) to pay to the company all monies payable by him on or in respect of that share at the time of forfeiture or surrender, together with interest from the time of forfeiture or surrender until payment at such rate as the board shall decide, in the same manner as if the share had not been forfeited or surrendered. He shall also be liable to satisfy all the claims and demands (if any) which the company might have enforced in respect of the share at the time of forfeiture or surrender. No deduction or allowance shall be made for the value of the share at the time of forfeiture or surrender or for any consideration received on its disposal. The forfeiture of any shares or group of shares will not affect any members rights in respect of previously allocated and paid shares.

Untraced members

30 Sale of shares of untraced members

- 30 1 The company may sell any share of a member, or any share to which a person is entitled by transmission, by giving to a person authorised to conduct business on the London Stock Exchange an instruction to sell it at the best price reasonably obtainable, if:
- 30 1 1 during the relevant period at least three dividends have become payable in respect of the share to be sold and have been sent by the company in accordance with Article 117;
 - 30.1 2 no dividend payable during the relevant period in respect of the share has been claimed;
 - 30.1.3 during the relevant period no warrant or cheque in respect of the share sent to the registered address and in the manner provided by these Articles for sending such payments has been cashed;
 - 30.1.4 during the relevant period no communication has been received by the company from the member or the person entitled by transmission to the share, the company having made an attempt, in writing, to contact the member at the time of each issued dividend cheque, as per clause 30.1 1 and in accordance with Article 117,
 - 30 1.5 after expiry of the relevant period the company has published advertisements in both a national newspaper and in a newspaper circulating in the area in which the registered address is located, in each case giving notice of its intention to sell the share;
 - 30 1.6 during the period of three months following the publication of those advertisements and after that period until the exercise of the power to sell the share, the company has not received any communication from the member or the person entitled by transmission to the share.

For the purposes of this Article 30 1 the "relevant period" means the period of 12 years immediately preceding the date of publication of the first of any advertisement published pursuant to Article 30 1 5.

30.2 The company's power of sale shall extend to any further share which on or before the date of publication of the first advertisement published pursuant to Article 30.1.5, is issued in right of a share to which Article 30.1 applies (or in right of any share to which this Article 30.2 applies) if the conditions set out in Articles 30.1.1 to 30.1.6 (inclusive) have been satisfied in relation to the further share since the date of allotment of the further share but for this purpose the relevant period shall be deemed to be the period commencing on the date of allotment of the further share and ending immediately prior to the publication of the first advertisement published pursuant to Article 30.1.5.

30.3 To give effect to any sale, the board may authorise some person to transfer the share to, or in accordance with the directions of, the purchaser and the new holder of the share shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money; nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity in, or invalidity of, the proceedings connected with the sale.

31 Application of proceeds of sale

31.1 The company shall account to the person entitled to the share at the date of sale for a sum equal to the net proceeds of sale and shall be deemed to be his debtor, and not a trustee for him, in respect of them

31.2 Pending payment of the net proceeds of sale to such person, the proceeds may either be employed in the business of the company or invested in such investments (other than shares of the company or its holding company, if any) as the board may from time to time decide

31.3 No interest shall be payable in respect of the net proceeds and the company shall not be required to account for any monies earned on the net proceeds.

32 Right to suspend posting of notices

If on two consecutive occasions notices or other documents have been sent through the post to any member at his registered address but have been returned undelivered, such a member shall not from then on be entitled to receive notices or other documents from the company until he shall have communicated with the company and supplied in writing or, if the board agrees, by electronic communication a new registered address within the United Kingdom

Transfer of shares

33 Right to transfer shares

Subject to these Articles, a member may transfer all or any of his shares in any manner which is permitted by the Statutes or in any other manner which is from time to time approved by the board.

34 Transfer of certificated shares

A transfer of a certificated share shall be in writing in the usual common form or in any other form permitted by the Statutes or approved by the board. The instrument of transfer shall be signed by or on behalf of the transferor and, if the certificated share is not fully paid, by or on behalf of the transferee.

