Directors' Responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts for each financial year that give a true and fair view of the company's state of affairs at the end of the year. In preparing those accounts, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts; and

- prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records for safeguarding the assets of the company and for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

For and on behalf of the Board.

Report of the Auditors to the Members of Terra Nova Pension Trustee Limited

We have audited the accounts on pages 4 and 5 which have been prepared under the Accounting Policies set out on Page 5.

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors

As described on pages 2 and 3, the company's directors are responsible for obtaining audited financial statements prepared in accordance with applicable United Kingdom accounting standards. Our responsibilities, as independent auditors are established in the United Kingdom by statute, the Auditory Practices Board and our profession's ethical guidance. We report to you, our opinion as to whether the financial statements give a true and fair view. We read the other information contained in the Annual Report and consider the implications for our report if we become aware of any apparent misstatements or material inconsistencies with the financial statements.

Basis of opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Auditing Standards issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the accounts. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made by the directors in the preparation of the accounts, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the accounts are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion, we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the accounts.

Opinion

In our opinion, the accounts give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs at 30th September 1999 and have been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985.
