Directors' report for the year ended 31 July 2013

The directors present herewith the financial statements for the year ended 31 July 2013. As permitted by section 480 of the Companies Act 2006 the financial statements have not been audited.

Review of business

The company was incorporated on 16 August 1985 and has not yet commenced trading.

Directors and their interests

The directors who held office during the year are given below.

N G McRoberts
A J McRoberts

According to the register required to be kept by section 162 of the Companies Act 2006, no director had any beneficial interest in the shares of the company. The directors are also directors of the Company's parent Company, Moorcroft Group plc, and their interests in the shares of group companies are disclosed in the financial statements of that company.

Directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements,
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis, unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