35 Transfer of uncertificated shares

Subject to these Articles, a member may transfer an uncertificated share by means of the relevant system or in any other manner which is permitted by the Statutes and is from time to time approved by the board.

36 Power to refuse registration of transfers of certificates shares

36.1 The board may, in its absolute discretion and without giving any reason, refuse to register any transfer of a certificated share of any class which is not fully paid provided that, where any such shares are admitted to the Official List of the UK Listing Authority, such discretion may not be exercised in such a way as to prevent dealings in the shares of that class from taking place on an open and proper basis.

36.2 The board may also refuse to register any transfer of a certificated share unless the transfer is in respect of one class of shares and is in favour of no more than four transferees and the instrument of transfer, duly stamped, is deposited at the office or such other place as the board may appoint, accompanied by the certificate for the shares to which it relates if it has been issued, and such other evidence as the board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer.

37 Power to refuse registration of transfer of uncertificated shares

The board may refuse to register any transfer of an uncertificated share where permitted by the Regulations.

38 Other provisions on transfers

38.1 The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the shares transferred until the name of the transferee is entered in the register in respect of those shares.

38 2 No fee shall be charged in respect of the registration of any transfer, probate, letters of administration or other document or instruction relating to or affecting the title to any shares.

38 3 Any instrument or transfer which is registered shall, subject to Article 137, be retained by the company, but any instrument of transfer which the board refuses to register shall (except in any case of fraud) be returned to the person depositing the same.

39 Notice of refusal of transfer

If the directors refuse to register a transfer they shall send to the transferee notice of the refusal:

39.1 in the case of a certificated share, within two months of the date on which the transfer was lodged with the company, or

39.2 in the case of an uncertificated share which is transferred by means of a relevant system to a person who is to hold it thereafter in certificated form, within two months of the date on which an instruction in respect of such transfer was duly received by the company through the relevant system

40 Closure of register

Subject to compliance with the Statutes, the register may be closed at such times and for such periods as the board in its absolute discretion may from time to time determine, provided that

40 1 the register shall not be closed for more than 30 days in any year and

40 2 where any class of shares is a participating security, the content of the Operator of the relevant system shall be obtained to the closing of the register in respect of that class of security

41 Branch register

41 1 Subject to the extent permitted by the Statutes, the company or the directors on behalf of the company may cause to be kept in any territory a branch register of members resident in such territory and the board may make and vary such regulations as it thinks fit respecting the keeping of any such register.

41.2 A member of the company who holds a share in uncertificated form shall not be entered as the holder of that share on an overseas branch register.

42 Renunciation of allotment

Nothing in these Articles shall preclude the board from recognising a renunciation of the allotment of any share by the allottee in favour of some other person.

Transmission of shares

43 Transmission on death

If a member dies, the survivor, where the deceased was a joint holder, and his personal representatives where he was a sole or the only surviving holder, shall be the only person or persons recognised by the company as having any title to his shares, but nothing in these Articles shall release the estate of a deceased holder from any liability in respect of any share held by him solely or jointly. In the event of the member dying intestate, and with no recognised beneficiaries to their estate, then the shares shall automatically transfer back to the company.

44 Election of person entitled by transmission

44.1 A person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member or of any other event giving rise to a transmission by operation of law may, on producing such evidence as the board may require and subject as provided in this Article, elect either to be registered himself as the holder of the share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the holder of the share.

44.2 If he elects to be registered himself, he shall give to the company a notice signed by him to that effect. If he elects to have another person registered, he shall execute a transfer of the share to that person.

44.3 A person entitled by transmission to a share in uncertificated form who elects to have some other person registered as the holder of the share shall either

44.3.1 procure that instructions are given by means of a relevant system to effect transfer of such uncertificated share to that person; or

44.3.2 change the uncertificated share into certificated form and execute an instrument of transfer of that certificated share to that person.

