Directors' responsibilities statement

The directors are responsible for preparing the annual report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law), including FRS 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland".

Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgments and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the Company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

Notes to the financial statements
For the 52 weeks ended 27 July 2019

1. Accounting policies

Basis of accounting

Hortonwood Bakeries Limited is a company incorporated in the United Kingdom under the Companies Act 2006. The Company is a private company limited by shares and is registered in England and Wales. The address of the Company's registered office is shown on page 1 and the nature of the Company's operations and its principal activities are set out in the directors' report.

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, in accordance with the provisions applicable to companies subject to the small companies' regime, and in accordance with section 1A "Small Entities" of Financial Reporting Standard 102 (FRS102) issued by the Financial Reporting Council.

The functional currency of the Company is considered to be pounds sterling, because that is the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Company operates. These financial statements are also presented in pounds sterling.

Going concern

The Company currently has no external debt and is in a net liability position. The parent company has confirmed that it is the current intention to provide sufficient financial support, should it be required, to enable the Company to meet its liabilities as they fall due for a period of not less than 12 months from the date of approval of the financial statements.

The directors have considered the future activities of the Company and have concluded that the Company is a going concern. The financial statements have therefore been prepared on a going concern basis.

Financial instruments

All amounts due from, or owed to Group undertakings are repayable on demand and held at amortised cost.

Equity instruments

Equity instruments issued by the Company are recorded at the fair value of cash or other resources received, net of direct issue costs.

Critical accounting judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty

The directors have assessed that there are no critical accounting judgements or sources of estimation uncertainty in these financial statements.

2. Profit and loss account

The Company has not traded during the period and there are no recognised gains or losses in either the current or prior period, consequently the financial statements comprise of a balance sheet only.

Notes to the financial statements (continued)
For the 52 weeks ended 27 July 2019

3. Creditors: Amounts falling due within one year

	27 July 2019 £	28 July 2018 £
Amounts due to Group undertakings	519,642	519,642
Shares classed as liabilities	102,633	102,633
	622,275	622,275

All amounts due to Group undertakings are repayable on demand and held at amortised cost.

The Company has 102,633 11% cumulative redeemable preference shares of £1 each, which are classified as liabilities.

On 27 July 2017, Cavaghan and Gray Group Limited acquired these 102,633 shares from the 3i PLC for consideration of £nil.

At 27 July 2019 and 28 July 2018 the company was in arrears in respect of these cumulative redeemable preference shares. No appropriation from the profit and loss reserve has been made for these amounts as the likelihood of payment is considered remote by the directors.

4. Called up share capital

Allotted, called up and fully paid:
43,417 ordinary shares of £1 each	43,417	43,417

The Company has one class of ordinary shares which carry no right to fixed income.

5. Related party transactions

The Company has taken advantage of the exemption under FRS102 Section 33; Related Party Disclosures paragraph 33.7, as a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of Boparan Holdings Limited, not to disclose related party transactions with other wholly owned members of the Group.

6. Ultimate parent undertaking

The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Cavaghan & Gray Group Limited, a company registered in England and Wales. The parent company of the smallest group of undertakings for which group financial statements are drawn up and of which the Company is a member is Boparan Holdings Limited, a company registered in England and Wales. The parent company of the largest group of undertakings for which group financial statements are drawn up and of which the Company is a member is Boparan Holdco Limited, registered in England and Wales.

Copies of the consolidated financial statements can be obtained from the Company's registered office, as detailed on page 1. As at 27 July 2019 Boparan Holdco Limited was also the Company's ultimate parent undertaking.

R S Boparan and B K Boparan are the ultimate controlling parties.
