The Transaction - Overview

On 12 October 2018, immediately following the appointment of the Joint Administrators to the Companies, the business and assets of American Golf and Online were sold to the American Golf (Trading) Limited, a company ultimately owned by Endless LLP, which is a private equity fund ("the Purchaser").

The Transaction consideration is £6.5m.

The Purchaser is a third party investor and not connected to the AGDC Group.

Under the terms of the Transaction, the majority of employees transferred to the Purchaser.

The purpose of an administration under The Enterprise Act 2002 is split into three parts:

- To rescue a company as a going concern (in other words, a restructuring which keeps the actual entity intact).
- If the first purpose is not reasonably practicable (or the second purpose would clearly be better for the creditors as a whole), then the Administrators must perform their functions with the objective of achieving a better result for creditors as a whole than would be obtained through an immediate liquidation of the company. This would normally envisage a sale of the business and assets as a going concern (or a more orderly sales process than in liquidation).
- If neither of the first two parts of the purpose are reasonably practicable, the Administrators must perform their functions with the objective of realising property in order to make a distribution to secured and/or preferential creditors as applicable.

In this case, the purpose of the administration was to achieve a better result for creditors as a whole than would be obtained through an immediate liquidation.

The main reasons for this are:

 The short timeframe available to deliver a solution (c, 3 weeks);

- the lack of tangible realisable assets given a significant level of ROT on inventory;
- the recent financial performance of the Group;
- the significant additional funding requirement identified by Management for the Group to continue to trade on a solvent basis; and
- given this context, the conclusion that a refinance of the debt was not possible to achieve.

The purpose of the administration has been achieved through the Transaction, as this allowed for the continuity of the business, the resultant mitigation of creditor claims and an enhanced value achieved for assets, notably goodwill, compared to an immediate liquidation.

Rationale for the Transaction

We confirm that we have acted with due regard for all creditors' interests and that the outcome achieved was the best available outcome for creditors as a whole in the circumstances.

The rationale for the Transaction, being delivered as a pre-packaged sale from administration, is as follows:

- The Secured Lenders (with combined debt of c. £30m) consented to the Transaction;
- The majority of staff, including Directors, were transferred via Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) ("TUPE") to the Purchaser, which minimised preferential creditors;
- Disruption to customers was minimised;
- A comprehensive and appropriate marketing exercise targeted at both financial and trade buyers was conducted within the time available and under the circumstances faced; and
- A trading administration was likely to be challenging and require funding which may not have been be recovered. Any trading would have required continued support from the supplier base, many of whom may have valid ROT over stock. The delivery risk would therefore be very high.

Group overview

- The Group had two trading entities, American Golf and Online. Both entities trade under the American Golf brand. Holdings is the holding company and the immediate parent of American Golf.
- The ultimate controlling party of the AGDC Group is Sun.
- Together, the trading entities were golf sports retailers, offering products such as clubs, equipment, clothing and footwear.
- Retail operated from 132 stores throughout the UK and Ireland and employed 1,023 staff across the network with it head office in Warrington, Cheshire.
- Online traded through websites (www.americangolf.co.uk, www.onlinegolf.co.uk). It employed 30 staff. Logistics and fulfilment operations were out-sourced to a third party provider.
- At appointment the Group had outstanding secured debt due to Royal Bank of Scotland plc ("RBS") of a £6.1m term loan and £23m of Secured Loan Notes due to WTS Bidco Ltd ("WTS").

Background and recent events

- The Group incurred an operating loss of £1.1m in FY18 and £1.5m for the 7 months to August 2018.
- The Group's Management identified a significant funding requirement to support the implementation of a turnarounce plan to address current trading under-performance, and to support the Group through the seasonal low winter period.
- Management put forward a request to Sun to address the funding requirement but were informed on 21 September 2018 that further funding would not be provided. RBS had previously confirmed it would not be in a position to provide further funding.
- During this period, the Group was also in breach of its banking covenants and, as a result, access to the RCF and overdraft facilities provided by RBS, which totalled c. £6m, were blocked, which further impacted on the short term funding shortfall.
- In late September 2018, Deloitte was engaged to undertake an accelerated AMA process with a view to finding a buyer for the AGDC Group.
- In early October 2018, certain Merchant Service providers started to withhold funds otherwise due to the Group which exacerbated the liquidity position and resulted in a requirement to complete the Transaction by 12 October 2018.