44.4 All the provisions of these Articles relating to the transfer of shares shall apply to the notice or instrument of transfer as if it were an instrument of transfer signed by the person from whom the title by transmission is derived and the death or bankruptcy of the member had not occurred

45 Rights of person entitled by transmission

- 45.1 A person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of a death or bankruptcy of a member or of any other event giving rise to a transmission by operation of law shall have the right to receive and give a discharge for any dividends or other monies payable in respect of the share and shall have the same rights in relation to the share as he would have if he were the holder except that, until he becomes the holder, he shall not be entitled to attend or vote at any meeting of the company or any separate general meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the company
- 45.2 The board may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share and, if after 90 days the notice has not been complied with, the board may withhold payment of all dividends or other monies payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with

Uncertificated shares

46 Uncertificated shares - general powers

- 46.1 Notwithstanding anything in these Articles to the contrary, any share may be issued, held, registered, converted to or transferred in uncertificated form and may be converted from uncertificated form to certificated form in accordance with the Regulations and the requirements and practices of the Operator of the relevant system
- 46.2 In relation to any share which is for the time being held in uncertificated form:
- 46.2.1 the company may utilise the relevant system in which it is held to the fullest extent available from time to time in the exercise of any of its powers or functions under the Statutes or these Articles or otherwise in effecting any actions and the board may from time to time determine the manner in which such powers, functions and actions shall be so exercised or effected,
- 46.2.2 any provision in these Articles which is inconsistent with
- 46.2.2.1 the holding or transfer of that share in the manner prescribed or permitted by the Statutes;
- 46.2.2.2 any other provision of the Statutes relating to shares held in uncertificated form, or
- 46.2.2.3 the exercise of any powers or functions by the company or the effecting by the company of any actions by means of a relevant system,

shall not apply,

46.2.3 the company may, by notice to the holder of any such share, require the holder to convert such share into certificated form within such period as may be specified in the notice or, alternatively, may, to the extent permitted by the Regulations, give notice to the Operator of the relevant system requiring such share to be converted into certificated form

46.2 4 the company shall not issue a certificate.

46 3 The company shall enter on the issuer register of members the number of shares which are held by each member in certificated form.

46 4 Unless the board otherwise determines, holdings of the same holder or joint holders in certificated form and uncertificated form shall be treated as separate holdings

46.5 References in these Articles to a requirement to execute or deliver an instrument of transfer or certificate or other document which shall not be appropriate in the case of uncertificated shares shall, in the case of uncertificated shares, be treated as references to a requirement to comply with any relevant requirements of the relevant system and any relevant arrangements or regulations which the board may make from time to time pursuant to Article 46.8

46 6 A class of share shall not be treated as two classes by virtue only of that class comprising both certificated shares and uncertificated shares or as a result of any provision of these Articles or the Regulations which applies only in respect of certificated shares or uncertificated shares

46 7 References in these Articles to instruments of transfer shall, so far as may be consistent with the Regulations and the requirements of the relevant system, include, in relation to uncertificated shares, instructions and/or notifications made in accordance with the relevant system relating to the transfer of such shares.

- 46 8 Subject to the Regulations and the requirements of the relevant system, the board may make such arrangements or regulations (if any) as it may from time to time in its absolute discretion think fit in relation to the evidencing and transfer of uncertificated shares or otherwise for the purpose of implementing and/or supplementing the provisions of this Article and the Regulations and the facilities and requirements of the relevant system and such arrangements and regulations (as the case may be) shall have the same effect as if set out in this Article.
- 46.9 The board may resolve that a class of shares is to become a participating security and may at any time determine that a class of shares shall cease to be a participating security
- 46 10 Where any class of shares in the capital of the company is a participating security and the company is entitled under any provisions of the Statutes or the rules made and practices instituted by the Operator of any relevant system or under these Articles to dispose of, forfeit, enforce a lien or sell or otherwise procure the sale of any share which is held in uncertificated form, such entitlement (to the extent permitted by the Regulations and the rules made and practices instituted by the Operator of the relevant system) shall include the right to
- 46.10 1 request or require the deletion of any entries in the Operator register of members, and/or
- 46 10 2 require any holder of any uncertificated share which is the subject of any exercise by the company of any such entitlement, by notice in writing to the holder concerned, to change his holding of such uncertificated share into certificated form within such period as may be specified in the notice, prior to completion of any disposal, sale or transfer of such share or direct the holder to take such steps, by instructions given by means of a relevant system or otherwise, as may be necessary to sell or transfer such share; and/or
- 46.10.3 appoint any person to take such other steps, by instruction given by means of a relevant system or otherwise, in the name of the holder of such share as may be required to effect a transfer of such share and such steps shall be as effective as if they had been taken by the registered holder of the uncertificated share concerned; and/or

