Report of the Trustees
for the Year Ended 31 July 2023

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 July 2023. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The objects of the charity is to promote, provide for and assist in the advancement of educational research in connection with the making and usage of pulp paper and related materials, and for this purpose to provide funds to universities, colleges, schools and individuals and generally to encourage and improve the education of all persons in related sciences. The principal activity of the Society is the arrangement of a four-yearly Symposium.

Public benefit

The trustees confirm that they have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit.

Grantmaking

The intention is to utilise the income from the funds, where possible to provide for and assist in the advancement of educational research in connection with the making and usage of pulp paper and related materials.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Investment performance

In accordance with the Memorandum and Articles of Association, the Trustees have the power to make investments in stocks, shares, investments and properties as they see fit. The Trustees have absolute discretion in determining the selection of investments for the Trust.

The annexed accounts show the state of the finances of the Charity at 31 July 2023, which the Trustees consider to be satisfactory.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Reserves policy

It is the aim of the charity to maintain unrestricted funds at a level sufficient to continue to operate and meet its day to day running costs.

The Trustees are satisfied that the reserves are at an acceptable level.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is constituted by a Memorandum and Articles of Association dated 14th August 1985, and constitutes a limited company, limited by guarantee, as defined by the Companies Act 2006. It is registered with the Charity Commission under charity number 327098. The management of the charity is the responsibility of the Trustees who are elected and co-opted under the terms of the Trust Deed. The Trustees have the power to appoint further trustees by a simple majority voting system.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of The Pulp and Paper Fundamental Research Society
(Limited by Guarantee)

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of The Pulp and Paper Fundamental Research Society (Limited by Guarantee) ('the Company')

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31 July 2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under Section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by Section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of Section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charitable company, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Governance costs

Governance costs comprises costs for the running of the charity.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.
