- (6) To make experiments in connection with any business or proposed business of the Company and to experiment upon, test or improve any patents, inventions or rights which the Company may acquire or propose to acquire.
- (7) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any company or person carrying on or proposing to carry on any business which the Company is authorised to carry on, or from which the Company might derive any direct or indirect benefit, or possessed of any property suitable for the purposes of the Company.
- (8) To pay for any property or rights acquired by the Company and to remunerate any person either in cash or by the allotment of shares, debentures or other securities of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up, or otherwise.
- (9) To acquire and hold shares, debentures or other securities of any other company and otherwise invest and deal with the moneys of the Company.
- (10) To lend money or give credit to such persons on such terms as may seem expedient.
- (11) To borrow money and to secure by mortgage, charge or lien upon the whole or any part of the Company's undertaking and property (whether present or future), including its uncalled capital, the discharge by the Company or any other person of any obligation or liability.

(12) To guarantee the performance of any obligation by any person whatsoever and to give such indemnities as may seem expedient.

(13) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments.

(14) To establish and maintain or procure the establishment and maintenance of, any non-contributory or contributory pension or superannuation funds for the benefit of, and to give or procure the giving of donations, gratuities, pensions, allowances or emoluments to, any persons who are or were at any time Directors or officers of or in the employment or service of the Company or of any company which is a subsidiary of the Company or is allied to or associated with the Company or any such subsidiary or of any company which is a predecessor in business of the Company or of any such other company as aforesaid, and the wives, widows, families and dependants of any such persons, and to make payments for or towards the insurance of any such persons as aforesaid.

(15) To establish and subsidise or subscribe money to any institutions, associations, clubs or funds calculated to be for the benefit of or to advance the interests and well-being of the Company or of any such other company or person as is mentioned in the immediately preceding paragraph of this clause and to make payments for any charitable, benevolent, public, general or useful object.

(16) To enter into any arrangements with any governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local or otherwise) or any person or company that may seem conducive to the objects of the Company, or any of them, and to obtain from any such government, authority, person or company any rights, privileges, charters, contracts, licences and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain and to carry out, exercise and comply with the same.

(17) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses which the Company may lawfully pay with respect to the formation and registration of the Company or the issue of its capital, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining applications for or taking, placing or underwriting and procuring the underwriting of shares, debentures or other securities of the Company.

(18) To enter into any partnership or arrangement for sharing profits, co-operation or union of interests with any company or person engaged or interested in any business which the Company is authorised to carry on or from which the Company might derive any direct or indirect benefit.

(19) To establish or promote, or join in the establishment or promotion of, any other company for the purpose of acquiring and undertaking the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of the Company or the promotion of which shall be calculated to benefit the Company and to acquire and hold any shares, debentures or other securities of any such company.