- 46.10.4 otherwise rectify or change the issuer register of members in respect of that share in such manner as may be appropriate, and/or
- 46.10 5 take such other action as may be necessary to enable that share to be registered in the name of the person to whom the share has been sold or disposed of or as directed by him

Disclosure of interests in shares

47 Disclosure of interests in shares

- 47.1 This Article applies where the company gives to the holder of a share or to any person appearing to be interested in a share a notice requiring any of the information mentioned in section 793 of the Act ("a section 793 notice").
- 47.2 If a section 793 notice is given by the company to a person appearing to be interested in any share, a copy shall at the same time be given to the holder, but the accidental omission to do so or the non-receipt of the copy by the holder shall not prejudice the operation of the following provisions of this Article 47
- 47 3 If the holder of, or any person appearing to be interested in, any share has been served with a section 793 notice and, in respect of that share (a "default share"), has been in default for a period of 14 days after service of the section 793 notice in supplying to the company the information required by the section 793 notice, the restrictions referred to below shall apply Those restrictions shall continue for the period specified by the board provided that such period shall end not later than seven days after the earliest of:
 - 47 3.1 due compliance to the satisfaction of the board with the section 793 notice; or
 - 47.3 2 receipt by the company of notice that the shareholding has been sold to a third party pursuant to an arm's length transfer.

The board may waive all or any of such restrictions
- 47 4 The restrictions referred to above are as follows:
 - 47.4 1 if the default shares in which any one person is interested or appears to the company to be interested represent less than 0.25% of the issued shares of the class, the holders of the default shares shall not be entitled, in respect of those shares, to attend and vote at a general meeting of the company, either personally or by proxy, or

47.4.2 if the default shares in which any one person is interested or appears to the company to be interested represent at least 0.25% of the issued shares of the class, the holders of the default shares shall not be entitled, in respect of those shares:

47.4.2.1 to attend and vote at a general meeting of the company, either personally or by proxy, or

47.4.2.2 to receive any dividend (including shares issued in lieu of dividend), or

47.4.2.3 to transfer or agree to transfer any of those shares or any rights in them

The restrictions in this Article 47.4 shall not prejudice the right of either the member holding the default shares or, if different, any person having a power of sale over those shares to sell or agree to sell those shares under an arm's length transfer

47.5 If any dividend is withheld under Article 47.4.2.2 the member shall be entitled to receive it as soon as practicable after the restriction contained in Article 47.4.2.2 shall cease to apply

47.6 If, while any of the restrictions referred to above apply to a share, another share is allotted as of right pursuant to the rights attached to such share, the same restrictions shall apply to that other share as if it were a default share. For this purpose, shares which the company allots, or procures to be offered, pro rata (disregarding fractional entitlements and shares not offered to certain members by reason of legal or practical problems associated with issuing or offering shares outside the United Kingdom) to holders of shares of the same class as the default share shall be treated as shares allotted in right of existing shares from the date on which the allotment is unconditional or, in the case of shares so offered, the date of the acceptance of the offer.

