All of the Preference shares and the Ordinary 'B' shares are held by News International Publishers Limited, a company registered in England and Wales whose ultimate parent company is News Corporation a company incorporated in Delaware. The ordinary 'A' shares are held by Newsett Limited, a company registered in England and Wales 50% owned by News International Publishers Limited.

The Ordinary 'A' and Ordinary 'B' shares rank pari passu with regard to income. The assets of the Company in a liquidation remaining after discharging its liabilities shall be applied first, in payment to the holders of the preference shares of the amounts paid up on such shares, second in payment to the holders of the 'B' ordinary shares of the amounts paid up on such shares, third, in payment to the holders of the 'A' ordinary shares of the amount paid up on such shares and fourth, in distributing the balance of such assets amongst the holders of the 'B' ordinary shares pro rata to the number of such shares held by them respectively.

News International Publishers Limited has waived its right to dividends on the preference shares. On winding up these dividends rank above the repayment of any share capital.

Non-equity share capital is not redeemable and has no voting rights. Distribution in respect of any financial year shall be applied first in paying the holders of the Preference shares.

On a winding up of the Company the nominal value of each Preference share would rank above all other classifications of share capital.

4 Ultimate parent company

The Company is 50% owned by Newsett Limited and 50% owned by News International Publishers Limited, companies incorporated in England and Wales.

The ultimate parent company is News Corporation, a company incorporated in Delaware.

The largest group in which the results of the Company are consolidated is that headed by News Corporation, whose principal place of business is at 1211 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY10036. The smallest group in which they are consolidated is that headed by Newscorp Investments, a company incorporated in England and Wales.
