Director's Report

The directors present their annual report on the affairs of the company, together with the financial statements for the year ended 30 June 2004.

Principal activities and business review

The company has not traded during the year. Accordingly no profit or loss account or statement of total recognised gains or losses is presented.

Directors and their interest

The directors who served during the year are as follows:

Michael M. Sullivan (resigned 5 September 2003)
Shelly L. Byers
Steven Jackman

No director had any interest in the share capital of the company or other group companies which is required to be disclosed under the provisions of the Companies Act 1985.

Directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that year. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the group will continue in business.

Directors' report (continued)

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Auditors

Under the provisions of the Companies Act 1985 the directors do not propose to appoint auditors as the company has been dormant since the end of the financial year

By order of the Board

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read 'S Byers', is written over the printed name.