47.7 For the purposes of this Article:

47.7.1 an "arm's length transfer" in relation to any shares is a transfer pursuant to:

- 47.7.1.1 A sale of the whole of the beneficial ownership of those shares to a bona fide third party unconnected with the member or with any person appearing to be interested in such shares including any such sale on a recognised investment exchange or on any stock exchange outside the United Kingdom on which the shares are listed or normally traded, or
- 47.7.1.2 A takeover offer (being an offer made to all the holders, or all the holders other than the person making the offer and his nominees, of the shares in the company to acquire those shares or a specified proportion of them or to all the holders, or all the holders other than the person making the offer and his nominees, of a particular class of those shares to acquire the shares of that class or a specified proportion of them) which relates to those shares;
- 47.7.2 the percentage of the issued shares of a class represented by a particular holding shall be calculated by reference to the shares in issue at the time when the section 793 notice is given, and
- 47.7.3 a person shall be treated as appearing to be interested in any share if the company has given to the member holding such share a section 793 notice and either (i) the member has named the person as being interested in the share or (ii) (after taking in to account any response to any section 793 notice and any other relevant information) the company knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the person in question is or may be interested in the share.
- 47.8 The provisions of this Article 47 are without prejudice to the provisions of section 794 of the Act and, in particular, the company may apply to the court under section 794(1) of the Act whether or not the provisions of this Article 47 apply or have been applied.

50.2 An extraordinary general meeting may also be convened in accordance with Article 91.

50.3 An extraordinary general meeting shall also be convened by the board on the requisition of members pursuant to the provisions of the Statutes or, in default, may be convened by such requisitions, as provided by the Statutes.

50.4 The board shall comply with the provisions of the Statutes regarding the giving and the circulation, on the requisition of members, of notices of resolutions and of statements with respect to matters relating to any resolution to be proposed or business to be dealt with at any general meeting of the company.

51 Orderly conduct of meetings

51.1 The board may both prior to and during any general meeting make any arrangements and impose any restrictions which it considers appropriate to ensure the security and/or the orderly conduct of any such general meeting, including, without limitation, arranging for any person attending any such meeting to be searched, for items of personal property which may be taken into any such meeting to be restricted and for any person (whether or not a member of the company) who refuses to comply with any such arrangements or restrictions to be refused entry to or excluded from any such meeting.

51.2 The chairman of any general meeting of the company shall take such action as he thinks fit to promote the orderly conduct of the business of the meeting as laid down in the notice of the meeting, including, without limitation, asking any person or persons (whether or not a member or members of the company) to leave the meeting and, if necessary, having such person or persons excluded from the meeting. The decision of the chairman on matters relating to the orderly conduct of a meeting and on any other matters of procedure or arising incidentally from the business of the meeting shall be final as shall be his determination, acting in good faith, as to whether any matter is of such nature. Nothing in this Article 50.2 shall limit any other power vested in the chairman.

- 51.3 The board may make such arrangements as it shall in its absolute discretion consider to be appropriate for any of the following purposes.
- 51.3.1 to regular the level of attendance at any place specified for the holding of a general meeting or any adjournment of such a meeting, or
 - 51.3.2 to ensure the safety of people attending at any such place; or
 - 51.3.3 to facilitate attendance at such meeting or adjournment;
- and may from time to time vary any such arrangements or make new arrangements in their place. Such arrangements may include, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the issue of tickets or the use of some random means of selection or otherwise as the board shall consider to be appropriate.
- 51.4 The board may when specifying the place of the meeting:
- 51.4.1 direct that the meeting shall be held at a place specified in the notice ("Main Meeting Place") at which the chairman of the meeting shall preside; and
 - 51.4.2 make arrangements for simultaneous attendance and participation at another place or other places by members and proxies otherwise entitled to attend the general meeting but excluded from it under the provisions of this Article 50 or who wish to attend at the other place or any of such other places.51.5
- 51.5 Such arrangements for simultaneous attendance may include arrangements for regulating the level of attendance in the manner aforesaid at the other place or any of such other places.
- 51.6 For the purposes of all other provisions of these Articles (unless the context requires otherwise) the members shall be deemed to be meeting in one place, and that shall be the Main Meeting Place.