Debt and security structure

- At Appointment, AGDC Group was funded by:
- RBS facilities comprising of a £6.1m term loan, an undrawn (and blocked) RCF facility of £4.5m and an undrawn (and blocked) overdraft facility of £1.5m; and
- £23m of secured loan notes provided by WTS, a holding company ultimately controlled by Sun.
- The RBS lending is secured by full debenture security (including fixed and floating charges), dated 27 June 2012 and 6 December 2017, granted by American Golf and Online.
- RBS retains first-ranking security over each of the entities in the AGDC Group and has a qualifying floating charge for the purposes of appointing an administrator.
- The WTS loan notes (£11m capital plus accrued interest) are secured by way of a second ranking debenture, dated 6 March 2015.

Initial introduction

- An engagement was commenced on 20 September 2018 by Deloitte Restructuring Services to review the options available to the AGDC Group.
- During this engagement a number of options were considered, including:
- Continued trading;
- A business wind down;
- A business and assets sale via a pre-pack administration process; and
- Planning for an insolvency.
- Subsequent to this, by way of an Addendum Letter dated 25 September 2018, Deloitte Restructuring Services were engaged by the AGDC Group to assist with short term cash monitoring of the trading entities.
- with short term cash monitoring of the trading entities. Deloitte Corporate Finance were also engaged on 27 September 2018 to undertake an AMA process with the objective of finding a purchaser for the trading entities by way of a sale of the shares or the business and asserts

Pre-appointment considerations

Other than the engagements noted on the previous page, the Joint Administrators have had no other prior professional relationship with the AGDC Group or the Directors.

We have consulted with both RBS and WTS throughout the pre-appointment planning process.

The following alternative options to the proposed pre pack Transaction have been considered both prior to and after our appointment as advisers to the Group:

Refinance

Given the short timeframe to find a solution (c. 3 weeks), the high level of secured debt, the level of tangible assets (noting potential ROT on stock), the current financial performance of the Group and the significant funding requirement identified by Management, a refinance to another provider was not considered feasible.

A solvent share sale

- The total value of the Group's secured debt was c. £30m and, as noted earlier, additional funding was required to fund a turnaround plan.
- As the underlying value of the assets are considered to be significantly lower than this, the option was not considered viable.

Continuing to trade

- This would require the AGDC Group to obtain immediate additional support from its existing Secured Lenders or to obtain alternative funding.
- Additional lender and/or Sun support was not forthcoming (from either the incumbent or new lender) and a refinance was not considered feasible as noted above.

Wind down of the business in insolvency

In order to perform a wind down, ongoing financial support by way of provision of overdraft facilities would be required. It would also only be feasible with the support of the wider creditor base including suppliers and landlords.

Furthermore, this option would be unlikely to deliver a better result to creditors due to the lack of tangible realisable assets, as noted above.

Solvent sale of assets

- Unless the consideration received for the assets was greater than the total debts (in excess of £30m), the Group would be insolvent immediately following a sale.
- As noted opposite, the value of the assets was considered to be significantly below this figure.
- Accordingly, this option was not considered feasible

Trading administration

- The realisable value of the underlying assets would depend on successful negotiations with suppliers. Factoring this and given the wider marketing already carried out, it was deemed unlikely that trading in administration would result in a better result for creditors.
- Accordingly, this option was not considered appropriate.

Creditors Voluntary Arrangement (CVA)

- The timetable required to plan and implement an approved CVA restructuring can typically take 2-3 months.
- This would also require further funding being made available to the AGDC Group in the short term. During this period, there would be no moratorium and the AGDC Group would remain at risk of creditor enforcement.
- Accordingly, this option was not considered feasible in the available timeframes.

Overview of the AGDC Group AMA Process

- Deloitte was engaged by the AGDC Group on the 27 September 2018 to assist in the disposal of the shares and / or business and assets of the ADGC Group.
- Given the highly cash constrained position of the Group, it was unable to continue to trade other than for a very limited period. Accordingly, the 12 October 2018 was therefore set as the target completion date to achieve a successful sale.
- The key stages of the marketing process prior to the submission of indicative offers included:
- Identification and agreement by Management and Deloitte of a selected purchaser list, including trade and financial purchasers;
- Preparation of a short script for calls with potential interested parties;
- If parties expressed an interest and requested further information, a Non Disclosure Agreement ("NDA") was issued for signing; and
- Following agreement of NDAs with parties that expressed interest, marketing materials and further information were provided which comprised of:
- A summary information pack which provided more detail on American Golf and the opportunity as well as detailed financial forecasts; and
- A store performance summary Pack that provided detail on each of American Golf's stores including key performance metrics and other data to aid bidders in their assessment of site desirability (e.g. square footage, rent etc.).
- The marketing materials were designed to provide sufficient information to each potential purchaser so that realistic indicative bids could be drawn up and submitted within an appropriate timeframe.
- A list of 35 initial potential purchasers was selected, comprising of 25 trade buyers and 10 financial investors.

