Notes.

Guidance notes on all aspects of striking off are available from Companies House. You are advised to read them fully BEFORE completing and returning this form.

If the company ceases to be eligible for striking off at any time after the application is made, then the application must be withdrawn using form 652c. Failure to do so is an offence.

Copies of this application must be sent to all notifiable parties i.e. creditors, employees, shareholders, pension managers or trustees and other directors of the company within 7 days from the day on which the application is made. Copies must also be sent to anyone who later becomes a notifiable party within 7 days of becoming so. You should check the guidance notes which contain a full list of those who must be notified. Failure to notify interested parties is an offence. It is advisable to obtain and retain some proof of delivery or posting of copies to notifiable parties.

This form must be signed by the sole director, by both if there are two, or by the majority if there are more than two. If more than three directors' signatures are required, continuation sheets for this form are available from Companies House.