Notice of general meetings

52 Length and form of notice

- 52.1 An annual general meeting and an extraordinary general meeting called for the passing of a special resolution or a resolution appointing a person as a director shall be called by not less than 21 clear days' notice. All other extraordinary general meetings shall be called by not less than 14 clear days' notice.

- 52.2 The notice shall specify the place, day and time of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted.
- 52.3 Notice of every general meeting shall be given to all members other than any who, under the provisions of these Articles or the terms of issue of the shares which they hold, are not entitled to receive such notices from the company, and also to the auditors (or, if more than one, each of them) and to each director.
- 52.4 Every notice of meeting shall state with reasonable prominence that a member entitled to attend and vote at the meeting may appoint one or more proxies to attend and (on a poll) vote at that meeting instead of him and that a proxy need not be a member of the company.

53 Omission or non-receipt of notice

The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice by, any person entitled to receive the notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

Proceedings at general meetings

54 Quorum

- 54.1 No business, other than the appointment of a chairman, shall be transacted at any general meeting unless the requisite quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business
- 54.2 Except as otherwise provided by these Articles two members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote on a poll shall be a quorum
- 54.3 If within 15 minutes from the time appointed for the holding of a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case, it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week (or, if that day is not a business day, to the next business day) and at the same time and place, as the original meeting, or to such other day, and at such other time and place, as the board may decide and in the latter case not less than ten clear days' notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in any manner in which notice of a meeting may lawfully be given for the time being
- 54.4 If at an adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within 15 minutes from the time fixed for holding the meeting, any two members who are present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote on a poll shall be a quorum, failing which the meeting shall be dissolved.

55 Chairman

At each general meeting, the chairman of the board or, if he is absent or unwilling, the deputy chairman (if any) of the board or (if more than one deputy chairman is present and willing) the deputy chairman who has been longest in such office or, if no deputy chairman is present and willing, then one of the other directors who is appointed for the purpose by the board or (failing appointment by the board), by the members present, shall preside as chairman of the meeting, but if no director is present within 15 minutes after the time fixed for holding the meeting or, if none of the directors present is willing to preside, the members present and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to preside as chairman of the meeting.

56 Directors entitled to attend and speak

Whether or not he is a member, a director shall be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting of the company and at any separate general meeting of the holders of any class of shares of the company.

57 Adjournment

57 1 With the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present the chairman of the meeting may (and if so directed by the meeting shall) adjourn the meeting from time to time or sine die and from place to place

57.2 In addition, the chairman of the meeting may at any time without the consent of the meeting adjourn the meeting (whether or not it has commenced or a quorum is present) to another time and/or place if, in his opinion, it would facilitate the conduct of the business of the meeting to do so

57 3 Nothing in this Article 57 shall limit any other power vested in the chairman to adjourn the meeting.

57 4 Whenever a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, at least ten clear days' notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in any manner in which notice of a meeting may lawfully be given for the time being but otherwise no person shall be entitled to any notice of any adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting

57 5 No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

58 Method of voting and demand for poll

58 1 At a general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless (before or immediately after the declaration of the result of the show of hands or on the withdrawal of any other demand for a poll) a poll is demanded by.

58.1.1 the chairman of the meeting; or

58 1.2 at least three members present in person or by proxy having the right to vote on the resolution, or

58.1.3 a member or members present in person or by proxy representing in aggregate not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote on the resolution, or

58.1.4 a member or members present in person or by proxy holding shares conferring the right to vote on the resolution on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right;

and a demand for a poll by a person as proxy for a member shall be as valid as if the demand were made by the member himself

58.2 No poll may be demanded on the appointment of a chairman of the meeting.

58 3 A demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn but only with the consent of the chairman of the meeting and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.