- The marketing of the shares and / or business and assets of American Golf commenced on 28 September 2018. Due to the tight timeframes, the decision was taken to let bidders design and submit offers based on their preferred transaction structure (i.e. bidders could structure the offer as either a solvent share sale, pre-pack, debt sale or other as preferred).
- The trade parties were identified following discussions with the Management team and input from Deloitte's Consumer Goods sector team. The list included parties from across the UK Sports Goods sector and 17 operators that were based in Europe.
- The list of financial parties targeted was compiled by our Special Situations M&A team who are experienced in dealing with transactions of this nature and included those most likely to be both interested in the sector and capable of meeting the timetable to complete a deal.
- On 28 September 2018, the sales process and Deloitte's involvement was reported online by Sky News.
- Following the release of the article, Deloitte and American Golf received inbound expressions of interest from a further 16 parties, including 8 trade and 8 financial parties.
- After a review of the initial information provided and calls with Deloitte to understand each potential purchaser's interest level, 9 parties were provided access to the data room on Monday 1 October 2018. A further 2 parties were provided access on 4 October 2018 and 6 October 2018 respectively.
- The first meeting with Management was on Tuesday 2 October 2018. A further 5 Management meetings took place during the w/c 1 October.
- Due diligence questions and requests have been managed by Deloitte with significant support from ar internal project team at American Golf.
- During w/c 1 October, a process note was provided to interested purchasers with guidance on indicative offer requirements and confirmation of the 5 October 2018 midday deadline.

Solvent Offer (subsequently withdrawn)

- An indicative offer was received on 5 October 2018 for 100% of the share capital of Holdings for a nominal sum.
- The offer included providing the following facilities to a Newco:
- A facility in order for RBS to repaid in full (c. £6 million); and
- A working capital facility of up to £7.5 million for the next 6-12 months.
- Proposal to provide shares in the Newco to Sun
- The prospective bidder required security over all business and assets, including full fixed and floating charges.
- Following additional meetings with Management on Sunday 7 and Monday 8 October 2018 and further due diligence, the party withdrew its solvent offer.

Progression of offers

- Following the receipt of 7 offers on 5 October 2018 clarification calls were held with all parties.
- As one interested party had submitted a solvent offer, its interest was progressed over the weekend via meetings with Management and Deloitte. On Monday 8 October, following significant discussions on the level of future working capital requirements, this party withdrew from the process.
- After the clarification calls, a deadline for revised offers of Monday 8 October was set.
- Following the submission of a number of proceedable revised offers, one interested party, who had summited the highest offer, was progressed and additional diligence requests continued to be managed throughout 8 to 11 October 2018 with a view to completing a Transaction on 12 October 2018.
- Accordingly, taking into account all of the above, the Joint Administrators concluded it was appropriate to undertake the Transaction with the Purchaser to deliver the best outcome to the Group's creditors.

Marketing Conclusions

Our overall conclusion on this AMA process is based on a number of factors which include:

- The limited timeframe to complete a Transaction.
- Deloitte contacted 35 parties and had inbound interest from 16 parties. Of these, 33 were trade and 18 were financial.
- The trade parties were identified and considered by Deloitte's sector team, Management and the Board; and
- The financial investors were identified and considered by Deloitte's Special Situations M&A team, Management and the Board.
- The 28 September 2018 Sky News (and other) article meant that the opportunity was well publicised and led to a number of inbound enquiries.

- This number of parties is an appropriate number on which to form a view on market value and includes representation of the types of buyers that would be included in a broader buyer population for an asset of this nature.
- The Directors of the ADGC Group were consulted and approved each of the parties to approach.
- Both financial and trade parties were approached during the AMA marketing exercise for the purposes of attempting to maximise the value and deliverability of the Transaction through either a solvent or insolvent process.
- The summary information pack and store performance summary pack represented appropriate marketing materials on which potential buyers could base their preliminary interest.
- Information provided to interested parties in the data room represented appropriate information on which potential buyers could form their final view.
- 7 indicative offers were received as part of the AMA process which were structured as:
- Solvent share sale: 1 (subsequently withdrawn);
- Acquisition of debt: 1;
- Pre-pack: 4 (of which one was the Transaction);
 and
- Purchase of selected assets: 1.
