Notes

- 1 "Director" includes any person who occupies the position of a director, by whatever name called, and any person in accordance with whose directions or instructions the directors of the company are accustomed to act.
- 2 For an individual, his present Christian name(s) and surname must be given together with any previous Christian name(s) or surnames.

"Christian name" includes a forename. In the case of a peer or person usually known by a title different from his surname, "surname" means that title. In the case of a corporation, its corporate name must be given.

A previous Christian name or surname need not be given if —

- 1(a) in the case of a married woman it was a name by which she was known before her marriage; or
- 1(b) it was changed or raised to be used at least 20 years ago, or before the present Christian name used is reached the age of 18; or
- 1(c) in the case of a peer or a person usually known by a British title different from his surname, it was a name by which he was known before he adopted the title or succeeded to it.

- 2 Where all the partners in a firm are joint secretaries, only the firm's name and its principal office need be given.

Where the secretary or one of the joint secretaries is a Scottish firm give only the firm name and its principal office.

- 4 Usual residential address must be given. In the case of a corporation, give the registered or principal office.
- 5 Date of birth need only be given if the company making the return is —
  - 1(a) a public company
  - 1(b) the subsidiary of a public company, or
  - 1(c) the subsidiary of a public company registered in Northern Ireland
- 6 The names must be given of all bodies corporate incorporated in Great Britain of which the director is also a director or has been a director at any time during the preceding five years.

However a director or past directorship need not be disclosed if it is, or had been held in a body corporate which, throughout that directorship, has been —

  - 2(a) a dormant company which is a company which has had no transactions required to be entered in the company's accounting records, except any which may have arisen from the holding of shares in the company by a subscriber to the memorandum as such;
  - 2(b) a body corporate of which the company making the return was a wholly-owned subsidiary
  - 2(c) a wholly-owned subsidiary of the company making the return or
- 7 If the space available is insufficient, the names and particulars must be entered on the prescribed continuation sheets.
- 8 The address for companies registered in England and Wales or Wales is —