58 4 Unless a poll is demanded (and the demand is not withdrawn), a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has been carried, or carried unanimously, or has been carried by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, shall be conclusive, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of that fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution

59 Taking a poll

- 59.1 If a poll is demanded (and the demand is not withdrawn), it shall be taken at such time (either at the meeting at which the poll is demanded or within 30 days after the meeting), at such place and in such manner as the chairman of the meeting shall direct and he may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members)
- 59.2 A poll demanded on a question of adjournment shall be taken at the meeting without adjournment
- 59.3 It shall not be necessary (unless the chairman of the meeting otherwise directs) for notice to be given of a poll whether taken at or after the meeting at which it was demanded.
- 59.4 On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy and a member entitled to more than one vote need not use all his votes or case all the votes he uses in the same way.
- 59.5 The result of the poll shall be deemed to be a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

60 Continuance of business after demand for poll

The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded

61 Chairman's casting vote

In the case of an equality of votes, either on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place, or at which the poll is demanded, as the case may be, shall be entitled to a further or casting vote in addition to any vote or votes to which he may be entitled, such vote being limited to any exclusions by statute in force from time to time

Votes of members

62 Voting rights

Subject to the provisions of these Articles and to any special rights or restrictions as to voting for the time being attached to any shares

- 62.1 on a show of hands, every member who (being an individual) is present in person or (being a corporation) is present by a duly authorised representative, not being himself a member, shall have one vote; and
- 62.2 on a poll, every member who is present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for every Ordinary Share in the company held by him.

63 Representation of corporations

Any corporation which is a member of the company may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise any person to act as its representative at any meeting of the company or of any class of members of the company; and the representative shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as that corporation could exercise if it were an individual member present at the meeting in person, including (without limitation) power to vote on a show of hands or on a poll and to demand or concur in demanding a poll

64 Voting rights of joint holders

If more than one of the joint holders of a share tenders a vote on the same resolution, whether personally or by proxy, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote shall be accepted to the exclusion of the vote(s) of the other joint holder(s); and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register in respect of the relevant share.

65 Voting rights of members incapable of managing their affairs

A member in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction (whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) in matters concerning mental disorder may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his receiver, curator bonis or other person in the nature of a receiver or curator bonis appointed by that court, and the receiver, curator bonis or other person may, on a poll, vote by proxy. Evidence to the satisfaction of the board of the authority of the person claiming the right to vote shall be produced at the office (or at such other place as may be specified for the deposit of instruments appointing a proxy) not later than the last time by which an instrument appointing a proxy must be deposited in order to be valid for use at the meeting or adjourned meeting or on the holding of the poll at or on which that person proposes to vote and, in default, the right to vote shall not be exercisable.

66 Voting rights suspended where sums overdue

Unless the board otherwise decides, a member shall not be entitled to vote, either in person or by proxy, at any general meeting or at any separate general meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the company in respect of any shares held by him unless all calls and other sums presently payable by him in respect of that share have been paid.

67 Objections to admissibility of votes

No objection shall be raised as to the admissibility of any vote except at the meeting or adjourned meeting or poll at which the vote objected to is or may be given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting or poll shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

Proxies

68 Proxies

- 68.1 A proxy need not be a member of the company and a member may appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion
- 68.2 Deposit of an instrument of proxy shall not preclude a member from attending and voting in person at the meeting or on the poll concerned.
- 68.3 Without prejudice to Article 70.2, no instrument or proxy shall be valid except for the meeting or meetings mentioned in it (including on any poll demanded at any such meeting).
- 68.4 An instrument of proxy is valid for 12 months from the date of execution.

69 Form of proxy

- 69.1 The appointment of a proxy shall be in any usual or common form or any other form which the board shall from time to time approve or accept or in any other form permitted by law.
- 69.2 An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing signed by the appointor, or his agent duly authorised in writing, or, if the appointor is a corporation, shall either be executed under its common seal or be signed by some agent or officer authorised for that purpose. - 69.3 The signature on an instrument appointing a proxy need not be witnessed.
- 69.4 A proxy may be appointed by an electronic communication sent to such address as may be notified by or on behalf of the company for that purpose or by any other lawful means from time to time authorised by the board. Any method of appointing a proxy which is authorised by or pursuant to this paragraph shall be subject to such terms, restrictions, limitations or conditions as the board may from time to time prescribe

70 Deposit of proxy

- 70.1 An instrument appointing a proxy:
 - 70.1.1 shall be received at the office (or at such other place or address as may be specified in the notice convening the meeting or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the company in relation to the meeting) at least 48 hours before the time fixed for holding the meeting at which it is to be used; or

70 1.2 in the case of a poll taken more than 48 hours after it is demanded or in the case of an adjourned meeting to be held more than 48 hours after the time fixed for holding the original meeting, shall be received at the office (or at such other place or address as may be specified in the notice convening the meeting or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the company in relation to the meeting) at least 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll or, as the case may be, the time fixed for holding the adjourned meeting; or

70.1.3 in the case of a poll which is not taken at the meeting at which it is demanded but is taken 48 hours or less after it is demanded, or in the case of an adjourned meeting to be held 48 hours or less after the time fixed for holding the original meeting, shall be delivered at the meeting at which the poll is demanded or, as the case may be, at the original meeting, to the chairman of the meeting or to the secretary or to any director or as directed at the meeting by the chairman of the meeting, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid

70 2 An instrument of proxy shall, unless the contrary is stated therein, be valid for any adjournment of any meeting to which it relates and for any poll arising from any such meeting or adjourned meeting

70 3 An instrument of proxy relating to more than one meeting (including any adjournment thereof) having once been so received for the purposes of any meeting shall not require again to be received for the purposes of any subsequent meeting to which it relates.

70.4 In the case of an instrument in writing signed by an agent of a member who is not a corporation, there shall also be received, in the manner set out in Article 69.1, the authority under which the instrument is signed or an office copy of it or a copy of it certified in accordance with section 3 of the Powers of Attorney Act 1971 or any subsequent replacement legislation of that Act in force.

corporation, the directors may also require there to be received, in the manner set out in Article 69.1, the authority under which the instrument is signed, or a notarially certified copy of it, or such other authorities or documents as shall be specified in the notice of the relevant meeting or in any instrument of proxy issued by the company in connection with the relevant meeting

- 70.6 In the case of an instrument of proxy in writing, if the instrument of proxy and any of the documents required under Article 69.4 or Article 69.5 are not received in the manner required above, the person named in the instrument of proxy shall not be entitled to vote in respect of the shares in question.

- 70.10 From time to time the directors may (consistently with the Statutes and these Articles) make such regulations and establish such procedures as they consider appropriate to receive and verify the appointment of a proxy or the notice of revocation of a proxy. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing any such regulations may authorise the directors or any person or persons appointed by them for the purpose conclusively to determine any matter or dispute relating to the appointment or revocation or purported appointment or revocation of a proxy or any instruction contained or purporting to be contained in any such appointment. The directors may modify or revoke any such regulations from time to time as they think fit but without prejudice to the validity of any valid appointment or revocation of a proxy in existence at the date of any such modification or revocation.

- 71.2 If two or more valid but differing appointments of a proxy contained in electronic communications are received by the company in respect of the same share for use at the same meeting or poll, the appointment which is last received (regardless of the time of its transmission) shall be treated as replacing and revoking the other such appointment or appointments

71 3 If a valid instrument of proxy in writing is deposited as required by Article 70 and valid appointment of a proxy contained in an electronic communication is received by the company in respect of the same share for use at the same meeting or poll, the appointment which is last so deposited or received (regardless of its date or the date of its execution or of the time of its transmission) shall be treated as replacing and revoking the other such appointment or appointments.

- 123.10 The board may from time to time establish or vary a procedure for election mandates, under which a holder of shares may, in respect of any future dividends for which a right of election pursuant to this Article 123 is offered, elect to receive shares in lieu of such dividend on the terms of such mandate.
